

Dynamite Blast Rocks Nashville

300 Sticks Explode in Sewer
—Dozens of Homes
Damaged.

Nashville, Tenn., April 6.—A supply of dynamite for sewer excavation work in West Nashville, variously estimated at from 158 to 300 sticks, exploded from some undetermined cause today at Alabama and Forty-sixth avenues, damaging dozens of homes and injuring several persons. No fatalities were reported.

France Ready to Scrap Navy When Other Powers Do

Paris, April 6.—The president of the naval committee of the French senate, Gustave Kerguelen, in a statement to the Associated Press yesterday, advocated the summoning of a further naval armament conference which would have for its object the actual scrapping of the big navies of the world.

Indian Oil Leases Worth Millions Change Owners at Nod or Wave of Hand

Pawhuska, Okl., April 6.—Simple nods of heads or raising of hands pledged the oil industry yesterday to pay to Osage Indian tribe $8,029,100. Four sales netted more than $1,000,000 each, the highest price being paid by Waite Phillips, $1,325,000, for a lease on 160 acres.

The Carter Oil company paid $1,025,000 for another lease, the Gypsy Oil company bought a third for $1,195,000, and the fourth went to the Phillips Petroleum company, controlled by a brother of Waite Phillips, for $1,005,000.

The 17 tracts listed to be leased in the Burbank field brought $7,677,000. Nine other tracts near the field sold for $48,600 and 129 leases located in the east side of the county went for a total of $402,600.

Bank Secretary Once Appraiser

Successor to Chris M. Gruenther Widely Known in Banking Circles Over State.

Ward K. Newcomb of Kearney, Neb., named by the federal farm loan board to succeed the late Chris M. Gruenther as secretary of the Federal Land Bank of Omaha, is known to the officers of the bank, with which he has been identified as appraiser. He was the first appraiser appointed by the farm loan board of Washington for the Federal Land Bank of Omaha, serving three years in that capacity. During the last three years he has served as reviewing appraiser for the Omaha, Wichita, Louisville, St. Louis and St. Paul Federal Land bank districts.

Government Defeated in Swedish Chamber

By Associated Press. Stockholm, April 6.—The government headed by Hjalmar Branting, premier and foreign minister, was defeated in the upper chamber of parliament tonight by a vote of 76 against 60.

The vote was on a proposal by the government to distribute doles among the unemployed. The formal resignation of the cabinet will be tendered Friday, but Crown Prince Gustave, who is acting as regent, will suggest that M. Branting handle the

Storm Halts Celebration for "Uncle Joe" Cannon

Danville, Ill., April 6.—Because of a severe storm which broke suddenly here today, the "Uncle Joe Day" celebration in honor of "Uncle Joe" Cannon, planned for Friday, was postponed indefinitely.

affairs of state until the king, who at present is in Nice, returns home. The debate over the doles question was unusually heated and the vote rejecting the government's proposal is considered by many persons as the first sign of a general reaction against the socialists and an alliance of the other parties against them.
