Girl's Death Due to Accident Held as Unavoidable

E. O. Johnson Freed of Blame in Hitting Anna Saniuk With His Auto in South Omaha.

That Anna Saniuk, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Saniuk, 4224 Thirty-third street, came to her death Thursday evening as a result of an unavoidable accident when run down by an automobile driven by E. O. Johnson, 418 North Thirty-second street, is the verdict of the coroner's jury.

Peter Wronna, 4028 South Thirty-eighth street, and 4223 South Thirty-third street, testified that they saw the accident and that Johnson was going north at a speed of about eight miles an hour. They said he blew his horn while at least 30 feet from the little girl.

Caroline Lenczowska, 11, 4327 South Thirty-third street, testified she was sitting on the east side curbing of Thirty-third street and that about 10 children were playing ball and that a base was located in the middle of the street. She said just before Johnson came along Anna Saniuk ran into the street.

Johnson testified he was on his way home from work as a sheet metal worker, that he had noticed a number of children playing in the street and that he was going not faster than five miles an hour and blew his horn continuously. When he told of hitting the little girl he broke down and wept. He said he was married and sympathized with the parents.

The injured girl was first taken to the South Side hospital and later to St. Joseph hospital where she died at 11, six hours after the accident. Dr. Edward Chaloupka testified he took an x-ray picture of the skull of the injured girl, which showed a fracture and concussion.

The coroner's jury recommended that Johnson be released and the order of release was given by County Attorney Henry J. Beal, who acted in his capacity as coroner.

The dead girl survived besides her parents, by two sisters, Cheslava and Fennie, and two brothers, Vensley and Mitchell. The funeral will be held this morning at 9 from St. Francis church, with burial in St. Mary Magdalene cemetery.

Three Held on Liquor Charges in South Omaha

Activities of the new central squad centered in South Omaha Thursday night. They conducted two raids and arrested three men, two on charges of illegal possession of whisky, and one on a charge of illegally transporting whisky.

A 4202 L street, the officers found Ignatz Zagzoha selling a drink to a customer. Ignatz was arrested and a quantity of whisky was seized. They next went to 3802 L street, where they found a small amount of whisky after a brief search and arrested Gus Staroski as proprietor of the place.

As the officers emerged from this place, they met John Staskiewicz, 4018 L street, coming to the place carrying two one-gallon jugs filled with whisky. John had a car at the curb and more whisky was found in the rear of this car.

This Great FIRE SALE

Is like a gigantic magnet. It daily draws thousands of men and women who compete for their share of these amazing values.

SATURDAY

Will overshadow all previous days --We have prepared for the greatest activity this store has ever known.

From the basement stock rooms we have brought to the selling floors thousands of dollars' worth of merchandise that was yet unpacked at the time of the fire. These garments are as fresh and free from the odor of smoke as though they were never in a fire—and yet they come under the jurisdiction of the insurance adjusters—and must be sold regardless of the terrific loss that we are forced to sustain.

$200,000 STOCK

Of Men's, Women's and Children's NEW SPRING APPAREL

Thrown in this whirlpool of price blasting upon orders of insurance adjusters

No mercy will be shown. Everything goes regardless of its newness or its perfect condition. What a golden opportunity for the apparel buyers of Omaha and vicinity. Is it any wonder that our great sales organization has not been able to serve even half the crowds that hourly enter this store?

ALL SALES ARE FINAL!

This rule is effective because the selling is in the hands of the insurance companies. We cannot permit of exchanges, returns or refunds. No goods sold to dealers.

No sale in the history of the city has ever been accorded the response in crowds or in buying enthusiasm as has this great fire sale.

And this is but an example of the public's confidence in a Beddeo sale.
