Flynn-Cotter.
An attractive wedding of last week was the one on Tuesday, at which Monsignor F. P. McManus united in marriage Miss Clara Cotter and Joseph Flynn at a nuptial mass in St. Xavier church.
The bride was becomingly attired in a crepe gown of the coconut shade, with which she wore a small hat and gloves to match. A corsage of roses, sweetpeas and lilies of the valley completed her costume.
Her only sister, Miss Martha Cotter, as bridesmaid, was gowned in brown crepe, and her bouquet was of pink sweetpeas.
Martin Flynn served as attendant for his brother.
Miss Rodna Hughes presided at the organ and during the ceremony accompanied Miss Marjorie Powers, who gave several vocal numbers.
A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Cotter, for the immediate relatives, and later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Flynn departed on a short honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside in Omaha.

Wedding Date Set.
Miss Margaret Bishop has chosen Wednesday, April 13, as the date for her marriage to Alfred Jacobson, and the ceremony will be performed at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Bishop.

Postponed Visit.
Mrs. Lawrence Phillips of Denver, Colo., who had planned to visit her father, Edward Hart, during the past week and also be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Test Stewart, has postponed her visit until a future date.

Birthday Party.
Little Henry Jennings, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jennings, Jr., celebrated his third birthday on Saturday by inviting Jean Wilcox, Pecky Baird of Sioux City, Ia., Philip Shugart and Billie Garner to lunch with him.

A candle-light cake was used as the table decoration.

For a Chicago Visitor.
Mrs. J. H. Aldridge who came from her home in Chicago to assist Mrs. Herbert Duquette when she and the members of St. Martha guild gave their benefit luncheon last Tuesday, remained over for a few days and in her honor Mrs. Duquette entertained on Wednesday. A beautifully appointed luncheon served from four tables, preceded the game of bridge at which prizes were awarded Mrs. Pusey McGee and Mrs. Theodore Metzger.

Those who were asked to meet this guest included Mesdames Donald Anns, Roy Garner, Robert Sprague, Harlie Norris, Wayne Bogart, Harold Ross, Robert Lindsay, Pusey McGee, E. A. Moore, Howard Martin, George Gretzer, Frank Hovey, Theodore Metzger, C. A. Bowlsby and Miss Margaret Groneweg.

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindsay gave a "movie party" for this visitor and Friday she was among the many Council Bluffs people who attended the Brownell Hall benefit party in Omaha.

To Entertain.
Covers will be placed for 65 guests at a dinner-dance which Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rosenfeld are giving next Tuesday evening at their home on South Eighth street.

Theater Party.
Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Englebeck and their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, of Des Moines, Ia., were honor guests at a theater party at the Brandeis on Friday evening, given by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Searles at whose home they are visiting.

Bridge-Dinners.
Two charmingly appointed dinners were presided over on Friday and Saturday evenings by Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Burton at their home on Fourth street.

The centerpiece was of pink blossoms with lighted candles on the table matching the flowers.
Twelve guests were present on each occasion, and the evenings were devoted to bridge.

Dinner-Dance.
Miss Caroline Theinhardt was a hostess of last week who entertained in a delightful manner on Friday evening at the Brandeis restaurant.

The dining table, marked with places for 16, was fragrant with a centerpiece of spring flowers artistically arranged in a huge oval basket, and dainty nut dishes and name cards carried out the rainbow scheme of the decorations.

The occasion had an added significance due to the fact that it was also the eighteenth birthday of Miss Theinhardt.

Dancing was the evening diversion.

Hanchett's Return.
Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett are being welcomed home after their sojourn in California, where they passed the months of January, February and March.

They arrived in Council Bluffs Friday afternoon, having en route visited in Denver, Colo., with a former Council Bluffs man, Forrest Rutherford, and Mrs. Rutherford.

They also called upon Mme. Alexandra Stadniska, Omaha pianist who, on account of ill health, is at the Phipps sanitarium there.

Dancing Club Arrangements.
The last in the series of parties planned by the Tuesday Dancing club will be given on the evening of April 17, and promises to be a very gala event.

Several people are arranging to give dinners of that night, among whom are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riker, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Maxfield and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Emplie.

A very successful dance was given by this club last Tuesday, and during the evening plans for next year were talked over.

Mrs. A. V. Henney and Mrs. Julius Rosenfeld were selected to work with Mrs. Fred Emplie, the chairman, and this committee will have charge of the series of dances for next winter.

Birthday Party Planned.
Mrs. Bernard Appel will entertain at her home on Stutsman street Monday afternoon, to celebrate the fifth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Frances.

Thursday a Popular Day.
Thursday was a popular one in Council Bluffs, the evening being marked with various forms of entertainment.

The dancing recital of Miss Cora Quick's 80 young pupils drew a very large attendance and the concert at the Broadway M. E. church by the Simpson College Symphony orchestra was an equally attractive event.

More than 200 guests attended the banquet and dances given at the Eagle hall by the American Legion and Auxiliary in honor of Hanford MacNider, and the 700 teachers from southwestern Iowa who were here for their convention the last three days of the week, were provided with

Returns to Reside

Mrs. Frank Pinney

The many friends of Mrs. Frank Pinney are rejoicing in the fact that after an absence of more than three years from Council Bluffs, she has again returned here to make her future home.

Both Mrs. Pinney and her husband were born in this city, and here they have continuously resided with exception of their recent residence in Des Moines, Ia.

entertainment on that evening at the Abraham Lincoln High school.

Cinema Party and Tea.
Mrs. John Corlies invited about a dozen of her friends to one of the afternoon performances at the Broadway theater on Thursday, and later the guests went to her home for tea.

Mrs. Menold Hostess.
Mrs. Harry Menold was a luncheon hostess of Wednesday whose guests included the members of her bridge club.

Attended Party in Omaha.
Among the Council Bluffs women who attended the bridge party at the Blackstone hotel on last Friday for the Building Fund benefit of Brownell Hall were Mesdames Wood Allen, H. A. Quinn, Ned Shepard, C. E. Woodbury, Charles R. Hannan, Jr., George Van Brunt, Herbert Duquette, Miss Elizabeth Quinn and Miss Marian Turner.

Mrs. Hannan was awarded one of the prizes for her high score.

Mrs. Schoentgen Entertains.
Mrs. Edward Schoentgen gave a luncheon at the Brandeis restaurant on Friday, complimentary to her daughter, Miss Jane, a student at St. Katherine school in Davenport, who is spending the spring holidays in Council Bluffs.

Included in her guests were Mrs. W. L. Douglas, Mrs. William Coppock, Mrs. Thomas Metcalf, Mrs. Angeline R. Brinsmaid and Miss Elizabeth Douglas.

Parents of a New Son.
Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Peters of Omaha are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son born at the Clarkson hospital last Wednesday.

Mrs. Peters was formerly Miss Geraldine Hess of this city.

Tea in Omaha.
Mrs. Arthur Gouli of Omaha gave a tea at her home on Saturday, to which a number of Council Bluffs people were bidden.

The affair was in honor of Mrs. John N. Baldwin, her mother, who formerly lived here.

Shin-Ayin Meeting.
Miss Jane Schoentgen was hostess to the members of the Shin-Ayin sorority on Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Schoentgen.

Personals.
Mrs. S. S. Kellar has returned from California where she spent the winter.

Little Becky Baird of Sioux City, Ia., is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith.

John McGee, who attends Grinnell college, spent the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McGee.

Mrs. J. H. Aldridge has returned to her home in Chicago after a short visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Duquette.

Miss Jane Schoentgen will leave Tuesday afternoon for Davenport, Ia., to resume her studies at St. Katherine school.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Searles, sr., have as weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Englebeck and Miss Elizabeth Englebeck of Des Moines, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hess recently purchased the Thomas Metcalf home on Clark avenue and the Metcalfs plan to move in the near future to Omaha.

Miss Eleanor Gruver leaves Monday afternoon for Grinnell, Ia., where she is a student at the college there. Miss Gruver spent the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gruver.

Mrs. Edward P. Schoentgen, national vice president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, leaves Tuesday for Washington, D. C., to attend the annual congress of the D. A. R.

Miss Gretchen Emplie, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Emplie during the vacation period at the National Kindergarten school, will leave tonight for Chicago to take up her studies again.

Miss Frances Ouren has resumed her work at the Iowa State university after a brief holiday spent in Council Bluffs. Her guests, Miss Mary Jane Dougherty and Miss Elsie Loomis, who came home with her, returned at the same time to Iowa City where they are also students.

The New Shoes.
The buckle-trimmed shoe is no more. Its death knell has been sounded in Paris by the many variations of the strapped slipper, some of them quite bizarre with their inlays and appliques of bright colored leathers. As a foundation for the street shoe black patent leather is almost invariably chosen, but the basis of the shoe, the black leather, is often almost obliterated with bright trimmings.

A distinguished American who has just returned from Paris brought with her the shoes sketched here. Especially interesting are the daytime shoes with trimmings of lizard skin.

Evening slippers have in lieu of buckles bows of rhinestones or crystal beads. The oldtime method of heading slippers has been resumed in evening footwear, which scintillates with crystals and rhinestones.

New French shoes, left to right: Patent leather with perforations showing an underlay of emerald green kid. Patent leather trimmed with lizard skin. Silver cloth evening slippers rhinestone bows.

Ratcliffe to Speak

S. K. Ratcliffe

S. K. Ratcliffe, who speaks before the Omaha Society of Fine Arts on Tuesday, April 10, in the ball room of the Fontenelle hotel, will be remembered for his brilliant lecture last year on India. Events have changed much in India and indeed in the whole world since that time and we may expect a masterly discussion of world affairs from this British journalist whose subject will be "The Crisis of Civilization."

Not in mortals to command success, But well to do more—we'll deserve it.—Addison.

Library Chats

The extension department of library service is being used very successfully by many business firms of the city. Postal service featuring the new books and periodicals that have articles dealing with the work and development along special lines are sent to the business firms and the books reserved for their use. Anyone wishing this service can notify Miss Lila Bowen, who with Miss Lula Myers has charge of the extension work.

The department offers information on any subject and reference service for answering difficult questions. The commercial and industrial service includes "Survey of Current Business," Moody's "Investment Letters," "Weather, Crops and Markets," "The Annalist," "Congressional Digest," "Bulletin of Pan-American Union," "Monthly Summary of Foreign Commerce of the United States," "Chase Economic Bulletin," "Monthly Labor Review," "Commerce Monthly," "The Index," "Commerce Reports," "Nation's Business," "Trade Information Bulletin."

The library has books of value to every line of business endeavor and will be glad to supply reading lists for employees who wish to know more about their particular line of work.

The Florence branch library opened Monday, April 2, and 90 cards were issued the first day. Miss Dorothy Dahlman is the librarian in charge and is assisted by Miss Amy Shaff and an average of 100 patrons have come to the library every day.

Miss Dahlman is carrying out her own artistic ideas in the color scheme of the room, which is in tan and blue. Mr. Thomas C. Byrne has donated the material for the attractive blue curtains which will be hung at the windows next week.

Miss Dahlman has inherited her love

Omaha D. A. R.

At the meeting of the Omaha chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, to be held at the home of Mrs. E. R. Hume, 904 North Forty-ninth street, Tuesday at 2:30 p. m., Miss Anna Porter will read selections from original poems.

Miss Porter is a graduate of the Randolph Macon Woman's college at Lynchburg, Va., and is a contributor to current magazines. Miss Porter's ancestral line contains the names of many famous Americans. Her maternal great-grandfather, William Oglethorpe, was associated with General Oglethorpe in the founding of the first colony in Georgia. She is a direct descendant of James Fenimore Cooper, while two cousins, Sydney Launier, of Georgia, is known and loved throughout the south through his poems, and William Sidney Porter, known to the reading public, as O. Henry.

Reports from the state conference at Lincoln, and music will complete the program.

Tough Meat.
If the foul or meat for boiling seems tough, add a pinch of soda to the water in which it simmers. It will make it nice and tender.

Light and Tasteless.
When using drippings in a cake, beat it to a cream before adding to the other ingredients. Then add a few drops of vinegar and any flavor of most fat will be taken from the cake.

The COFFEE

that is universally liked

Butter-Nut coffee plays no favorites.
Good enough for the most critical, cheap enough for the most economical.
There is no economy in cheap coffee. The cost per cup is too little to risk the final outcome of any meal. Good cream and sugar and a good meal demand the best in coffee.
A 5-cent saved in coffee might spoil the family's meal.

"It improved the condition of every one who was constipated"

Recent experiments explain action of Fleischmann's Yeast in relieving this common complaint

In three great scientific laboratories and hospitals, recent experiments were made on over 100 persons—to test the effects of Fleischmann's Yeast on constipation.

It was found that the yeast mixes with the highly-nutritious, concentrated foods which form most of our modern diet, softening them and increasing their bulk. This greater bulk gently encourages the intestinal muscles to act, and at the same time strengthens them by offering just the resistance they need.

That is why, according to the recently-issued report of these tests, Fleischmann's Yeast "improved the condition of every one who had any degree of constipation." It simply assists Nature to restore normal, healthy conditions. Hundreds of thousands of men and women are eating Fleischmann's Yeast today. Physicians and hospitals are prescribing it in place of the dangerous drugs and cathartics which weaken the intestinal muscles and so actually increase the trouble.

Your own physician will heartily endorse this principle of treating constipation by gently encouraging the intestinal muscles to act for themselves. Be sure you get Fleischmann's Yeast—yeast in its natural fresh form. Recent experiments have shown that yeast corrects constipation only when its cells are alive and active, and that it loses its laxative effect when these cells are "killed" and dried.

Eat at least 2 or 3 cakes a day—plain or dissolved in water, milk, or fruit juices—preferably half an hour before a meal, or the last thing at night.

Get several cakes at a time—they will keep in a cool, dry place for several days. Be sure you get Fleischmann's Yeast. All grocers have it.

"Though 58 I am feeling like a boy of 20"

"For the last four years I had been suffering constantly with indigestion," writes a broker from Havana. "I could not go to the club at night. I had to give up all my pleasures. But since a friend of mine recommended to me to try Fleischmann's Yeast, I am back again on the same old footing. Though 58 years old I am feeling as if I were only 20—thanks to Fleischmann's Yeast."
