Olympic Games Awarded to Los Angeles

United States Awarded First Available Date by International Committee

Rome, April 9.—The International Olympic committee here today awarded the 1932 Olympic games to Los Angeles, Cal.

This date was the first available for the United States because the 1924 games go to Paris and the 1928 games to Amsterdam.

The award was made by the International Olympic committee.

The American claim for the next available award for the games was presented to the committee by William May Garland of Los Angeles, son of the American members of the committee.

"The United States thinks she has a right to the next available games because we are one of the great athletic countries of the world," Mr. Garland said.

"In extending to the committee an invitation to come to Los Angeles, I extend it in behalf of the whole United States. The welcome of the entire country is contained in this invitation and we promise you the greatest hospitality ever witnessed at any Olympics.

"We have built a gigantic stadium at Los Angeles, capable of seating 75,000 people, and we can assure all the facilities worthy of a great athletic event like the Olympics.

There was no discussion after Mr. Garland's address, the committee voting unanimously to accept the invitation.

Olympics of 1932 Second for U.S.

New York, April 9.—Award of the Olympic games of 1932 to Los Angeles by the International Olympic committee today in Rome marks the final chapter of a vigorous campaign by American athletic authorities, particularly those in California to bring the international meet to this country.

Completing a great new stadium and offering attractive inducements, the 1924 games about a year ago, when it appeared Paris might relinquish its award because of difficulty in obtaining needed governmental appropriations.

Shortly afterward, however, France smoothed out its difficulties and Los Angeles then sought the games for 1928. The international committee meeting last June decided to accept, instead, the bid of Amsterdam, Holland, explaining that a majority of nations felt economic conditions would make it impossible for European competitors to finance an invasion of America.

At the same time the committee sanctioned an international meet at Los Angeles in September, 1925, to dedicate the California city's new stadium.

The 1932 Olympics will mark the second time they have been held in this country. The third meet after the Olympic revival in 1896 was held in St. Louis in 1904, when American competitors, with the advantage of contending on their own soil, swept the field.

Dempsey Given Until Saturday to Accept

Milwaukee, April 9.—The State department of the 127 American Legion posts of Montana have given Jack Dempsey have been met. Collins until next Saturday at noon to accept or reject the $200,000 offered the champion to meet Tommy Gibbons in a 15-round contest to a decision at Shelby, Mont., on July 4, according to Mike Collins, promoter for the American Legion, who received a telegram to that effect today.

All demands made of the legion by Dempsey, have been met, Collins said, adding that the Montana men behind the proposed championship affair are becoming tired of further delay in closing negotiations.

Satisfied With Landis Ruling in Benton Case

New York, April 9.—The Babe Benton case, which has been agitating major league baseball circles for some time, is closed so far as he is involved, John H. Heydler, president of the National league, announced today upon his return from a six weeks' vacation trip, which took him to the Pacific coast.

"Commissioner Landis has decided that the Cincinnati club is at liberty to sign and play Benton," he said. "As far as I am concerned that closes the incident."

Central High Strong in Sprints and Weak in Field--Meets Soon

WHEN scanning the horizon for a team which looms as a contender for the state track and field championship, cast an optic on the Central High school's squad of hustling athletes.

According to the dope, so easily upset but yet furnishing the only basis for drawing comparisons, the Purple pack has the city championship sewed away, provided it can develop field men which can contribute a few points.

Central had a walkaway in the city championships last year, and seven of the men who were point scorers in that event are back in the abbreviated trunks this season. They are Galloway, Torrison, Percival, Captain Pope, Lawson and Howell.

Price holds records. The track squad also has been strengthened by the enrollment of Price, negro star from Tech, who was that school's outstanding performer last year.

Price's entrance at Central spots it the 440 and half mile race in the city meet and probably first places at the state meet.

Price can show his spiked shoes in any high school runner in the city in the 440 and half mile, and is not slow in the 220, having tied Beckler, Central's sprint star, over that distance last year.

The swift footed negro holds the city record in the two events in his liking, having made the 40 in 49.45 seconds and the half in 2:05.45. The 440 city record is 2.35 seconds under the state mark. However, it is not official, as he beat the mark on a straight track, while the track record is over a circular course. He also was aided by a high wind at his back.

Weak in Field. Central shapes up much stronger in the dashes than in the field events.

Galloway, star sprint man of last year, Marrow, Solomon and Jones are the cream of the talent working in the century.

Solomon, Price and Percival are showing the wares that should entitle them to regular posts on the half mile relay.

Lawson and Fetterman have chosen endurance tests and are seasoning themselves for mile grind.

The 220 has brought out Price, Solomon and Percival.

Percival is the only runner working out in the 440 and half with Price, Pope, Torrison, Marrow, Howell and Elliott are the aspirants for the field squad. Their work has only been mediocre to date.

City Meet May 5. The Central squad will get its first actual competition in an inter-school meet to be held Saturday, April 21. The following Saturday they will journey to Fremont to engage in a quadrangular meet which will include Lincoln, Fremont and Tech or Wahoo. The city meet is scheduled for May 5 and the state tests the following week.

Former Champ Dead

Philadelphia—Arthur Chambers, 75, who won the lightweight championship of the world by winning a 136-round fight with Johnny Clark, died.

She's Good

Many a man might envy the bowling prowess of Mrs. Minnie Beringer (above) of New York. Showing the way in recent women's tournament, Mrs. Beringer came out high scorer with mark of 202.

A. B. C. Tourney Closes With Three New Records Set

Milwaukee Team Bows 3,139 Score for New Mark in Team Events.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 9.—Repeated shattering of world records in three of the four events, scoring of unusually high totals and the display of better bowling than ever has been seen in a congress meet, featured the 23d annual tournament of the American bowling congress which ended this afternoon.

New records were established in the five-man doubles, and all-events divisions. The Nelson-Mitchell aggregation of Milwaukee led in the team event with a total of 3,139, the Claman Dairy Lunch quintet of Indianapolis being a close second with 3,115. The Claman's registered the first 3,100 total ever shot in a national meet, establishing a world's record for A. B. C. competition and led the major event for 10 minutes, the Nelsons bumping them out of first place, almost immediately.

Chalk Up Record. F. Wilson and C. Daw, members of the champion Nelson-Mitchell team, hung up a new record in an A. B. C. event for 10 minutes, which they totaled 1,358, bettering the record established in 1917 by G. Satorius and W. Holzschuh of Paris, Ill., by 13 pins.

W. Knox of Philadelphia, the only man that ever scored a perfect game in A. B. C. competition, which he achieved at Toledo in 1912, leads the list of all events with a new world's record of 2,019. Two other men, C. Daw of Milwaukee, and M. MacDowell of Cleveland, also topped last year's record score of 1,999, rolled by F. Spennilla of New York city, with 2,014 and 2,063, respectively.

Wins Singles. C. Baumgarten of Cincinnati is in the top position in the individual event with a total of 774, falling five pins short of the world's record, held by W. Lundgren of Chicago, who made the mark at Toledo last year.

The list of leading prize winners in the various events together with their scores follows:

Team. Nelson Mitchell, Milwaukee, 3,139; Claman Dairy Lunch, Ind., 3,115; Riddola Cresmer, Denver, 2,982.

Five-man event. F. Wilson-C. Daw, Milwaukee, 3,139; H. Sanders-F. Sieber, Dayton, 3,115; H. Schultz-J. M. G. G. G., 3,063.

Singles. C. Baumgarten, Cincinnati, 2,019; W. Knox, Philadelphia, 2,014; W. Larson, Racine, 2,063.

All events. W. Knox, Philadelphia, 2,014; C. Daw, Milwaukee, 2,014; M. MacDowell, Cleveland, 2,063.

Schneider Uses Ax on Pastimers

Following a practice game yesterday with the Burlington Shops, which his aggregation won, 20 to 1, Manager Schneider of the Schneider Machinery team of the Metropolitan class A league, began wielding the ax with vengeance, with the result that 30 amateurs today are looking for some rest to perch upon during the coming season.

Of the 49 candidates working out, Schneider retained the following: Barney Cropper, first baseman; Harry Postlewait, centerfielder; Jimmy Baumgardner, pitcher; Warren Kibler, pitcher; Tommy Baumgardner and Lawrence Schuler, catcher; Tommy Miller, second baseman; Bill Conklin, left fielder; C. A. Calvert, right fielder; Lester Cornet, third baseman; and Bob Kaiser, short stop.

By retaining both Jimmy and Tommy Baumgardner, Schneider will have one battery composed of brothers. They will comprise Kibler and Schuler. The Schneiders open their season May 22.

They will play a practice game Sunday with the Carter Lake club.

Hero of 136-Round Bout Dies

Philadelphia, April 9.—Arthur Chambers, once lightweight champion of the world and hero of the longest battle with bare knuckles in the history of the squared circle, died here late last night at a local hospital. He was 75 years old and was stricken with paralysis several weeks ago.

Chambers won the lightweight title from Johnny Clark, who recently died at Atlantic City, in 136 rounds, the longest bout ever staged. The fight took place on March 27, 1879, at Chippewa Falls, Canada, and was under the old London rules, when a knockout counted as a round.

Quits Baseball

Philadelphia, April 9.—Fred Zimmerman, holder of walking championships in several states, including Nebraska and Colorado, may postpone his contemplated transcontinental walk this year to defend his title of champion walker of Colorado at a contest to be held at Denver in May.

Zimmerman was scheduled to leave the latter part of this week for New York, which he had selected as the starting point. He expected to walk to New York to get in shape for his hike across the country, on which he was going to try and break the world's record.

Carpenter to Fight

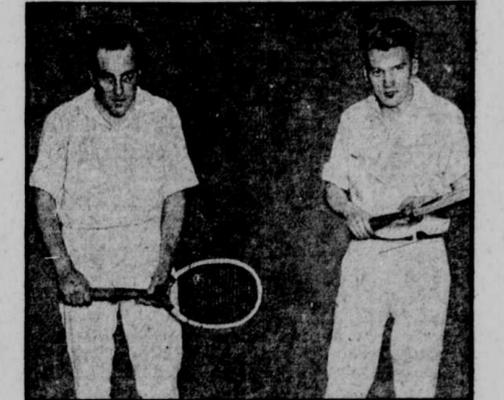

Paris, April 9.—Georges Carpentier and Marcel Nilles have been signed to fight for the heavyweight championship of France on May 10, in Paris. It was announced today.

"Georges will also fight Beckett in London on June 14. Francois Desamps, his manager, informed International News Service. "But, unless our plans are changed, he will not be negotiating a year because we are negotiating several more matches in Europe this fall."

Shafer Wins at Pinchurst

Pinhurst, April 9.—J. Carleton Shafer of Philadelphia, playing through champion, today won his first match in the north and south men's singles tennis championship, defeating Norman Johnson of New York, 6-0, 6-1.

National Doubles Title Winners

Jokes of a Wayside Tee

April of the laughing eyes, April of the storms, April of the mashes shot pitched against the pin!

April of the two-base hit, where the clamor was sung, When the blighted empire starts the same old din:

Think how long we've waited, All the winter through, Till the snows abated, And the sky was blue;

All the longsome hours, When the world was gray, For the silver showers, And the early flowers,

Remember your day!

April of the silver dew, April of the clouds, April of the bracelets shot played upon the dew,

April of the "Batter up!" and the storming, Teeping crowds winning hit at the ancient shrine,

We have seen you coming, Far across the snows, Where the bees were humming, And the south wind blowing,

When the gales were falling, When across the moors, And the snows were falling, We have heard you calling, "Come on out of doors!"

The Yanks this season, even with Ruth keyed up and the strongest pitching staff in baseball, are now upon the verge of facing one of the toughest campaigns they have ever known. The race could hardly be any closer than it was last season, where they slipped through by a single game, but now, in place of having one robust opponent to watch, they will have at least three. For in addition to the Browns, still a doubtful quantity until George Sisler's status is better known, they must look for the keenest kind of competition from Ty Cobb's Detroit Tigers and "Kid" Gleason's White Sox, two ball clubs that have been well bolstered up and two ball clubs that will take top place when it comes to morale and a hustling spirit all along the line.

If these two Yankee rivals get the pitching they are looking for and hope for and Sisler swings back into shape we may have four delegations all hidden in the upfitted dust of the early autumn, but neck and neck or a break and break, with the final decision a toss-up. And, with conditions like this at work, the new Yankee stadium on the first eastern invasion of Detroit, St. Louis, Chicago and Cleveland will crack every attendance record ever known. Especially if the wrought-up Ruth is to host a new home-run crop of sturdy proportions.

The Harvard-Yale-Princeton Roundup. Last spring Princeton had some pitch to spare over Yale and Harvard, both upon the water and the track. The Tiger had the better track team and the stronger crew, with Yale predominating at baseball.

What about the spring ahead? Yale has led its two old rivals through the intermediate period between football and spring, but the three main test-crow, track and baseball—are still to come.

It would not be surprising to see Zimmerman May Not Hike.

Fred Zimmerman, holder of walking championships in several states, including Nebraska and Colorado, may postpone his contemplated transcontinental walk this year to defend his title of champion walker of Colorado at a contest to be held at Denver in May.

Shafer Wins at Pinchurst. Pinhurst, April 9.—J. Carleton Shafer of Philadelphia, playing through champion, today won his first match in the north and south men's singles tennis championship, defeating Norman Johnson of New York, 6-0, 6-1.

Dr. Phillip B. Hawk of Philadelphia defeated Valentine Havens of New York, 6-2, 6-4. Capt. Albert J. Gore of Washington, D. C., and J. E. D. Jones of Providence, both gained second round brackets by default.

Jock Improves Sarazen's Golf Game on Tour

New York, April 9.—Waltham swank, nor undue modesty, Gene Sarazen informed the writer that he considered himself a better golfer at the moment than he was last summer when he won two great championships at Skokie and Oakmont.

He made no extravagant claims about his ability to win the British open title, nor did he predict that he felt equal to retaining his American championships, but he does feel that his game is sounder and more versatile than never before and said as much.

Sarazen does not take personal credit for this alleged improvement which he says is as much mental as physical. He frankly avows that distinction to Jock Hutchison, with whom he was associated, on tour, during the winter months.

Hutchison Responsible. "I learned more about scientific golf on that tour than in all the previous years I had played the game," Sarazen said. "Hutch" was responsible. He took me in hand like the wonderful fellow he is and taught me all the tricks that a year's experience have brought him.

"I consider myself a much better golfer than I was at Skokie and Oakmont last summer. This does not mean that I will repeat my successes of 1922. That would be almost expecting too much. It is only that I have come to know why and the wherefore of my tricks that a year's experience have brought him.

Uses Spoon Now. That the object of this indictment does not concern is more or less natural, but he can muster rather plausible arguments to prove his point. First of all, he claims he has retained every essential of his 1922, plus the following improvements as introduced before and in each article: 1.—The use of a spoon shot to reach distant greens. Sarazen never played a spoon before, and in each article he has the chance of being short with a full iron or over with a brassie.

2.—Control of the club and grip shot of which Sarazen must be a master if he wishes to enjoy any success on the hard-balled British courses. In the placing a low ball so necessary on the wind-ward slopes.

3.—Valuable advice in the matter of taking advantage of a course's physical properties and inside tips on preserving the morality in tight and unpleasant circumstances.

"I am a better and steadier orthodox golfer for my lessons," "As I said before, I may fall in England and I may not repeat in America, but it will not be because I am lacking in improvement."

Carp and Niles Fight May 10

Paris, April 9.—Georges Carpentier and Marcel Nilles have been signed to fight for a bout on May 10 in the Buffalo stadium. Nilles claims the French heavyweight championship.

Helena, Mont., April 9.—Joe Simonich of Butte received the decision over Johnny Tillman of Minneapolis after 12 rounds of boxing here last night. The men are welterweights.
