

D. A. R. Political Pot Simmering

Candidates for President—General Lining Up Forces for Election Next Week.

Washington, April 12.—The pre-convention political pot began to simmer in Memorial Continental hall where next week the annual committee of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held with the triennial election of national officers overshadowing most of the program in the interest of the delegates.

Mrs. G. Wallace W. Hanger of Washington, wife of the vice chairman of the United States railroad labor board, and one of the three candidates already announced to succeed Mrs.

George Maynard Minor of Connecticut as president-official, announced that she would open campaign headquarters Thursday and it was learned that Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook of Pennsylvania, and Mrs. William Cunningham of New York, her opponents, would do likewise before Saturday.

If elected, Mrs. Hanger said, she will continue to emphasize the policy of Americanization, not only among immigrants but among the youths of America, adopted by the present administration.

Nominations for president-general and other officers will be placed before the congress next Wednesday night and voting will begin the following morning. The congress will convene Monday and will continue through Saturday.

Former Sleuth Dies.

New York, April 12.—William T. Hazen, 66, chief of the United States secret service from 1894 to 1896, died today.

Omahan, Shot by Woman, Weds Her

Elmer McNally and Mrs. Mary Huller-Married After Queer Divorce Quadrangle.

The love paths of Elmer McNally and Mrs. Mary Huller have led, after many vicissitudes, into the haven of matrimony. They took out a marriage license yesterday.

McNally was divorced from his wife, Emma, Mrs. Huller, 47, was divorced from her husband, Michael, 50, who runs a cafe at 1202 Douglas street.

McNally was named by Huller as correspondent during the hearing of Mrs. Huller's divorce petition. After both divorces had been granted, Judge Sears reinstated them before the six months had elapsed that would have made them permanent. That was May 9, 1922.

A month prior to that Mrs. Huller shot McNally one night when he tried to enter her bungalow at 402 Grover street.

McNally kept up his efforts to have the two decrees of divorce reinstated. He called frequently at the court of domestic relations.

After Mrs. Huller's decree was vacated her husband brought suit and won a divorce. Then, last December, Judge Sears reinstated McNally's divorce. Asked at that time whether he was going to marry Mrs. Huller, McNally said:

"Not on your life. She means nothing to me. I'm never going to get married."

Mrs. Huller has a son, Michael, who is a Creighton medical student, and a daughter, Adaline, 21, a graduate of Central High school.

Divorced Pair to Wed

Mrs. Mary Huller and Elmer McNally, both divorced recently, who yesterday took a license to wed each other. Mr. Huller named McNally correspondent in his divorce suit.

Orchestra Leader Robbed of Two Rings and Cash

Chicago, April 12.—A bunch of birthday roses and the clothes he was wearing was all two bandits left Paul Biese, famous orchestra leader, early today. Biese, with two women companions was on his way to a dance hall to celebrate his birthday and had gone to his apartment to leave the roses.

The party was met by two armed bandits who relieved Biese of two rings valued at $1,250 and $60 cash, and the women of jewelry valued at $1,000. The holdup men escaped.

Prison Boss Waits Trial for Beating Man to Death

Madison, Fla., April 12.—At liberty here today on bail of $10,000, Walter Higginbotham, convict camp "whipping boss," is awaiting trial for first degree murder in connection with the death of Martin Tabert of North Dakota, who, witnesses said, was beaten to death by Higginbotham.

Late yesterday the Madison county grand jury, in session here for investigation of Tabert's death, indicted Higginbotham on three counts charging first degree murder.

Ringling Buys Rain Machines

Relative of Circus Man to Use Airplanes in Montana Farming District.

Anaconda, Mont., April 12.—A dispatch to the Standard from New York announces the purchase by Richard T. Ringling, of Ringling, Mont., of 10 airplanes which will be used by professional rain-makers in Montana's dry land farming district.

Ringling, who is a member of the Ringling circus family, announces that beginning July 1, these planes will be assembled at Great Falls and will make regular trips to various sections of the state and that by the induction into the air of electric current, positive and negative, will discharge ions from the upper wing of the machine, traveling at fast speed.

These ions will form the nucleus of raindrops, which will hover over the earth in the form of clouds. Ringling's statement is that he will then be able to cause precipitation by a process which he says scientists have developed for him in New York.

Reds Evacuate Vladivostok Before "White" Army Report

London, April 12.—Vladivostok, the great Siberian seaport on the Pacific coast, has been captured from the bolsheviks by "white" forces, after a fierce struggle, according to a report received today from Helsingfors. The red troops were said to have taken refuge outside the city, where they are awaiting reinforcements before attempting to retake it. Vladivostok has been in the hands of the soviets since the latter part of last year.

Harding Given Season's Supply of Straw Hats

New York, April 12.—President Harding can keep in hat style this summer without spending a cent. Together with announcement of straw hat modes, the National Association of Men's Straw Hat Manufacturers of America today made public a letter from Mr. Harding thanking it for sending him a season's supply. To be in style a man must have three hats this summer, a rough straw for general protection; a Leg-horn for sports wear and a smooth straw for evening wear.

My!—
but she was proud

Like most housewives, she prepared her foods well, and served them daintily.

She was pleased when her husband complimented her cooking—as he usually did.

But something told her—perhaps it was her woman's intuition—perhaps her husband's silence on the question of coffee—that the coffee she made wasn't exactly right.

She tried using more coffee—then less. She made it in different ways, but to no avail.

Then she decided she would try some other brand.

The next morning she served M-J-B Coffee for breakfast. My, but she was proud when her husband said "This is the finest cup of coffee I ever drank."

—and Tree Tea is the finest tea.
