

Need of Women in Politics Told by Mrs. Upton

Prominent G. O. P. Worker Declares Her Sex Will Eventually Be Part of Political Machine.

Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, vice chairman of the executive committee of the republican national committee, spoke Thursday at the Burgess-Shele rooms to 150 men and women.

America Needs Mothering, Says Mrs. Harriet Upton

And Women Receive More Respect from Men Now, She Says.

Since women began to assert themselves in politics they get more respect from men.

There have been three of the dozen or so interesting declarations made by Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, vice chairman of the executive committee of the republican national committee while in Omaha.

"What do you want to know?" was Mrs. Upton's first inquiry.

"Anything you want to talk about," she was told.

"But I can talk about so many things," she replied impatiently.

"I don't think anything, except that he'll be re-elected. One reason is because he understands the philosophy of the women's movement.

"I have consulted often with President Harding, and invariably I find that he considers the welfare of the entire country. I don't believe he ever does anything with the idea that it will make him votes.

"I want to say that the campaign of 1924 will be decided by the votes of women. I have no choice of communication with the spirits, but something tells me that the next campaign will be decided by the women.

"Women have no equal standing in the machine of our party. For 25 years, we have been studying about the pyramids and the Normans; the time has come for us to know why we are republicans, that we may have an answer for a democrat, when he makes some poetic statement; that we may be able, perhaps, to tell a congressman something he did not know.

"I want every republican woman to know what our administration has done. The greatest thing that has been done in years and years and years, was the conference for the limitation of armament. It was the most wonderful piece of work I have ever seen, because I was there. Our own president was there—so fine and so modest. The limited armament was the only country that thought the presence of women at that conference would add to its strength.

Girl Playing Near Bonfire Dies of Burns

Dress Ignited When Bluffs Child Attempts to Light Candle from Blazing Leaves.

Virginia Belle Berry, with her two little brothers and sisters, was playing about the backyard of their home, 529 Fleming avenue, Council Bluffs, Thursday afternoon when their mother, Mrs. C. W. Berry, was called to the front door.

Virginia found a piece of a Christmas candle that was on the Christmases tree the day Santa Claus came. She ran to the fire to light it. Her little sisters and brothers watched her.

A flame leaped up from the fire and caught the little dress and curled pitifully up about the tender little body. Virginia screamed. Her mother ran to her and frantically tried to extinguish the flames. She ran into the house and brought a bucket of water which she dashed over the child. The flames were out, but Virginia died late in the night.

The funeral will be held Sunday at 2 in the Christian church, with burial in Walnut Hill cemetery.

Surviving are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Berry, and these four children, all younger than Virginia: Louise Marie, Kenneth Coit, James Edward and Donald Dale.

It was the third case of death from burning in Council Bluffs this week.

Reparation Meet Opens at Paris

Premiers of France and Belgium Discuss Methods of Making Invasion Pay.

By Associated Press. Paris, April 13.—The premiers of France and Belgium with their principal ministers advisors met here today in an important conference on the reparations question.

One of the main objects is the devising of new measures to make the Ruhr occupation productive. It is expected that as long as the Ruhr is unproductive of coal it will be difficult to persuade the Germans to accept the Franco-Belgium viewpoints.

The French and Belgians are issuing figures to show that since the Brussels conference the daily and coke production has increased from 3,000 tons daily to 5,000 tons, the German reparations delegates in Paris declare that after three months of occupation the two allies are obtaining less than 1,000 tons daily.

They were in touch with the official German viewpoint, declared that Germany will not negotiate so long as the allies occupy the Ruhr, and they contend the two allied powers are "killing the goose that laid the golden egg."

Max and Mathilde, Married in London

Secret Ceremony Performed Thursday Under Special License, Friends Informed.

By International News Service. London, April 13.—Miss Mathilde McCormick, 18, granddaughter of John D. Rockefeller, and Maj. Max Oser, middle-aged Swiss riding master, to whom she has been engaged for more than a year, were secretly married in London yesterday.

The couple is reported to have left for some unknown destination to spend a honeymoon.

Mathilde became of age last week, and friends understood she was merely awaiting her 18th birthday before marrying.

Major Oser and Mathilde were said to have called unexpectedly upon friends in London last night and excitedly announced that they had just been married under a special license. They refused to say what service performed the ceremony. The couple left soon afterwards, saying they were starting upon their honeymoon.

Both Oser and Mathilde threw a veil of secrecy about the report and reportedly announced that they had just been married under a special license. They refused to say what service performed the ceremony. The couple left soon afterwards, saying they were starting upon their honeymoon.

Arizona Slayer Pays With Life

Paul V. Hadley Hanged Before Sunrise for Murder of Woman in Desert.

Florence, Ariz., April 13.—Paul V. Hadley died on the gallows before sunrise today for the murder of Mrs. Anna C. Johnson. The trap was pulled at 5:10 and Hadley was pronounced dead at 5:22.

The condemned man maintained to the end his claim of innocence of the crime for which he was executed. He took his fate calmly without display of fear or bravado.

Hadley mounted the platform without hesitation. He had eaten no breakfast but had dressed with deliberate care.

"I am innocent and ready to meet my death," was his only statement.

Hadley offered a prayer and kissed Hadley upon the cheek.

Hadley, an escaped life termer from the Oklahoma state penitentiary, was convicted of murdering Mrs. Johnson during an automobile trip over the Arizona desert in November, 1921.

Double Funeral Is Held for Beverly Man and Son

Beverly, Neb., April 13.—Funeral services were held here for Herman Light, 38, Hitchcock county farmer, and his son, Herman, 7, following their almost simultaneous death last Monday from the effect, authorities say they believe, of poison. The father and boy were found writing on the floor of their home, according to the statement of a young woman employed as a domestic. Incentive for the double poisoning, which is credited to those investigating the tragedy, is the grief manifested by the son over the death of his mother several days ago.

According to the young woman who was employed by Light, Herman, 7, constantly was asking his father, "Where is mamma?" and on the day of the tragedy the parent was said to have replied: "She has gone to heaven and, we will join her soon."

Did Winter leave you with that tired feeling?

WINTER'S confinement, with its lack of pure air, its gloom, its chill, its effect in Spring. To be underweight, easily tired, listless, and to have a poor appetite, indicates a weakened condition of the blood. Nature must have help—your blood is misbegotten, weaker, poorer, richer, blood.

S. S. S. builds blood-cells, makes fighting blood. Fighting blood destroys impurities. It fights a battle. It fights skin eruptions! It always wins! It builds nerve-power, thinking power. It builds up run-down, tired men and women. It builds confidence, and makes the flesh firmer.
