Rector of "Little Church Around the Corner" Succumbs at Home.

New York, April 18.—Rev. Dr. George Clarke Houghton, for over a quarter of a century rector of the "Little Church Around the Corner," known nationally for its romantic interest, died yesterday in his 70th year. The "Little Church" is known the world over for its many marriages of celebrities.

Death came suddenly in the church rectory following an attack of heart disease.

Dr. Houghton assumed the rectorship of the "Little Church" in 1887, when it was known as the Church of the Transfiguration, succeeding his uncle, Rev. George Hendrick Houghton.

Jefferson Changed Name.

Bound up with the change of the church's name is an incident in the life of the actor, Joseph Jefferson.

It was during the pastorate of Dr. Houghton that the distinguished actor tried to arrange for the funeral of a departed colleague in one of the imposing churches on Fifth avenue.

Jefferson was told by the dignitaries of the Fifth avenue church that they could not, under its customs, hold an actor's funeral. But they suggested that there was a "Little Church Around the Corner" that would.

"God bless the Little Church Around the Corner," Jefferson exclaimed, and thereupon went there to arrange the funeral of his friend. The deed won the undying affection of Jefferson and his stage associates, and the name clung to the church thereafter.

Counsel of Actors.

Many noted stage people were married in the "Little Church Around the Corner," and it was there that the stagefolk in their moments of heart-break sought solace in the counsel of Dr. Houghton.

Many young persons whose parents were wont to object to their marriage came to the Little Church for the ceremony, and many stories are told of how Dr. Houghton persuaded many an eloping couple to give due thought to what they were undertaking and sent them home.

Falls City Legion Suit Dismissed

Red Cross Will Dispense War Fund for Relief of Needy World War Veterans.

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee.

Falls City, Neb., April 18.—Litigation between the Falls City post of the American Legion and the Richardson County Red Cross board of directors, from whom the ex-service men sought to recover $2,190, the balance of a fund raised for war activities during 1918, was dropped, when an agreement was reached between the two parties. The agreement provides that the Red Cross retain the fund, which is to be spent solely for relief of ex-service men and can be drawn on for no other purposes except in the case of extreme emergency, such as disaster.

The suit, filed nearly a year ago, attracted statewide attention, because it was said to have been the first of its kind in Nebraska. The legion contended that the money was intended for ex-service men only and was not to be used for any other purpose. To prove that this was the spirit of the donors, they submitted the proposition to a popular straw vote. More than 500 votes were cast in favor of the legion receiving the money with not a negative vote against it. Strengthened by this indication of popular sentiment, the legion brought suit in district court.

Extra Quality—at No Extra Cost

Because Goodyear Tires have such a remarkable reputation, many people think they are necessarily high-priced. That is a mistake—despite their extra quality, they cost no more to buy than ordinary tires.

Even the wonderful new Goodyear Cord with the beveled All-Weather Tread is sold at the following low prices:

- 30 x 3 1/2 Clincher $17.55
- 32 x 4 Straight Side 36.10
- 32 x 4 1/2 Straight Side 46.70
- 33 x 5 Straight Side 58.20

When you can buy the finest tire Good-year ever made for so little money as this, and get service that assures you every mile built into them at the factory, surely it does not pay to experiment with "unknown" brands.

As a Goodyear Service Station Dealer we sell and recommend Goodyear Tires and back them up with standard Goodyear Service
