

Fight Homers Clouted Out When Chicago Noses Pittsburgh Out in Close Game

Cub Recruit Gets Two Home Runs and Wins Game

Charles Hartnett Slams Out Second Circuit Smash in Ninth—Winners Made Six Home Runs, Losers Two.

CHICAGO, April 20.—Eight home runs, one less than the world record 23 years ago, were made in the final game between Chicago and Pittsburgh Friday, Chicago winning, 12 to 11, when Charles Hartnett, recruit catcher, slammed out his second homer and crossed the plate with the winning run in the ninth.

The Cubs made six of the homers, while the Pirates gathered two. The record for home runs in a game was made by Cincinnati and Boston in 1884, when the Braves made five and the Reds four.

The Pirates used a trio of pitchers in an effort to stop the bombardment. Glazner, who started the game, was nicked for four homers, while Hamilton, who gave way to Adams after Hartnett had cracked out his first homer, was touched for one. The veteran "Babe" Adams came in for his share of the bombardment in the ninth, Hartnett bagging the homer which gave the Cubs their third straight victory.

In addition to Hartnett's brace of homers, Frelberg poled two, while Stutz and Heathcote got one apiece. Grimm and Traynor were the home run hitters for the Pirates.

In the ninth inning, with the score tied, Kelleher lined to Russell, and Hartnett followed with the final smash, driving the ball over the right field wall, which of the longest hits ever made in the Cubs' park.

INTRODUCING: Phil Apperson, Buffalo Utility Man

Phil Apperson

BURCH GAVE HIM A LIFT WHEN HE WAS STRANDED.

When the Western Canadian league went "back" in 1922 Phil Apperson, Omaha utility player, found himself without a meal ticket.

Phil was ambling down the street of Edmonston, the club to which he was attached in the Western Canadian circuit, wondering how long a "low" purse would last with him unemployed when he heard the news that Barney Burch of the Omaha club needed a player or two.

A wire to Burch confirmed it. He wasn't hard to deal with in a few days he was on the Buffalo pay roll.

And what apparently proved to be a bit of "hard luck" turned out to be a blessing in disguise, for Apperson learned he was good enough for class A ball.

Apperson picks things up rapidly and may develop into a big leaguer provided he improves his hitting. He has a good arm and in a quick thinker.

Apperson throws overhanded—a delivery not adapted to the infield—and for that reason is more valuable in the outfield than infield.

He has an arm that throws right; is 23 years old; stands 5 feet 9 1/2 inches and weighs 160 pounds.

Hummel Made Ball Director

Directors of the Muncy Baseball association, at a meeting lasting nearly four hours last night, paved the way for the opening of the amateur baseball season and transacted the following business.

Elected Park Commissioner Hummel and Recreation Director Ira Jones as vice president, succeeding Harvey Milliken and Leo Rosenthal.

Decided to issue semi-weekly bulletins to managers.

Appointed a temporary eligibility committee consisting of Henry Bressler, C. E. Wagner, John T. Dennison, A. D. Barre and Clarence Isaacson.

Refused to lift the suspension of Tom Garvey, suspended for jumping contract with the Betsy Ross last season.

Refused to lift suspension of Ray Maxwell, under suspension until 1925 for contract jumping, but provided that if Maxwell stays out of professional baseball this year his case may be reconsidered next spring.

Adopted report of constitutional committee, revising rules.

Refused to lift suspension of Jimmy Condon for contract jumping.

Authorized an agreement with the Council Bluffs Amateur Baseball association, in which players suspended from either association would be ineligible in the neighbor city.
