

Worm, May Turn

By GABBY DETAYLS.

en was a hostess at that time. You tated France. all know her, she is one of the most | Elaborate plans are being made for acceptances flowed in smoothly nough until all had been heard The from except one boy and two girls. to the three homes concerned elicited nothing definite, and one girl said she alone will go over this summer.

wouldn't know until morning." Of course, in the end they accepted, way New York responded," said Mrs. the recalcitrant ones, and phoned Baldrige. with mechanical apologies, to hear has had her quiet titter over their discomfiture-will you, too?

Apparently bridge is determined to to be when we consider that prominent men as well as women are tak-

Will the next few years see bridge pros as well as golf pros a necessity to the well-managed club?

Students of Oberlin College to Honor Presidents

dent of Oberlin college, will be in Omaha Saturday evening, April 28. In their honor graduate and former tions of Mr. Ratcliffe's article. students of Oberlin will give a dinner at 6:30 o'clock at the University club. Fred P. Leomis is in charge.

Mrs. Cole # Home.

Mrs. Anna Morey of Hastings, who is her week-end gues'

DERHAPS a Christmas story, de. this year's Good Will delegates to Moon, Edwin Davis and Miss Ruth cy Catania, Charlotte Mitchell, Marspite the fact that it is obvi- France, the first of whom arrive there ously untimely, should have its May 25. Mrs. Baldrige was very place in Gabby's column. The more helpful in the movement in Omaha so since it is only a Christmas story last year when a large delegation was in that the girl about whom it is writ- sent overseas in the name of devaspopular of Omaha's social set, a deb official French welcomes and for of not so many years back, who has pleasure trips in and around Parls. the courage of her convictions. One Last year the girls were escorted in of her convictions, as you will see, is a large group. This year they will hat a hostess must not necessarily be divided into contingents of four or five, each having a chaperon who will She issued invitations, let us say, make sure that every girl seen what for a large dinner, three weeks in most interests her. One fortunate advance of the affair. Regrets and group will have Mrs. Baldrige for a

The first delegation for this year will be from the south, New Ordeans, Inquiries the day before the dimer Atlanta, Los Angeles and San Diego. A group of 150 from New York city

"Miss Morgan was wild over the President Millerand will give a refrom the maid that Miss M. had been eeption at his home at Rambouillant, compelled to fill their places. Cabby just outside Paris. The city of Paris will give a wonderful reception, presenting diplomas to the Good Will WITH the introduction of intri-cate lessons, under the control cate lessons, under the control of a competent teacher, bridge club in Paris will give a dinner dance still holds its sway regardless of the for the girls, who will be Miss Morrightful encroachments of golf, tennis and riding. It is pursuing its triumphant course, rumor now has it, into its competitors' dens, the Country work going on with the funds Miss clubs, where there will be daily scicountry.

"The baby death rate is awful," ache the national game, and bids fair cording to Mrs. Baldrige. The French have given a site and the American committee under Miss Morgan is sending 300 babies every month to a health camp in Switzerland.

Omahan Illustrates Ratcliffe Article.

April's century magazine contains an article written by S. K. Ratcliffe, British journalist, who lectured here early this month, and illustrated by Rollin Kirby, nationally known in his art, and formerly an Omaha boy. His Henry Churchill King, president, mother resides here at the home of and Frederick Bolm, assistant president, her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Miller her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Miller Sketches of Chesterton and Masefield are among the interesting illumina-

Miss Kennedy Wins Honor.

Miss Betty Kennedy, daughter of Mrs. Burgess has served longer than art class of 75 people.

Judge and Mrs. Howard Kennedy, has any predecessor, having completed Mrs. Burgess is described by her co-Miss Kennedy Wins Honor. been elected to the Alpha Tau Rho four successive incumbencies. She workers as a "working" president. Without further ine tation Mrs. F. society in the College of Fine Arts at has been largely responsible for the She knows as much about each committee will be at home this afternoon the University of Nebraska. This development of the Omaha art mittee as the committee chairman, it honor corresponds to the Phi Beta museum at the public library buildis stated.

Paris, has been invited by Miss Ann Morgan to assist in the reception of Keegan, E. L. McQuivey, Charles Pansy Bargar, Elizabeth Brown, Nan-guerite L. Morehouse, Margaret O'Sul-The honor guests included Misses livan, Mildred Buzza and Ruth Hull.

Retiring President Society Fine Arts

With the Omaha Society of Fine | tributed the director's salary for three office as president will expire, "The past year. The Fine Arts member-best president we have ever had," ship is approximately 1,000, the largdeclare those who have been in close est in the history of the organization.

ing and generously has herself con. She executes business with dispatch a secret until Thursday.

Bourne Announced.

Mrs. Anna Bourne announces the engagement of her daughter, Madge, to Chauncey E. Peck, of Burlington, Ia., formerly of Nebraska City. June wedding is planned.

Miss Bourne is well known in musical circles here. She is a graduate of the American Institute of Normal Methods, has had a piano studio in Omaha and has instructed in public school music. She has attended the Northwestern university. Mr. Peck attended Purdue college, Indiana. He a member of the firm, Edwards-Evans and Peck of Nebraska City. Mrs, Irving Benolken will give a tea honoring Miss Bourne on Wednesday afternoon

Tea for Travelers. Mr. and Mrs. David Baum' will be at home for tea Sunday afternoon honoring Mrs. Warren Rogers and Mrs. Dan Wheeler. Mrs. Wheeler re-

The alumnae of the Sisters of Mercy is sponsoring a card party and dance Thursday evening, May 3, at Burgess-Nash auditorium for the benefit of the building fund for the new convent to be erected in Fairneres.

Benefit Bridge-Dance.

Mrs. Deiss Muffitt is chairman of Conlan is in charge of the dance. Reservations for card tables may be made with Mrs. Muffitt, Harney

For the Lysters.

Senator and Mrs. R. Beecher turned Saturday from Florida where Colonel and Mrs. William Lyster, she spent the winter and Mrs. Rogers who leave today for Boston, after more than two years in Omaha.

-Birds of Passage Bring New Modes Quickly Sponsored by Society

inspiration for gay parties.

will leave soon for the east.

clever, and really to do them justice most of them seem so, they bring to taded conversation the new slant that adds piquancy and zest. But perhaps best of all they bring with them the newest style notes-attractive pressions of the mode that need only an introduction to become popular! So it has been with Miss Ruth Hawthorne who descended upon society as a presiding officer, and her brief, appropriate and well delivered introductions to speakers have always been a delight to the society's audiences A few of the prominent lecturers brought to Omaha during Mrs. Burgess' term include Gilbert K Chesterton, John Drinkwater, Hugh Wal-

Burgess on the board. Continued ex-The nominating committee has al-

Is there anything as invaluable as I a few weeks ago from New York with an out-of-town visitor? They are the her hostess, Mrs. Newman Benson. Possessed of an oriental beauty, dark The other guests in their honor, skinned and deep eyed, she emphaeven those whose social duties have sized it by wearing a short string of been badly duffed, make a distinct rather large pearls, clasped tightly effort to shove the well known best around her siender throat. A Victorfoot into the limelight. If they are ian quaintness was achieved quite at variance with the long swinging chains that until this spring have been in favor. So also was it with Miss Lydia

Cook of Portland, Me., the guest of Mrs. Sanford Gifford, who appeared in a box at the Brandels one evening with her hair neatly parted in the middle down to the nape of her neck and coiffed in dutch rolls over the ears. Since her visit, many have taken up the style which is extremely attractive to the well shaped head.

During the winter over the bridge ables, players have admired Mrs. Norman Curtice's cunning afternoon hag, which is really a doll dressed in the smartest manner. Very blond hair is half concealed under a poke bonnet of brown taffeta made to match Arts election Thursday afternoon, at years. Thirty-five thousand visits pole, W. L. George. Hendric Van bonnet of brown taffeta made to match 2:30, Mrs. Ward Burgess' term of were made to the museum during the Loon, H. K. Ratcliffe and Sinclair the brown taffeta frock, and in absolute harmony with the tiny brown An effort will be made to keep Mrs. silk slippers ornamented with gold lace. So complete is this small replica pansion is inevitable for the Fine that even the bands are clad in minia-Arts society which hopes to have its ture white kid gloves. The ribbons and St. Marys avenue. Here is a real Soon charters were given to groups own art building within three years. Which draw the bag conveniently over day home for 25 to 50 children whose in different cities until now the Junior Mrs. Luther Drake is mentioned as Mrs. Curtice's wrist are the only evi- mothers are employed. They are league boasts 53 branches throughout coln, Mrs. Curtice's guest

Lincoln Returns Compliment of Omaha Junior League Lincoln is to return the compliment Martha R. Morsch, a trained nurse

plans are being made for visitors to up the Day nursery. 3249, or with Miss Rose Whalen, Har- Omaha to view the local leaguers at The league, however, has not turned

Miss Helen Curtice, sister of Norman Curtice, is to visit Mr. and Mrs. Naasson Young, and the Curtices will have with them Judge and Mrs. Risser, parents of Mrs. Curtice. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burham will entertain the Robert Taibots, and in an great are thus aided away from a other party will be the Pace Woods her over the week end. annual Junior league revue to be various charitable institutions are held at the Gayety this year.

league stand for anyway," asked a which are at work every Monday recent number of "Vogue." The national Junior league consti- Thummell. tution states that "the purpose of The national organization is 11 ability of its members in the interests | In 1908, Miss Mary Harriman of good citizenship and to relate gathered together 25 of her friends those abilities to the community as in New York city for the purpose of The Omaha branch of the Junior she called the Junior League of Colleague was formed in the spring of lege Settlement. Girls were no founders of the Omaha league, was vitation only, and each year the its first president. The local mem- Junior league invited a number of bership, which is by invitation, now the debutantes of the winter to join numbers 130 memebrs, A minimum its ranks and each year gave an ennumbers 130. A minimum of three tertainment in which these debutantes hours of work each week, as well as took part. The pro eeds were used. special committee work and attend of course, to further the charitable ance at monthly meetings, are re work of the organization. It required of each active member.

a possible successor to Mrs. Burgess. dence that it has its utilitarian side. amused, instructed, fed and given the United States and a membership This was brought to Omaha from their daily nap, all on schedule, Mrs. of over 10,000, 1,550 of whom belong ready met, but its report will be kept Paris by Miss Helen Curtice of Lin- T. L. Davis is chairman of the Day to the mother league of New York nursery which is in charge of Mrs. city, the bridge and high five and Miss Zita Omaha paid it when several motor of wide experience. In the years that parties went down for their Junior are to come the league will devote League Revue two weeks ago, and most of its efforts towards building their Saturday, May 12, performance, a deaf ear to the activities which Mr. and Mrs. George W. DeLacy were already under its protection will have with them that week end before taking over the Day nursery Mrs. DeLacy's brothers, Bert and last spring. Consequently the Howell entertained, at dinner at the Richard Faulkner, and their wives, clerical work in the dispensary at Brandels Saturday night, honoring and in their honor the Louis Clarkes the University hospital, where the the Lewis Burgesses and the Yale cases of 1,500 patients are handled Hollands will give a large buffet supmonthly, is still done by volunteer per Saturday evening at the Clarke league workers under Miss Gertrude Stout and Miss Emily Keller. Instruction in occupational therapy is given three times a week to children in the wards by Mrs. F. H. Bucholz and a corps of volunteer workers. Children whose physical handicap is > mental handicap. the Harry Graingers. Mrs. The five baby stations operated George Seeman is also planning to by the Visiting Nurse association have have some of her Lincoln friends with the assistance of two Junior league members under supervision of Mrs. May 11 and 12 are the dates for the W. B. Roberts. All their clinics and recipients of many garments made "What, what, does the Junior by the league's sewing committees under their chairman, Miss Catherine > this organization is to develop the years older than the local.

Bustwick photo

amateur settlement work. This group Miss Harriet Smith, one of the elected-they became members by inmained a strongly localized organiza-A year ago the Omaha Junior tion, however, till Mrs. Eliza Swift league took full charge of the Day became president. She visualized nursery situated at Twenty-fourth wider fields of activity for the league.