Hats for Mature Women

Individuality and Style

CHERISHED by every woman, are as much to be desired by the matron as the very young girl. Yet, a vast majority of hats are created with youth only in mind.

The woman of mature years using care in the selection of her costume can present as charming and distinctive appearance as the young girl.

In this connection nothing is so important as a becoming hat for nothing adds or detracts from one's appearance so much as a hat.
