

Council Bluffs Society

For Mrs. Phipps.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Test Stewart are giving a buffet supper at their home this evening in honor of Mrs. Lawrence Phipps, who arrived Saturday afternoon from Denver, Colo., with her 4-year-old daughter, Joan, for a visit in Council Bluffs.

Before her marriage Mrs. Phipps was Miss Gladys Hart, only daughter of Edward W. Hart, and her visits are invariably marked with reunions of her friends here, with whom she has always been very popular.

Mrs. Everett Hostess.
Mrs. Leonard Everett, chairman of the exhibition committee of the Fine Arts society, invited to her home on Saturday afternoon for tea the members of the board and of the exhibition committee, to meet Dudley Crafts Watson of Milwaukee, who is to talk at the gallery on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Watson is the guest of Maurice Block of Omaha.

Mrs. Conklin Honored.
Among the numerous affairs of which Mrs. William B. Conklin of Chicago is affording the inspiration since her arrival here several weeks ago to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Woodbury, was an informal dinner on Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Empkie.

Thursday, Mrs. John G. Woodward gave a luncheon at the Omaha Athletic club for this visitor, who on Friday was honored guest at an affair in Omaha given by Mrs. Fred McConnell. Saturday she was complimented with a lovely luncheon at which Mrs. Charles T. Officer was hostess.

Mrs. Joe W. Smith is giving a luncheon for Mrs. Conklin on Monday, and Mrs. John P. Organ will entertain informally for her on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. A. Clark is planning a tea for Thursday at which Mrs. Conklin and Mrs. Helen Metcalf will share honors. Mrs. Metcalf expects to leave early in May for Denver where she will make an indefinite stay with her daughter, Mrs. T. E. Beyer and Dr. Beyer.

Luncheon and Bridge.
Mrs. E. A. Wickham was a hostess of the past week, entertaining on Tuesday at a bridge party which was preceded by luncheon.

Partaking of her hospitality were Mesdames J. J. Hess, John Mehlich Jr., Joseph Lehner of Omaha, Angeline R. Brinsmaid, William Coppock, W. L. Douglas, George Mayne, Misses Ida and Martha Sharpe of Omaha and Miss Mary Key.

A luncheon of 18 covers was also given by Mrs. Wickham on Saturday.

Chicago Matron Here.
Mrs. W. H. Allford arrived Monday from Chicago where she resides, and is dividing her time with Mrs. Emmet Tinley and Mrs. George Damon.

Before her marriage Mrs. Allford was Miss Grace Spooner of this city. On Wednesday, when the Episcopal church gave their benefit bridge luncheon at the Louis Zurmuehlen home, Mrs. Allford, Mrs. Tinley and Mrs. G. F. Spooner were guests of Mrs. Damon at one of the 12 tables.

Thursday this visitor was in attendance at a bridge-luncheon presided over by Mrs. W. S. Keeline and Mrs. G. F. Spooner at the home of the latter and other affairs are to be given for her during her stay.

Stephans Entertain.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stephan gave a lovely dinner at the Brandeis restaurant on Saturday evening, the guests remaining over to dance.

Assembled for this affair were Messrs. and Mesdames Elmer Shugart, W. J. Heiser, X. W. Kynnett, Julius Rosenfeld, Mrs. John Keating, A. D. Annis and the Stephans.

Golf Season Opening.
Golf devotees are already busy with their plans for the season, and on last Tuesday held a meeting at which it was decided to give a benefit bridge-luncheon at the Council Bluffs Country club, Saturday May 5.

Mrs. Frank Garrett is chairman of this affair, which is open to the public, and she will be assisted by Mrs. B. O. Bruntton.

John Davis has been elected chairman of the golf program for the year and Mrs. E. Crawford has charge of the prizes which will be given for the weekly games.

Dinner Dance.
Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rosenfeld presided at a smartly appointed dinner-dance at their home on Friday evening, the 16 guests all being from Omaha.

Pink roses and lavender sweet peas in a large basket, the handle of which was topped with an illusion bow of lavender and pink, formed a lovely center-piece for the dining table.

Bridge Luncheon.
Mrs. Philip Cogley and Mrs. Leo Wickham were joint hostesses of the past week, entertaining at both bridge and luncheon at the home of the former on Tuesday, when 28 guests were present.

These matrons chose pink and green as a color scheme, and in every detail of the decorations, which were particularly lovely, as well as in their gowns, these colors were used.

Mrs. X. W. Kynnett had high score for the afternoon and Mrs. Thomas Green was awarded a favor for the "cut-for-all."

On Saturday, seven tables were again arranged for luncheon which was followed by bridge.

Dinners.
The Tuesday Dancing Club completed their series of winter parties last Tuesday evening, with a delightful dance given at the Eagle hall.

Preceding this, Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Reed gave a buffet dinner at their home for 12 guests, and calendars were used in decorating.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riker and Mr. Advertisement.

Simple Way to Get Rid of Blackheads

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads, that is to dissolve them. To do this get two ounces of calomel powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly—and wash the face and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear. Blackheads are simply a mixture of dust and dirt and secretions that form in the pores of the skin. The calomel powder and the water dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition.

Grandchild to Visit Council Bluffs

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Test Stewart are looking forward with great pleasure to a visit their 4 1/2-year-old granddaughter Marie McFerron of Hoopston, Ill., is to make in Council Bluffs some time during the month of May.

She will be accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. McFerron, who plan to be here for the opening of the Country club.

and Mrs. Roy Maxfield also entertained on that evening, covers being placed for 55 at three large tables which were adorned with baskets of roses and sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Empkie who expected to give a dinner before the dance were obliged to change their plans owing to illness in the family.

Luncheon and Musical.
Mrs. J. F. Wilcox will open her home on Saturday, April 28, for a luncheon and musical which is being planned by the Queen Esther guild of the Presbyterian church.

Series of Parties.
Mrs. William Stewart Keeline and Mrs. George Frederick Spooner, have issued invitations to a tea at the home of the former on next Thursday and twice during the past week entertained at the Spooner home.

On Thursday 40 guests were present for a charmingly arranged luncheon which was followed by bridge, prizes being awarded Mrs. W. E. Dawson and Mrs. C. E. Price.

Eight tables, centered with sweet peas were placed for luncheon on Saturday, and the afternoon was devoted to bridge.

Dance.
The members of St. Francis Alumnae association have planned a dance party for Tuesday evening which will be given in the Eagle hall.

Mrs. Cutler Hostess.
The second in a series of parties planned by Mrs. W. A. Cutler was given on Saturday at her home on Clark avenue, with 20 guests present for a delightfully appointed luncheon followed by bridge.

Tulips were effectively used in decorating.

Personals.
James Bonham made an overland trip to Chicago last week on business.

Mrs. Oscar Irwin of Genoa, Neb., was a Council Bluffs visitor last week.

A daughter was born recently in Tulsa, Okl., to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stubber. Before her marriage Mrs. Stubber was Miss Elizabeth Shea.

Her mother is Mrs. J. J. Shea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Shea.

Created chipped beef may be served on plain, unsweetened crackers.

Heat the potato chips in the oven for a few minutes. Then you will know they will not be soggy when served.

There are about 800 charwomen employed in and about the Canadian parliament buildings.

Refresh them.

Half Dozen Ways to Use Crackers

Many sorts of desserts can be built up around some sort or other of crackers or wafers. There are wafers made of a batter like that of short bread, that may be split in two and used as the foundation for a berry short cake. Put berries between the two pieces of the cracker and spread on top and over all pile whipped cream.

Pilot biscuits may be used for simple breakfast or luncheon dishes. Some people like to serve them for breakfast, one on a plate with a rich white sauce poured over—nothing more. If chopped boiled eggs are added to the white sauce the dish becomes a little more elaborate. Creamed codfish or left-over fish may be poured over pilot biscuits instead of toast for breakfast or luncheon.

For hurry-up luncheon or supper dishes, crackers or wafers may be used in many ways. Try this: Grate some yellow cheese and then mix with top milk to form a smooth paste. Spread this on crackers, adding a little paprika if liked. Place in the broiler and toast to a golden brown.

To serve with salad, toasted and buttered crackers are good. They should be of the variety usually known as saltines. Spread them lightly with butter, lay evenly in a baking pan, so that they do not overlap each other. Then sprinkle with salt and pepper and brown to a golden brown in the oven. These are also delicious when served with a thick soup as the mainstay for luncheon or supper.

Created chipped beef may be served on plain, unsweetened crackers.

Heat the potato chips in the oven for a few minutes. Then you will know they will not be soggy when served.

There are about 800 charwomen employed in and about the Canadian parliament buildings.

Library Chats

Now that the golf clubs are opening, many lovers of the sport are "reading up" trying to improve their game. The library has the following books that might help: "Picture Analysis of Golf Strokes," by Barnes; "Advanced Golf," by Braid; "How to Play Golf," Braid; "Intimate Golf Talks," Dunn; "Chick Evans's Golf Book," Evans; "Golf Swing," Hammond; "Hints to Golfers," Hinks; "Mystery of Golf," Haultain; "Golf for the Late Beginner," Hughes; "Golf Simplified," Hunter; "New Book of Golf," Hutchinson; "Golf," Leitch; "Lessons in Golf," Smith; "Spaulding's Golf Guide"; "Traver's Golf Book"; "New Golf," Valle; "How to Play Golf," Vardon; "Golf for Beginners," Whitcomb, and "Seeding and Care of Golf Courses."

Mr. Raymond V. Ingersoll, secretary of the Solon Borglum Memorial fund, writes that the book, "Sound Construction," by the late Solon H. Borglum, is assured for fall delivery. This work has been anticipated by the entire art world as the last and best word in sculpture and the kindred arts. It has been ordered by a member of the library board as a gift to the library. The cost is $50 a copy. Solon H. Borglum was not only a sculptor of genius but also a great teacher. His early life was spent in the great outdoors and he ardently studied the book of nature, the architecture of plant and animal life, and man became his hobby and passion. After his period of study in Paris he returned to America to express in stone the exuberant types of the west. Such racy pieces as "One in a Thousand" and "The Blizzard" are the result. His later work shows the universal appeal of spirituality and symbol in such pieces as "The Waters" and the two Indian figures showing the spirit of Aspiration and Inspiration, upon which his last work was done. His book embraces not only the technique of sculpture but the philosophy of the art as well and took 15 years for compilation.

The new Benson branch of the public library will be opened June 1. Miss Louise Carson will be the librarian in charge and the hours will conform to the Florence branch.

The circulation at the Florence branch library continues to be over 100 books a day and the residents of that section are showing their interest and enthusiasm for the library by visiting it often to read the daily papers and magazines.

Refresh them.

Half Dozen Ways to Use Crackers

Many sorts of desserts can be built up around some sort or other of crackers or wafers. There are wafers made of a batter like that of short bread, that may be split in two and used as the foundation for a berry short cake. Put berries between the two pieces of the cracker and spread on top and over all pile whipped cream.

Pilot biscuits may be used for simple breakfast or luncheon dishes. Some people like to serve them for breakfast, one on a plate with a rich white sauce poured over—nothing more. If chopped boiled eggs are added to the white sauce the dish becomes a little more elaborate. Creamed codfish or left-over fish may be poured over pilot biscuits instead of toast for breakfast or luncheon.

For hurry-up luncheon or supper dishes, crackers or wafers may be used in many ways. Try this: Grate some yellow cheese and then mix with top milk to form a smooth paste. Spread this on crackers, adding a little paprika if liked. Place in the broiler and toast to a golden brown.

To serve with salad, toasted and buttered crackers are good. They should be of the variety usually known as saltines. Spread them lightly with butter, lay evenly in a baking pan, so that they do not overlap each other. Then sprinkle with salt and pepper and brown to a golden brown in the oven. These are also delicious when served with a thick soup as the mainstay for luncheon or supper.

Created chipped beef may be served on plain, unsweetened crackers.

Heat the potato chips in the oven for a few minutes. Then you will know they will not be soggy when served.

There are about 800 charwomen employed in and about the Canadian parliament buildings.

Refresh them.

Half Dozen Ways to Use Crackers

Many sorts of desserts can be built up around some sort or other of crackers or wafers. There are wafers made of a batter like that of short bread, that may be split in two and used as the foundation for a berry short cake. Put berries between the two pieces of the cracker and spread on top and over all pile whipped cream.

Pilot biscuits may be used for simple breakfast or luncheon dishes. Some people like to serve them for breakfast, one on a plate with a rich white sauce poured over—nothing more. If chopped boiled eggs are added to the white sauce the dish becomes a little more elaborate. Creamed codfish or left-over fish may be poured over pilot biscuits instead of toast for breakfast or luncheon.

For hurry-up luncheon or supper dishes, crackers or wafers may be used in many ways. Try this: Grate some yellow cheese and then mix with top milk to form a smooth paste. Spread this on crackers, adding a little paprika if liked. Place in the broiler and toast to a golden brown.

To serve with salad, toasted and buttered crackers are good. They should be of the variety usually known as saltines. Spread them lightly with butter, lay evenly in a baking pan, so that they do not overlap each other. Then sprinkle with salt and pepper and brown to a golden brown in the oven. These are also delicious when served with a thick soup as the mainstay for luncheon or supper.

Created chipped beef may be served on plain, unsweetened crackers.

Heat the potato chips in the oven for a few minutes. Then you will know they will not be soggy when served.

There are about 800 charwomen employed in and about the Canadian parliament buildings.

Refresh them.

Half Dozen Ways to Use Crackers

Many sorts of desserts can be built up around some sort or other of crackers or wafers. There are wafers made of a batter like that of short bread, that may be split in two and used as the foundation for a berry short cake. Put berries between the two pieces of the cracker and spread on top and over all pile whipped cream.

Pilot biscuits may be used for simple breakfast or luncheon dishes. Some people like to serve them for breakfast, one on a plate with a rich white sauce poured over—nothing more. If chopped boiled eggs are added to the white sauce the dish becomes a little more elaborate. Creamed codfish or left-over fish may be poured over pilot biscuits instead of toast for breakfast or luncheon.

For hurry-up luncheon or supper dishes, crackers or wafers may be used in many ways. Try this: Grate some yellow cheese and then mix with top milk to form a smooth paste. Spread this on crackers, adding a little paprika if liked. Place in the broiler and toast to a golden brown.

16th and Farnam

GOLDSTEIN-CHAPMAN CO.

Phone AT 1702

Remnants of Springtime

Knitted Crepes—In wanted shades, lengths from 2 to 5 yards. Price for Monday $1.45

Crepe Satin—40 inches wide, very much wanted fabric for dresses, in black and all wanted shades. Price for Monday $2.79

40-inch All Silk Crepe de Chine—A very good quality in every wanted light and dark shade. Price for Monday $1.29

Country Club Silk Skirtings—40 inches wide, in stripes and plaid effects. Priced Monday. $2.89

All Silk Honan Pongee—in all wanted shades, for women's and children's dresses and frocks. Price for Monday $1.45

Normandy Voiles—40-inch width, a beautiful assortment of light and dark combinations of dots, figures, checks and novelty patterns. Price for Monday 69¢

Imported Ratine—In plain and fancy plaids and checks, 36 and 38 inches wide. Price for Monday 89¢

Crepe Amure—36 inches wide, a very firm and fine woven cotton fabric in all newest shades. Price for Monday 85¢

Imported Ratine Voile—40 inches wide, light and dark grounds, checks, plaids and stripes. Price for Monday $1.69

Printed Dress Voile—40 inches wide, in light and dark grounds, in Oriental designs and colorings. Price for Monday 59¢

1/2 Price

Monday....

211 PATTERN HATS

from the Foremost Designers of America

At 1/2 Their Original Price

15 hats that were $35.00 now $17.50	35 hats that were $25.00 now $12.50
7 hats that were $32.50 now $16.25	41 hats that were $22.50 now $11.25
9 hats that were $30.00 now $15.00	39 hats that were $18.50 now $9.25
8 hats that were $28.50 now $14.25	57 hats that were $15.00 now $7.50

Hats from....

BRUCK-WEISS	DE MARINIS	CURTIS
BELART	EMPRESS	BANKS
CUPID

Hats for All Occasions
Dress Hats, Street Hats, Sports Hats

No C. O. D.'s No Will Calls No Exchanges Each Sale Final

"High Grade Hats at Popular Prices"—Second Floor

OMAHA'S NEWEST---FINEST APPAREL STORE

Announces Commencing Monday, April 23rd, Their

FIRST CLEARANCE SALE

Superior Qualities Most Unusual Values

Involving Without a Single Exception Our Vast New Stocks of

Coats, Capes, Dresses, Suits

Every one of the most fashionable spring styles is included.

Every Garment in Our Stock, of All Newest and Smartest Styles, Is Included

The Coats and Capes

Handsome coats cut in fashionable lines, with and without trimmed collars and in the new shades, silk linings, and with beaded, braided and embroidery trimmings.

The Dresses

Charming models for every occasion—three-piece frocks, draped styles, bloused models, straightline and many clever novelties in all the most wanted colors feature this offering:

The Suits

Modes strictly tailored, straight and belted and soft belted tailormades. Extreme and semi-Mandarin types. Mannish sport suits. Also some unusual offerings in three-piece costume suits for real dressy occasions.

Models for every type—the young and the more matured woman.

Price tags have not been remarked. Discounts ranging as high as 33 1/3% are made from the prices marked.

GOLDSTEIN-CHAPMAN CO.

"A Store of Individual Shops"

16th and Farnam Phone AT 1702

The Silk Shop

Phone AT 988

WHEN YOU THINK OF SILK, THINK OF THE SILK SHOP

1517 DOUGLAS ST.

H. T. Jones M. Kahan

Special Sale of Silk Remnants

Silks That Sold From $2.00 to $5.00 Per Yd.

Every Remnant From Our Regular Stock in all Lengths From 1/2 to 4 yds. on Sale

MONDAY

Lot 1 at

$1

Lot 2 at

$2

Be Here Early and Get First Choice of These Wonderful Bargains