Solon Borglum Benefit in New York

One of the most elaborate of the various entertainments given this year by the Nebraska society in New York was the Solon Borglum benefit card party at the home of Mrs. W. F. Carey last Saturday afternoon. Formal invitations were issued for the event accompanied by dainty booklets printed on buff paper containing an appreciation of the noted sculptor and former Nebraskan. The front page was decorated with an attractive picture of the artist represented actively at work on his marble of Napoleon. The likeness is an unusually good one. Nebraskans wishing to do their part in helping to raise the $8,000 for the publication of the Borglum book, "Sound Construction," arranged the card party and the affair was a pronounced social and financial success. On this occasion there were 75 present. Many of the club members took special tables and entertained a number of guests. Among those having tables were Mrs. Blanche Benedict King, Mrs. Clara Cleghorn Eton, Mrs. Emory Buckner, Mrs. Alice Farrington Burdick, Mrs. R. H. Oakley, Mrs. Blanch Glasgow Taylor, Mrs. Veda Shepperd Morrow, Mrs. Ocean Daily Carey, two tables; Mrs. Elsie Blandin Beans, three tables; Mrs. F. L. Ferguson, Mrs. Fredricka McIntosh Staub, Mrs. H. A. Welch, Mrs. Edwin Arnold, Mrs. C. M. Brace, Mrs. Frances Mumnaugh, Mrs. Florence Baldr Wright, Mrs. F. Kortsmeier and the Misses Marie Courtwright, Marie Young, Ruth Wortman, Ruth Howard, Hortense Clark and Katherine Morse.

Witnesses Decoration of Her Husband

No more interested spectator witnessed the decoration of Dr. Karl Connell with a distinguished service cross Saturday afternoon at Fort Omaha, than his wife, Mrs. Connell, Mrs. Halstead Dorey, wife of General Dorey at the fort, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Connell at luncheon preceding the ceremony and the Service club gave a tea following.

Saturday Tag Day for Minerva Home

Dr. Jennie Callas is chairman of tag day next Saturday, April 28, a benefit for Minerva cottage, a home for homeless girls at 3105 North Sixtieth street. Mrs. George Joslyn, Mrs. L. J. Healey and Mrs. George Magney are committee members. Two hundred workers will assist in the work on Saturday.

Camp Fire Girls have donated their services to string the tags which will be used. Minerva cottage is backed by an interdenominational movement. The first of a series of cottages has already been constructed. Plumbers, painters, carpenters and various supply houses have donated services or materials. C. E. Bowen is executive secretary. Girls between 5 and 12 are eligible to the home. The Benson Woman's club has made the first unsolicited gift, the sum of $25 for endowment of a bed.

A luncheon for workers will be given at the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday, 12:30 o'clock and a conference will follow at 1:15.

Daughter Born to the C. W. Hamilton, Jr.

Announcement is made of the birth of a daughter, Mae Louise, on Sunday, April 22, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hamilton, Jr., at the Stewart hospital. Mrs. Hamilton was formerly Miss Maurine Murdock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Murdock of the South Side.

Candied Peels.

Peel the grapefruit in quarters and remove the rag. Soak the peel for 24 hours. Boil in plenty of fresh water until translucent. Drain in a colander and cut into strips. Put peel in a stew-pan and cover with sugar and boil until the sugar forms a thick syrup, stirring frequently. Drain in a colander and roll in sugar. Boil 25 to 30 minutes. Thick skin grapefruit is best for this treatment.
