

DUNDEE WOOLEN MILLS

ABIGKNOCKOUTTAYLORING OFER

'Member the good old days when afeller cud buy a suit of madetoorder close for about a third of a century note, 'n how U used to brag about bein able to gita perfect fit 'n all that, 'n how evry Pal U had was hitting for the same place U was, tickled to deth to git holed of won of the bargains, Thos was days 'for the big fite when a Taylorshop cud by wolens rite, and was wiling too sel 'em the same way: Thos was days when the Dundeewoolenmills was the big noise all ov'r the midlewest, famous four put'in mor stile, mor quality 'n mor reel fit in a suit of clos than any other Taylor this side of the Windycity, 'nd they did it awl for

THIRTY-FIVE DOLLARS

EXTRA PANTS FREE

EXTRA PANTS FREE

in them Days our woodh competitors did there durnd'st too turn the tide, but they finished fur inarrears, They said Browar is losin what little cents he ever had, that he 'n Jacknunenmaker wer a cuple of circus clowns to try 'n sell madetomeasure close at sich a rediculos price, but the joke was a boomerang and the old Dundeewoolenmills was 'ittin the bawl at 100%, workin overtime every day and puting out suits about es fast es the customers cud carry 'em home 'n we did it by askin only

THIRTY-FIVE DOLLARS

EXTRA PANTS FREE

EXTRA PANTS FREE

Hear is the knockout part of what we'r doin now, We hit it fur the East, where good wolens 'er made, rite at the Mill, run on to about a thousand bolts of xtra fine awl wool wolens, snapy, lively, goshdurngood paterns, 'n Men, we bot em, Mind what we said, We Botem, they woodn't waist any time selling em, if we tok the hole lot they wood take our offer, Felers the hole bunch is hear, bolt upon bolt, Patern length upon Patern length, and old Omaha will roc in her cradle when she nos just how aful good they R., hear is the xtra part, We 'll make U a suit too ur measure and throw in an extra Pair of Pants FREE.

THIRTY-FIVE DOLLARS

EXTRA PANTS FREE

EXTRA PANTS FREE

We aint asking U to no ordinary afair, We aint asking U to by a sute just becus its the Dundeewoolenmills what was lucky nuf to get in on this derict from Mill purchus, But we er durned anxious to have U get a madetoyour measure suit with xtra pants that U'll B bragin about fur the nex 5 years and tellin awl ur friends that U got the outfit from us and that U only pd. us

THIRTY-FIVE DOLLARS

U no that we stand Bhind every Dundee suit, its got to fit rite, look rite, ware rite and B rite from pant cuf to cote collar, 'for we consider the job finished, No big braggin hear, just honestto gosh Tailoring values, that will mak friends with every byer, U no where we sell suits, down at Fifteenth and Harney, xpect U and all the Boys in Sat. to place an order fur won of these famously good suits.