Nebraskan in Sumatra.

Writing from Medan, Sumatra, a month ago, Otis Taylor of Madison, Neb., graduate of the State university, and well known in Omaha said:

"One is reminded of Holland here with the clean, neat appearance of this, the capital and largest city of the east coast, the center of the tobacco, also rubber, tea and coffee industries of the island. Within the last 20 years the Dutch have developed this part of Sumatra to a great degree and much greater improvements are planned for the future. From here I go to Java, then to Singapore, up the Malay peninsula to Siam and Indo-China and on to Hongkong and Manila."

Mr. Taylor is on a tour of Asia. He was in Omaha two years ago when he was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kiddo. For several years he has been secretary in London to one of the leading theatrical producers there.

system is not practical. If the aim of education is merely to gain rough, useful tools for striving with the world of matter, and to gain them rapidly, the system works. But when their job leaves these men free, they are but little different from people who have not gone to college. They go to foolish plays, read silly magazines, and fight for every poisonous fallacy in politics, religion, and conduct. A professor of geology in the University of Central City was publicly converted by Billy Sunday. The fact that he was not thereupon privately "freed"—that he was still thought capable of teaching his science, symbolized the situation in its naked horror.

"In talking about the war, Lew- isohn says: "I shall not fight the war over. A mind that does not see it today as universal guilt or else universal blundering and fatality, and does not mourn over every portion of mankind with an intensity measured purely by that portion's acuteness of suffering, is beyond the reach of reason and humanity."

"What is the reason for writing a book like this, and what is its purpose? That he allows his bitterness to run away with him is unquestionable; therefore his contrasts are often extreme and even unfair. It is a good thing, however, to read the experiences and the philosophy of an alien who comes to our shores and whose experience is so different from that of the authors of some other books we have been reading, such as Mary Antin's 'Promised Land,' and 'The Americanization of Edward Bok.' According to his own often expressed statement, he desired nothing better than to be assimilated as an American, and he rebels against any class prejudice or racial antipathy that prevents him from being counted as in every sense a true American. He rails against our political subservency, our ready-made morals, our lack of a true end and purpose of life; against the loss of the individual in the herd, and against Christianity and its teachings."

Columbian Club.

The date of the next card party to be given by the Columbian club is Wednesday afternoon, May 2, at the Lyceum hall. In this occasion the hostesses will be Mesdames W. H. Ritchie, Mary Jacobs, F. A. Treanery and Thomas Kelly.

ADVERTISEMENTS. Don't Squeeze Black-Heads—Dissolve Them

Squeezing and pinching out blackheads make the pores large and cause irritation. Blackheads are caused by accumulations of dust and dirt and secretions from the skin and there is only one safe and sure way and one that never fails to get rid of them—a simple way, too—that is to dissolve them. Just get from any drug store about two ounces of calomel powder—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—wash off and you'll be surprised to see that every blackhead has disappeared, and the skin will be left soft and the pores in their natural condition.

To Be a Fall Bride

Miss Frances Aldrich

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Aldrich of Nebraska City, announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances, to Clyde Parsley of this city. Mrs. Aldrich and Miss Aldrich have been winter residents of Omaha and have had an apartment at the Austin while the latter has devoted herself to vocal lessons with Joseph Litowski. She is a graduate of St. Mary's academy at Leavenworth, Kan., and has attended Ward Belmont school. Mr. Parsley attended the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and served as a naval aviator during the war.

Twenty-Five Thousand Patches Make 14 Beautiful Quilts.

Mrs. Emily Drew

Twenty-five thousand patches and 14 quilts! That is the record made by Mrs. Emily Drew last year, mother of Clyde and Gerald Drew of Omaha. Gingham and calico pieces were used in a kaleidoscope of color and design. Exquisite handwork and fancy stitching make them the cherished possession of the fortunate owners, and of owners there are many, for Mrs. Drew is as generous as she is industrious and has given away all her last year's work. Mrs. Drew maintains and manages her own home.

May Party

The Sigma Iho chapter of the Pi Tau Pi fraternity will give a May party May 6, at 2:30 o'clock, in the vestry rooms of Temple Israel for the Sunday school children and their friends.

Romantic Story of Bakule Pupils Who Sing at the Brandeis Saturday

costumes the Bakule pupils of Prague will appear in concert in Omaha Saturday night, May 5, at the Brandeis under auspices of the Junior Red Cross.

Miss Mona Cowell is chairman of the Junior Red Cross here. Mrs. Arthur Mullen, Stanley Serpan, Czechoslovakian consul, and Miss Lena Miskovsky, who has charge of a dinner Friday evening for the visitors, constitute the reception committee.

The rise of the Bakule school to world-wide recognition is one of the most romantic incidents in the history of the Czechoslovakian republic. In 1919, Dr. Bakule, a kindly, patient genius, who had been employed as a teacher in an institution for crippled children in Prague, was forced by lack of funds to abandon his cherished school. So devoted were his little charges, however, that they followed him into the street, and for two years led a gypsy life through Czechoslovakia. They visited different towns where Professor Bakule would lecture and his crippled boys would give performances.

When the Junior American Red Cross took several hundred children of Prague into the Tatras mountains for a summer camp in 1919, the Bakule group were included. So aptly did they demonstrate their talents that a fund was provided by the American Red Cross for the purchase of a school, which was established in Prague by Dr. Bakule, and the courageous band of exiles ceased their wanderings.

It is this school, now famous throughout Europe, which is coming with its unique music and remarkable exhibitions of handicraft to entertain American audiences.

Christ Child Flower Sale Saturday

Buy a pansy face tag Saturday and help the youngsters who share the privileges of the Christ Child centers. This is the final drive the board of this organization anticipates and the public is earnestly requested to assist.

Mrs. Arthur Mullen, general chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. F. B. Aldous and Mrs. S. B. Doyle, chairmen of the 79 captains. Mesdames Roy Byrne and George Brandeis, in charge of supplies, Miss Irene Barmentler, head of the motor corps. Headquarters will be established in the Omaha National Bank building. Mrs. A. V. Kinsler is president of the Christ Child society. Mrs. George Brandeis, Mrs. F. B. Aldous, vice president; Miss Marjorie Barrett, secretary, and Mrs. Mark Coad, treasurer.

The efforts of the Christ Child Center have reached a varied need in Omaha charities. The classes in Americanization, music, sewing, baby welfare work, nursing and athletics are formed and conducted under the leadership of prominent Omaha women and the baby outfits which are made by the 25 sewing circles under the leadership of Mrs. S. B. Doyle.

The local branch of the Christ Child society was founded by Mrs. D. C. Stapleton of Washington, who as Miss Stella Hamilton was a leader in charitable affairs here. From a small gathering of women it has grown to need 50 volunteer workers under the leadership of two professional settlement workers and the need of a center on the South Side is the immediate goal. Twenty-six thousand children are in weekly attendance in the various Christ Child Centers. The layettes go to needy babies, regardless of color or creed or circumstance, and the box cars in the river bottoms are the frequent destination of these practical and pretty outfits. Twins and triplets, who came into this world sadly unprepared for, have found their first comfort in these little garments from the needles of faithful sewers.

Mrs. A. V. Kinsler and the board of directors will entertain the captains at tea at the Kinsler home on Thursday. Mrs. Kinsler will be assisted by Mesdames Adolph Storz, Arthur Mullen, S. B. Doyle, F. B. Aldous, W. A. C. Johnson, L. C. Nash, J. W. Kennelbeck, T. J. Dwyer, T. P. Redmond, C. W. Hamilton, T. Quinlan, Frank Bandle, T. Flynn, Will Jeffers, George Brandeis, F. A. Nash, Roy Byrne, Mark Coad, E. W. Nash, W. J. Hynes, W. J. Foye and Misses Claire Helene Woodard, Irene McKnight, Marie Prouty, Majory Barrett, Mary Cotter and Maggie McShane.

Mrs. W. A. C. Johnson and Mrs. W. J. Hynes will be the treasurers of the tag day.

A large cork will surprise you with the uses to which it can be put. It is splendid as a dauber to apply polish on shoes. A little sand on a cork will polish aluminum beautifully. A cork dipped into silver polish and applied to the egg-stained or tarnished silver is a very simple and easy method of cleaning.

You Will Like It. Try using a smooth rubber ball when darning stockings. It is much better than the conventional darning egg.

A Linen Test. Rub a large sample of linen hard between the hands. If a fuzzy nap appears, cotton is present.

Sponsors Benefit

Mrs. Deiss E. Muffitt is in charge of the bridge and highfive games, a feature of the card party and dance to be given under auspices of the Sisters of Mercy Alumnae Thursday evening, May 3, at the Burgess-Nash auditorium.

Eighty-five tables have been reserved to date. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Muffitt, Mrs. M. P. Kane, Mrs. Joseph Muller, Miss Rose Whalen, Miss Winifred Traynor or Miss Catherine Healy.

Proceeds from the affair will be added to the building fund for the proposed new convent in Fairacres.

Crisp up the cereal in the double boiler or omelet pan instead of the oven. It is a much quicker process and saves gas.

In Love With a Wonderful Girl and Too Weak to Fight for Her

"I'm in love with a wonderful girl. She belongs to what my family calls 'working people,'" writes Jack. "I'm a college man and so was my grandfather before me. Her granddad wielded a pick. But there never was a finer girl than Marcia. Everyone in the office where she has risen from $14 a week as typist, to $2,000 a year as secretary to the chief, admires her. "When I met Marcia I was nothing but a young roustabout. No use going into that. But I'm working now instead of living off dad. And I tell you honestly that Marcia is the one influence that lifted me after the whole family had failed.

"You'd think my folks would welcome Marcia with open arms, wouldn't you? Well, they don't. They balk. They can't disherit me and be done with it, as far as I'm concerned. But I can't hurt my mother, who's an invalid.

"What would you do if you were a man of 30, who never amounted to shucks until three years ago, when a fine, brave, idealistic girl like Marcia came across your path? Would you stand by her at any cost? Or would you marry your sister's chum as the family wishes. My people think I ought to do better. And even at the risk of having you think me a cad, I'm going to confess that—they have me wondering."

Can any man or woman do better than to marry the one he or she truly loves—the one who calls out all that is best in manhood or womanhood—the one who makes a deep and beautiful appeal to heart and soul and mind as well as to the emotions?

How can your people tell you what is going to satisfy you and make for your growth? For 27 of your 30 years they failed to help you find your best self. And in three years Marcia has taught you to develop and rely on that self. Will you fall in—and her—now?

Given love and understanding and faith, given the feeling that you and Marcia can work out life's problems together—who can suggest something that will better for you? The "better" for which your family is looking may mean much to your people and nothing to you. When two love each other wholeheartedly with respect and devotion, why should worldly considerations bully them into what may mean misery?

At 30 a man ought to be capable of making up his mind about his affairs. At 30 a man ought to have his own standards of living. Ridicule, pressure and argument weaken a man already vacillating and weak. But if the girl you love is the splendid influence you describe, and if she calls out all that is good and tender in you—can you be so spineless as to give her up without taking the stand of loyalty and determination to win—not only your happiness, but your family's approval? Your people probably haven't decided that you are a man yet. Prove yourself to them.

What to Do. Tiny holes in the hot water bag can be mended with adhesive tape. Add a little baking soda to a flax-seed poultice to make it lighter. Grated carrots, instead of dried, give a pretty color to the vegetable soup. Baked potatoes are better if brushed with butter before putting into the oven.

Woolen Garments. Woolen shawls and scarfs should never be hung on the line to dry as they will stretch out of shape. Dry such articles full length between towels.

Soft green is a desirable tint for the walls of the nursery.
