Mrs. Phipps Complimented.
The past week has been marked with a series of charming affairs planned in honor of Mrs. Lawrence Phipps of Denver, Colo., the popular house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Test Stewart.

On Sunday night the Stewarts entertained at a buffet supper, to bring together a group of Mrs. Phipps' friends here. Thirty-two guests were present.

Covers were placed for 12, at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. John Mehlhop, Jr., at their home on Tuesday evening, in honor of this visitor, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wickham gave a dinner for a similar number on Thursday.

Miss Mary Key was a luncheon hostess of Wednesday, entertaining eight guests at the Brandeis tea room complimentary to Mrs. Phipps, and Friday this former Council Bluffs girl, and her hostess, were among the guests at a bridge-luncheon which Mrs. Emmet Tinley planned for her guest, Mrs. W. H. Allford of Chicago.

Tea.
Mrs. William Stewart Keeline and Mrs. George Frederick Spooner assembled a delightful gathering of friends for tea on Thursday, at the home of the former on Glen avenue. The tea table, at which Mrs. C. G. Saunders, Mrs. George Camp, Mrs. Emmet Tinley and Mrs. O. D. Wheeler presided, was most attractive with a profusion of tall pink tulips in a silver basket, and crystal candlesticks holding shaded candles to match the flowers.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Folsom Everest, Mrs. George Spooner, Miss Rodna Hughes and Miss Adele Keeline.

The decorations of the parlors and library were pink snap-dragon placed in graceful abundance in large bowls, the ensemble being very beautiful in these rooms. Miss Marian Beattie and Miss Margaret Keeline assisted.

Throughout the afternoon Miss Virginia Mulholland, behind a screen of palms, rendered selections on the harp.

Mrs. Everett Re-elected.
Mrs. Leonard Everett who has so ably filled the position as chairman of the exhibition committee of the Omaha Society of Fine Arts, was re-elected to that office at a meeting held last Thursday afternoon.

Luncheon and Musicals.
About 130 guests attended the benefit luncheon and musicals given by Queen Esther guild of the First Presbyterian church on Saturday, at the attractive home of Mrs. J. F. Wilcox on East Pierce street. Large bowls of quantities of spring flowers were used about the rooms and on the luncheon tables, which were placed in the ballroom on the third floor.

Mrs. John G. Wadsworth and Miss Mary DeVol each entertained 14 guests, and reservations at a table for eight were made by Mrs. Robert B. Wallace.

These tables were arranged on the first floor, and after the luncheon there was a delightful program in charge of Mrs. W. A. Cutler, who contributed to the pleasure of the afternoon with a group of songs, the accompaniments of which were played by Mrs. Fremont Benjamin.

Other numbers on the program were given by Mrs. Frank Howarth and Miss Dorothy Foster, pianists; Miss Edith Boje, soprano, and Miss Virginia Mulholland harpist.

For Mrs. Allford.
Mrs. W. H. Allford of Chicago, who is visiting at the Emmet Tinley and George Damon homes, was honored on Monday evening with a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Damon, whose other guests included Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Spooner and Mr. and Mrs. Tinley. Wednesday, Mrs. Allford and Mrs. Maude Pulcher, also of Chicago, were complimented with a bridge-luncheon at the Louis Zurmuehlen home, with Mrs. Zurmuehlen and Mrs. Fred Emplie the hostesses. Six tables of guests were present and prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. Pulcher, Mrs. F. O. Gleason and Mrs. Joe W. Smith.

Mrs. Tinley entertained on Friday for her guest, covers being placed for about 50 at luncheon which was followed by bridge. Prize winners on this occasion were Mrs. Charles Woodbury and Mrs. W. W. Sherman. Mrs. Allford received a guest favor.

On Saturday Mrs. Allford was one of the guests of Mrs. G. F. Spooner when she had a reservation at the luncheon and musicals given at the J. F. Wilcox home.

Bridge Luncheon Series.
The third in the series of spring parties which Mrs. W. A. Cutler has planned was given at her home on Thursday with 16 guests present for luncheon and bridge.

Tulips formed the table decorations and the high prize for the games was awarded Mrs. A. H. Dunn. Mrs. Norman Filbert received the cut for all.

Dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. John Mehlhop, Jr., gave a dinner at their home Saturday evening in honor of E. C. Hutchinson of Oakland, Cal., who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Ritchie at the Blackstone hotel in Omaha.

Golf.
Golf enthusiasts are responding to the outdoor call of springtime and Wednesday morning the greens at the Country club will be dotted with women golfers for the first game of the season.

Throughout the summer they plan to play every Wednesday and the games will be followed by luncheon at the cafe.

Prizes are to be awarded and apropos of this arrangement a benefit luncheon will be given at the club house on Saturday, May 5, and from

ADVERTISEMENTS.
To Keep Hair in Wave on Damp or Windy Days
This is a secret that will be appreciated by my lady who dislikes the "nervous" task of twisting her locks around a heated iron, perhaps, getting the hair, burning off the ends, and blistering fingers or scalp. From any druggist procure a few ounces of pure liquid salicylic acid, pour a little onto a clean tooth brush and draw this down the full length of the hair just before doing it up. The hair will have a wonderfully soft, pretty curliness, much more natural looking, glossier and livelier in appearance than where a waving iron has been used, and the effect will last much longer. Salicylic is neither sticky nor greasy, and there will be no trouble doing up the hair in any style. It will hold its curl even in damp, foggy or windy weather.

Popular Visitor to Return in May

Miss Kathryn Kirkpatrick was a popular visitor here during the month of February, when she was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garrett.

Since that time she has been sojourning in California, but plans to visit in Council Bluffs again early in May, en route to her home in Valparaiso, Ind.

the fund raised the weekly prizes will be purchased.

Mrs. Frank Garrett and Mrs. E. O. Brulington are in charge of the party and among those who have already made table reservations are Mesdames John P. Organ, Clarence Hafer, H. A. Quinn, L. H. Cutler, Donald Annis, Julius Rosenfeld, R. J. Bloomer, Al Foll, Page Morrison, A. Barnes, Frank Hendricks, Philip Cogley, Wallace Benjamin, Will Tyson, Theodore Metzger, R. McCaw, A. McMillen, R. M. Seitz, E. E. Crawford, E. O. Brulington, W. G. Champlin, G. L. Berger, H. Kost, H. C. Boyer, W. Keenan, A. Andrews and Miss Marian Turner.

Mrs. Kellher Entertains.
Mrs. J. J. Kellher was a hostess of the week, entertaining at luncheon and bridge on Monday last.

A color scheme of yellow was used in the table decorations, and at bridge the prizes for high score were awarded Mrs. Robert Organ and Miss Hanna Kellher of Omaha.

Fete Mrs. Conklin.
A number of social courtesies have been given or are being planned for Mrs. William B. Conklin of Chicago, who is an exceptionally popular visitor in our city.

Mrs. Joe W. Smith entertained 16 guests at luncheon on Monday for Mrs. Conklin, and Tuesday an informal tea was given for her by Mrs. John P. Organ.

Dining at the Grand hotel on Wednesday evening with Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett were Mrs. Conklin and Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Woodbury, at whose home she is visiting.

Mrs. C. G. Robinson and her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Clark, were joint hostesses on Thursday at a beautiful tea with Mrs. Conklin and Mrs. Helen Metcalf the honor guests.

Mrs. F. J. Day and Mrs. H. A. Woodbury graced the tea-table which was most attractive with a centerpiece of pink and lavender sweet peas and lighted candles placed at either end.

Assisting the hostesses were Mesdames Fred Hurd, Frank Riker, R. D. M. Turner, Bert Pinney and Miss Elizabeth Day.

In lieu of a party planned at her home for Saturday, complimentary to Mrs. Conklin, Mrs. John G. Wadsworth entertained her 14 guests at the benefit luncheon and musicals given at the J. F. Wilcox home.

Miss Mary DeVol will entertain on Monday for this visitor.

Bridge and Luncheon.
Mrs. Roy Maxfield and Mrs. J. J. Kellher entertained on Saturday at the home of the latter on Seventh avenue.

Six tables gracefully arranged with calendars were placed for luncheon and the afternoon was devoted to bridge.

Party at Quinns.
The spacious home of Mrs. H. A. Quinn on Oakland avenue, will be the setting for a bridge-luncheon which will be given on Tuesday by the American Legion auxiliary.

The affair is open to the public and many reservations for tables have already been made.

To Entertain.
Mrs. Roy Maxfield has issued invitations to a bridge-luncheon, which will be given at her home on Wednesday.

Personals.
Miss Mary Key expects to leave this week for New York city, from which point on May 15 she and Miss Caroline Dodge will sail on the S. S. Pittsburgh for a trip to Europe.

Dr. S. D. Maiden is expected home Monday from Chicago, where he spent the past week.

James Bonham has returned from Chicago and Detroit, where he went on business. He made the trip over land.

W. H. Allford will arrive today from Chicago to join his wife here for a few days' visit at the Emmet Tinley home.

Mrs. John Davis and her daughter, Miss June, returned home Tuesday evening from a visit of two weeks in Ardmore, Okl.

Spencer Smith, who has a ranch near Sheridan, Wyo., is here for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Smith.

Mrs. Guy Shepard of Evanston, Ill., is expected the early part of May for a visit with her mother, Mrs. F. O. Gleason, and other relatives here.

Mrs. W. S. Keeline left Saturday for Dubuque, Ia., to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burke, and their new daughter, born Thursday morning.

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Cutler and daughter, Mary Louise, are planning a motor trip for the latter part of May, when they will go to Laporte, Ind., for the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Taylor, parents of Mrs. Cutler.

Mrs. Eugene Reynolds will leave today for Davenport, Ia., to join her husband, who has recently gone into business in that city. They expect to make Davenport their future home. Before her marriage Mrs. Reynolds was Miss Lucile McAtee.

Mrs. W. S. Stillman arrived home Friday from Chicago, where she went to spend the Easter vacation with her daughter, Miss Nancy, who is a student at the Chicago university. Since that time she has been the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Brooks. Accompanying Mrs. Stillman home was her mother, Mrs. M. C. Martin, who has made a protracted stay in Chicago.

By a recent decision of the civic court in Brest, France, more than 2,000 French girls who married American soldiers or sailors during the world war, and have since been abandoned, may sue for divorce if they are unable to locate their husbands.

The new ruling also permits French wives living in the United States to return to France and obtain divorces.
