

Move Made to Check Big Crime Wave

Two Murders, Three Shootings, 16 Suicides and Attempted Suicides in Omaha During April.

Anna Greco, 14, 2106 North Fifteenth street, shot by James Corbino Saturday night when she refused to love with him, died Monday afternoon at St. Joseph hospital. Condition of the father, Alfred Greco, from Corbino attacked with a knife, as reported critical.

Corbino arrived in Omaha shortly after 3 Monday afternoon by automobile, from Ames, Ia., where he was pointed from a train, in custody of Detective Gilliam, Davis and confessed shooting the Greco girl to Ames police.

During the month of April, Omaha has been gripped by a wave of violent crime which has called forth drastic measures on the part of officials for its abatement.

Murder or attempted murder has been an almost weekly occurrence, according to police records, and nearly a score of Omahans sought to take their own lives.

During the month there were two slayings, three shootings in which three persons were fatally wounded, 16 suicides and attempts at suicide, and 53 automobile accidents, one resulting fatally.

The latest of a long series of shootings is the wounding of Sebastiano Mangemelli, 117 North Seventeenth street, proprietor of a pool hall at 1224 Nicholas street, by Walter Lawrence, 1222 E. Cumming street, Sunday afternoon. Mangemelli died last night.

Woman Seeks Life.

The latest suicide attempt on the police books is that of Mrs. Frances Quinley, 2298 Grand avenue, who shot and perhaps fatally wounded herself Sunday night in front of the home of A. Havelka, 2212 Grand avenue. Her health is believed to have improved by the time she was taken to Swedish Mission hospital. Her husband, Emmet Quinley, is a dance hall inspector.

Rouged by the epidemic of crimes of violence, County Attorney Best yesterday morning took drastic steps to curb its threatened progress.

He requested Chief of Detectives Dan Deussen to hold on to state charges every man found carrying concealed weapons, and suggested delivery of offenders to district court on $1,000 bond, for trial before a jury.

Mayor Thinks Hoeh Responsible.

Commenting on the crime wave which is sweeping over Omaha, Mayor Dahlman yesterday morning stated that these tragedies are due to several causes.

"There is an unrest among the people," the mayor said, "Many seem to be unstrung and they are susceptible to abnormal impulses. Think of people dancing for more than 100 hours just to be able to say they could do it. And, again, I am of the opinion that hoeh is responsible for many of these present day crimes."

Favors Rum Law Change.

"As long as this bootleg stuff is made we will have more or less crime. It is time for the people to quit their foolishness and to consider seriously the solution of this phase of the situation, and the solution is a modification of the Volstead act to permit manufacture and sale of light wines and beer. Just go down to the laboratory of our city chemist in the city hall and have a talk with Dr. C. F. Waley. Ask him to tell you what has been found in his many examinations of liquor evidence taken by the state and federal officials. Do you know that many people are dying from the effects of hoeh and the causes of death are given out as heart disease? Light wines and beer would help the situation materially."

Eleven Chickens Stolen.

Tony Jundra, 2119 V street, reported to South Omaha police yesterday morning that someone broke into his chicken coop and stole 10 hens and a rooster.

Road Conditions

(Furnished by the Omaha Auto Club.)
Lincoln highway, east: Roads good; somewhat rough just this side of Denison.
Lincoln highway, west: Roads fair to good; somewhat rough in stretches.
O. L. D.: Roads good.
Meridian highway: Roads good.
Corbushier highway: Roads good.
Herald cutoff: Roads fair to good.
Black Hills Trail: Roads fair to good to Norfolk.
Y. & A.: Roads good.
Washington highway: Roads fair to good to Sioux City.
Omaha-Tulsa highway: Roads good to Topeka.
Omaha-Topeka highway: Roads fair to good to state line.
King of the City: Roads fair to good to Sioux City.
Detroit just south of Sioux City.
King of Trails, south: Roads good.
River to River road: Roads good.
White Way, etc.: Roads fair to good; somewhat rough in stretches.
O. Shortlines: Roads fair to good.
Primary No. 8: Roads good.
Weather reported clear at all stations.

Edict Against Marriage Arouses Near Revolution at Syracuse University

Syracuse, N. Y., April 30.—Chancellor Charles Wesley Flint, of Syracuse university, yesterday faced a revolt in his own faculty ranks as a result of his edict forbidding student marriages under pain of expulsion.

Prof. Harry H. Skerritt, instructor in the College of Law, and member of the board of education, declared that the chancellor's ultimatum had no legal validity.

Married students are incensed at the allegation that they cannot attend to their duties and their studies at the same time.

Lower Clothing Prices Sought

Retailers to Discuss Reduction at Chicago Convention in September.

Chicago, April 30.—How to get clothing to the customer at the lowest price, or in other words a lesson in the reduction of overhead expense similar in character to an abbreviated university course, will be offered to everyone who attends the 10th anniversary convention and exposition of the National Association of Retail Clothiers which will be held here during the last week of September.

According to the arrangements made by Charles E. Wry, executive director of the association, every one who addresses the convention will place particular emphasis upon this important subject.

"The retail clothing dealer who favors high prices, if there still exists such a merchant," said Mr. Wry, while discussing the preparatory work of the convention and exposition, "is standing in his own light. We had one sad experience with high prices not so very long ago, and it taught us a lesson. High prices don't mean big profits to the dealer by any means. In fact they mean just the opposite. What we are endeavoring to do all the time, and what we are going to emphasize drive home to everyone who visits our convention and exposition, is that reasonable prices brought about by economy in overhead expense, such as rents, efficiency in handling goods and other incidentals to the handling of clothing, mean reasonable profits and satisfied customers."

"A careful survey of the clothing industry by qualified experts resulted in this conclusion, and this lesson is going to be taught at our convention and exposition morning, noon and night."

Jim Winn Springs Surprise Wedding in Council Bluffs

James E. Winn, 24 Council Bluffs, exploitation manager for First National pictures in Omaha and formerly a reporter for the Omaha Bee, Sunday married Miss Marion Copey, 23, daughter of the vice president of a bank at York, Neb.

The ceremony was unscheduled. Miss Copey, accompanied by her mother, came to Omaha Saturday for a visit. They were staying at the Conant hotel.

Sunday, however, the couple decided to be married at once. The ceremony was performed by Monsig. F. P. McManus of St. Francis Xavier church, at the church rectory at 4 p. m., under dispensation from Bishop Drumm of Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Winn will make their home at the Blackstone hotel in Omaha.

Victim of Holdup Men Suffers a Broken Jaw

Grand Island, Neb., April 30.—Joe Mikvicka, a carpenter of Ravenna, Neb., is the victim of two thugs who attempted to hold him up on the Walnut street railroad crossing. Stepping out of a dark place, they beat Mikvicka, who fought back, and finally walked away without being robbed. On one side of his jaw a tooth was broken out and the other jaw is fractured in two places. The victim is in a local hospital.

Minister Tells of Bank Venture

Defendant in Fraud Trial Unaware of Guaranty Company's Action.

Rev. Charles Rogers, 74, formerly pastor of Plymouth Congregational church, Lincoln, testified in federal court yesterday regarding his venture into the banking business after he had spent most of his life in the ministry, a venture which resulted in his indictment and present trial with 13 other men alleged use of the mails to defraud in promotion of the Colonial Timber & Coal corporation.

The clergyman showed much lack of knowledge of what was going on in the Guaranty Securities company of which he was a director and manager of the Lincoln branch.

He didn't know the company had bought $2,000,000 of Colonial bonds until some time after the purchase. His salary, he said, was $150 a month. He saw a "sample" of the 700,000-acre of land the Colonial concern claimed to own in West Virginia. This was when he took his daughter, Dorothy, to school at Stanton, Va., and stopped off in Charleston and was taken out to the land by Ralph Sunderland. He said he stood amazed before the great trees. When, on his return to Lincoln, he described one of the walnut trees he had seen to J. H. Humpe, the latter declared that one such tree would be worth from $2,000 to $2,300.

Harry Dobbins of the Nebraska State Journal and C. P. Russell, secretary of the Lincoln Telephone company, testified to the high reputation of Rev. Mr. Rogers.

Fishop George A. Beecher, former dean of Trinity cathedral, was a character witness for George L. Stickle, a defendant.

Car Turns Over Four Times; Occupants Slightly Hurt

Four persons escaped with cuts and bruises when their car turned over four times while rounding a curve on a country road south of Millard Sunday afternoon.

They were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leese, Claremont hotel, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Chocolek. A blowout caused the accident.

Immediately afterward Leese sold the wreck of the car to a farmer for $45.

Mr. and Mrs. David Alexander, 2033 North Thirty-first street, and their two children escaped injury when the car in which they were riding on West Center street was knocked over a 20-foot embankment by another machine.

Assailant of Girl, Father, Captured in Ames, Iowa

Jim-Corbino, confessed assailant of Anna Greco, 14, 2106 North Fifteenth street and her father, Alfred Greco, was captured in Ames, Ia., yesterday.

Corbino, a boiler maker at Havelka, Neb., is said to have shot the girl and her father at their home Saturday night when the girl refused to marry him.

Don't think water will take the place of thorough cultivation—it won't.

Missouri Synod's Growth Is Outlined in Lecture

The growth of the Missouri synod Lutheran churches in 50 years to five local churches with 4,000 communicant members, four outlying churches and a local mission, was described by Rev. Titus Lang in a mission lecture at the Cross Lutheran church Sunday afternoon.

The five local churches which Rev. Mr. Lang described as "growing from the small seed planted 50 years ago," are Cross, First, Immanuel, St. Paul and Zion. The Council Bluffs and Papillion churches were founded by the First Lutheran church. Churches at Florence and Bennington were founded by the other churches.

The first Lutheran church was founded in 1873 on land at Eleventh and Jackson streets, leased from the wife of President Cleveland. The first pastor was Rev. J. Hilgendorf, now of Portland, Ore., who will attend the golden jubilee of the church next Sunday.

Reserve Board Issues Warning

Statement Says Continuance of Credit Demand Will Lead to Heavy Borrowing.

Washington, April 30.—The federal reserve board, in a formal statement last night, again calls attention to the rapid expansion of credit demand and industrial production and warns that "a continuance of this credit demand must soon result in increased borrowings by banks which are members of the federal reserve system of the federal reserve banks."

While the statement was issued as a summary of April business, it deals exclusively with the credit and production situation and threads through it a comparison with conditions in 1921.

In its discussion of the expanding production, the board declares "substantial" increase in the demand for currency in prospect if the rapid growth of payroll amounts continues as it has since the middle of 1922. Should more currency be needed, the board adds, the banks will seek greater accommodation from the reserve banks to secure the additional currency issued.

"The present lending capacity of the country's banking system in view of the great growth of the reserves at the reserve banks," the statement says, "is not far in excess of the credit needs of the country's productive capacity. In such a situation, it is the availability of labor and equipment and not the potential supply of credit that, in the end, must fix the limit which may be attained by aggregate national production. As these limits are approached, credit policy must be increasingly influenced by careful consideration of the continued effectiveness of further additions to the total volume of creditor in contributing to increased productivity."

Husband Kills Wife, Two Children and Self

Malta, Mont., April 30.—James E. Hovey, his wife and two small children are dead, their bodies badly mutilated, in their ranch home 25 miles southeast of here, and a baby girl is believed fatally injured, following an ax and club attack, alleged to have been made by Hovey on his family Sunday morning. Two boys, 9 and 11, made their escape and called neighbors to the scene.

According to the story told by the two boys they were awakened by the cries of their mother. They said they made their way to the kitchen to find their parents engaged in a struggle in the center of the room. As the boys entered the room their father, armed with an ax, struck their mother in the head. They declared Hovey then turned on the boys and attempted to strike them and they ran into the yard.

A search of the premises revealed Hovey's body in the corner of a granary with a shotgun lying nearby.

Omaha Pair Routs Parson for Wedding Rites at 3 A. M.

Charles Davis and Jane E. Herdman, both of Omaha, were married at 3 a. m. Monday at the home of the Rev. Charles W. Savidge.

They had been engaged for two years. Last night they decided to marry immediately. They called Thomas J. Conley, attorney in the office of the county judge, who went to the court house and made out a license. Then he called Rev. Mr. Sav-idge and the entire party repaired to the minister's home, where the ceremony was performed.

Mother Rescues Two Small Tots from Blazing Home

Mrs. George Hollander, 1315 Clark street, dashed into her blazing home at 7:30 yesterday morning to rescue her two children, Lloyd, 4, and Marian, 6, who were sleeping in a front room.

Mrs. Hollander was outside when she saw flames breaking through the roof. With a scream she entered the house, to find flames almost everywhere. She was hysterical after she had carried her two children to safety.

The house was virtually destroyed. Cause of fire is undetermined.

Move Made to Check Big Crime Wave

Two Murders, Three Shootings, 16 Suicides and Attempted Suicides in Omaha During April.

Anna Greco, 14, 2106 North Fifteenth street, shot by James Corbino Saturday night when she refused to love with him, died Monday afternoon at St. Joseph hospital. Condition of the father, Alfred Greco, from Corbino attacked with a knife, as reported critical.

Corbino arrived in Omaha shortly after 3 Monday afternoon by automobile, from Ames, Ia., where he was pointed from a train, in custody of Detective Gilliam, Davis and confessed shooting the Greco girl to Ames police.

During the month of April, Omaha has been gripped by a wave of violent crime which has called forth drastic measures on the part of officials for its abatement.

Murder or attempted murder has been an almost weekly occurrence, according to police records, and nearly a score of Omahans sought to take their own lives.

During the month there were two slayings, three shootings in which three persons were fatally wounded, 16 suicides and attempts at suicide, and 53 automobile accidents, one resulting fatally.

The latest of a long series of shootings is the wounding of Sebastiano Mangemelli, 117 North Seventeenth street, proprietor of a pool hall at 1224 Nicholas street, by Walter Lawrence, 1222 E. Cumming street, Sunday afternoon. Mangemelli died last night.

Woman Seeks Life.

The latest suicide attempt on the police books is that of Mrs. Frances Quinley, 2298 Grand avenue, who shot and perhaps fatally wounded herself Sunday night in front of the home of A. Havelka, 2212 Grand avenue. Her health is believed to have improved by the time she was taken to Swedish Mission hospital. Her husband, Emmet Quinley, is a dance hall inspector.

Rouged by the epidemic of crimes of violence, County Attorney Best yesterday morning took drastic steps to curb its threatened progress.

He requested Chief of Detectives Dan Deussen to hold on to state charges every man found carrying concealed weapons, and suggested delivery of offenders to district court on $1,000 bond, for trial before a jury.

Mayor Thinks Hoeh Responsible.

Commenting on the crime wave which is sweeping over Omaha, Mayor Dahlman yesterday morning stated that these tragedies are due to several causes.

"There is an unrest among the people," the mayor said, "Many seem to be unstrung and they are susceptible to abnormal impulses. Think of people dancing for more than 100 hours just to be able to say they could do it. And, again, I am of the opinion that hoeh is responsible for many of these present day crimes."

Favors Rum Law Change.

"As long as this bootleg stuff is made we will have more or less crime. It is time for the people to quit their foolishness and to consider seriously the solution of this phase of the situation, and the solution is a modification of the Volstead act to permit manufacture and sale of light wines and beer. Just go down to the laboratory of our city chemist in the city hall and have a talk with Dr. C. F. Waley. Ask him to tell you what has been found in his many examinations of liquor evidence taken by the state and federal officials. Do you know that many people are dying from the effects of hoeh and the causes of death are given out as heart disease? Light wines and beer would help the situation materially."

Eleven Chickens Stolen.

Tony Jundra, 2119 V street, reported to South Omaha police yesterday morning that someone broke into his chicken coop and stole 10 hens and a rooster.

Road Conditions

(Furnished by the Omaha Auto Club.)
Lincoln highway, east: Roads good; somewhat rough just this side of Denison.
Lincoln highway, west: Roads fair to good; somewhat rough in stretches.
O. L. D.: Roads good.
Meridian highway: Roads good.
Corbushier highway: Roads good.
Herald cutoff: Roads fair to good.
Black Hills Trail: Roads fair to good to Norfolk.
Y. & A.: Roads good.
Washington highway: Roads fair to good to Sioux City.
Omaha-Tulsa highway: Roads good to Topeka.
Omaha-Topeka highway: Roads fair to good to state line.
King of the City: Roads fair to good to Sioux City.
Detroit just south of Sioux City.
King of Trails, south: Roads good.
River to River road: Roads good.
White Way, etc.: Roads fair to good; somewhat rough in stretches.
O. Shortlines: Roads fair to good.
Primary No. 8: Roads good.
Weather reported clear at all stations.

Edict Against Marriage Arouses Near Revolution at Syracuse University

Syracuse, N. Y., April 30.—Chancellor Charles Wesley Flint, of Syracuse university, yesterday faced a revolt in his own faculty ranks as a result of his edict forbidding student marriages under pain of expulsion.

Prof. Harry H. Skerritt, instructor in the College of Law, and member of the board of education, declared that the chancellor's ultimatum had no legal validity.

Married students are incensed at the allegation that they cannot attend to their duties and their studies at the same time.

Lower Clothing Prices Sought

Retailers to Discuss Reduction at Chicago Convention in September.

Chicago, April 30.—How to get clothing to the customer at the lowest price, or in other words a lesson in the reduction of overhead expense similar in character to an abbreviated university course, will be offered to everyone who attends the 10th anniversary convention and exposition of the National Association of Retail Clothiers which will be held here during the last week of September.

According to the arrangements made by Charles E. Wry, executive director of the association, every one who addresses the convention will place particular emphasis upon this important subject.

"The retail clothing dealer who favors high prices, if there still exists such a merchant," said Mr. Wry, while discussing the preparatory work of the convention and exposition, "is standing in his own light. We had one sad experience with high prices not so very long ago, and it taught us a lesson. High prices don't mean big profits to the dealer by any means. In fact they mean just the opposite. What we are endeavoring to do all the time, and what we are going to emphasize drive home to everyone who visits our convention and exposition, is that reasonable prices brought about by economy in overhead expense, such as rents, efficiency in handling goods and other incidentals to the handling of clothing, mean reasonable profits and satisfied customers."

"A careful survey of the clothing industry by qualified experts resulted in this conclusion, and this lesson is going to be taught at our convention and exposition morning, noon and night."

Jim Winn Springs Surprise Wedding in Council Bluffs

James E. Winn, 24 Council Bluffs, exploitation manager for First National pictures in Omaha and formerly a reporter for the Omaha Bee, Sunday married Miss Marion Copey, 23, daughter of the vice president of a bank at York, Neb.

The ceremony was unscheduled. Miss Copey, accompanied by her mother, came to Omaha Saturday for a visit. They were staying at the Conant hotel.

Sunday, however, the couple decided to be married at once. The ceremony was performed by Monsig. F. P. McManus of St. Francis Xavier church, at the church rectory at 4 p. m., under dispensation from Bishop Drumm of Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Winn will make their home at the Blackstone hotel in Omaha.

Victim of Holdup Men Suffers a Broken Jaw

Grand Island, Neb., April 30.—Joe Mikvicka, a carpenter of Ravenna, Neb., is the victim of two thugs who attempted to hold him up on the Walnut street railroad crossing. Stepping out of a dark place, they beat Mikvicka, who fought back, and finally walked away without being robbed. On one side of his jaw a tooth was broken out and the other jaw is fractured in two places. The victim is in a local hospital.

Minister Tells of Bank Venture

Defendant in Fraud Trial Unaware of Guaranty Company's Action.

Rev. Charles Rogers, 74, formerly pastor of Plymouth Congregational church, Lincoln, testified in federal court yesterday regarding his venture into the banking business after he had spent most of his life in the ministry, a venture which resulted in his indictment and present trial with 13 other men alleged use of the mails to defraud in promotion of the Colonial Timber & Coal corporation.

The clergyman showed much lack of knowledge of what was going on in the Guaranty Securities company of which he was a director and manager of the Lincoln branch.

He didn't know the company had bought $2,000,000 of Colonial bonds until some time after the purchase. His salary, he said, was $150 a month. He saw a "sample" of the 700,000-acre of land the Colonial concern claimed to own in West Virginia. This was when he took his daughter, Dorothy, to school at Stanton, Va., and stopped off in Charleston and was taken out to the land by Ralph Sunderland. He said he stood amazed before the great trees. When, on his return to Lincoln, he described one of the walnut trees he had seen to J. H. Humpe, the latter declared that one such tree would be worth from $2,000 to $2,300.

Harry Dobbins of the Nebraska State Journal and C. P. Russell, secretary of the Lincoln Telephone company, testified to the high reputation of Rev. Mr. Rogers.

Fishop George A. Beecher, former dean of Trinity cathedral, was a character witness for George L. Stickle, a defendant.

Reserve Board Issues Warning

Statement Says Continuance of Credit Demand Will Lead to Heavy Borrowing.

Washington, April 30.—The federal reserve board, in a formal statement last night, again calls attention to the rapid expansion of credit demand and industrial production and warns that "a continuance of this credit demand must soon result in increased borrowings by banks which are members of the federal reserve system of the federal reserve banks."

While the statement was issued as a summary of April business, it deals exclusively with the credit and production situation and threads through it a comparison with conditions in 1921.

In its discussion of the expanding production, the board declares "substantial" increase in the demand for currency in prospect if the rapid growth of payroll amounts continues as it has since the middle of 1922. Should more currency be needed, the board adds, the banks will seek greater accommodation from the reserve banks to secure the additional currency issued.

"The present lending capacity of the country's banking system in view of the great growth of the reserves at the reserve banks," the statement says, "is not far in excess of the credit needs of the country's productive capacity. In such a situation, it is the availability of labor and equipment and not the potential supply of credit that, in the end, must fix the limit which may be attained by aggregate national production. As these limits are approached, credit policy must be increasingly influenced by careful consideration of the continued effectiveness of further additions to the total volume of creditor in contributing to increased productivity."

Husband Kills Wife, Two Children and Self

Malta, Mont., April 30.—James E. Hovey, his wife and two small children are dead, their bodies badly mutilated, in their ranch home 25 miles southeast of here, and a baby girl is believed fatally injured, following an ax and club attack, alleged to have been made by Hovey on his family Sunday morning. Two boys, 9 and 11, made their escape and called neighbors to the scene.

According to the story told by the two boys they were awakened by the cries of their mother. They said they made their way to the kitchen to find their parents engaged in a struggle in the center of the room. As the boys entered the room their father, armed with an ax, struck their mother in the head. They declared Hovey then turned on the boys and attempted to strike them and they ran into the yard.

A search of the premises revealed Hovey's body in the corner of a granary with a shotgun lying nearby.

Omaha Pair Routs Parson for Wedding Rites at 3 A. M.

Charles Davis and Jane E. Herdman, both of Omaha, were married at 3 a. m. Monday at the home of the Rev. Charles W. Savidge.

They had been engaged for two years. Last night they decided to marry immediately. They called Thomas J. Conley, attorney in the office of the county judge, who went to the court house and made out a license. Then he called Rev. Mr. Sav-idge and the entire party repaired to the minister's home, where the ceremony was performed.

Mother Rescues Two Small Tots from Blazing Home

Mrs. George Hollander, 1315 Clark street, dashed into her blazing home at 7:30 yesterday morning to rescue her two children, Lloyd, 4, and Marian, 6, who were sleeping in a front room.

Mrs. Hollander was outside when she saw flames breaking through the roof. With a scream she entered the house, to find flames almost everywhere. She was hysterical after she had carried her two children to safety.

The house was virtually destroyed. Cause of fire is undetermined.

Move Made to Check Big Crime Wave

Two Murders, Three Shootings, 16 Suicides and Attempted Suicides in Omaha During April.

Anna Greco, 14, 2106 North Fifteenth street, shot by James Corbino Saturday night when she refused to love with him, died Monday afternoon at St. Joseph hospital. Condition of the father, Alfred Greco, from Corbino attacked with a knife, as reported critical.

Corbino arrived in Omaha shortly after 3 Monday afternoon by automobile, from Ames, Ia., where he was pointed from a train, in custody of Detective Gilliam, Davis and confessed shooting the Greco girl to Ames police.

During the month of April, Omaha has been gripped by a wave of violent crime which has called forth drastic measures on the part of officials for its abatement.

Murder or attempted murder has been an almost weekly occurrence, according to police records, and nearly a score of Omahans sought to take their own lives.

During the month there were two slayings, three shootings in which three persons were fatally wounded, 16 suicides and attempts at suicide, and 53 automobile accidents, one resulting fatally.

The latest of a long series of shootings is the wounding of Sebastiano Mangemelli, 117 North Seventeenth street, proprietor of a pool hall at 1224 Nicholas street, by Walter Lawrence, 1222 E. Cumming street, Sunday afternoon. Mangemelli died last night.

Woman Seeks Life.

The latest suicide attempt on the police books is that of Mrs. Frances Quinley, 2298 Grand avenue, who shot and perhaps fatally wounded herself Sunday night in front of the home of A. Havelka, 2212 Grand avenue. Her health is believed to have improved by the time she was taken to Swedish Mission hospital. Her husband, Emmet Quinley, is a dance hall inspector.

Rouged by the epidemic of crimes of violence, County Attorney Best yesterday morning took drastic steps to curb its threatened progress.

He requested Chief of Detectives Dan Deussen to hold on to state charges every man found carrying concealed weapons, and suggested delivery of offenders to district court on $1,000 bond, for trial before a jury.

Mayor Thinks Hoeh Responsible.

Commenting on the crime wave which is sweeping over Omaha, Mayor Dahlman yesterday morning stated that these tragedies are due to several causes.

"There is an unrest among the people," the mayor said, "Many seem to be unstrung and they are susceptible to abnormal impulses. Think of people dancing for more than 100 hours just to be able to say they could do it. And, again, I am of the opinion that hoeh is responsible for many of these present day crimes."

Favors Rum Law Change.

"As long as this bootleg stuff is made we will have more or less crime. It is time for the people to quit their foolishness and to consider seriously the solution of this phase of the situation, and the solution is a modification of the Volstead act to permit manufacture and sale of light wines and beer. Just go down to the laboratory of our city chemist in the city hall and have a talk with Dr. C. F. Waley. Ask him to tell you what has been found in his many examinations of liquor evidence taken by the state and federal officials. Do you know that many people are dying from the effects of hoeh and the causes of death are given out as heart disease? Light wines and beer would help the situation materially."

Eleven Chickens Stolen.

Tony Jundra, 2119 V street, reported to South Omaha police yesterday morning that someone broke into his chicken coop and stole 10 hens and a rooster.

Road Conditions

(Furnished by the Omaha Auto Club.)
Lincoln highway, east: Roads good; somewhat rough just this side of Denison.
Lincoln highway, west: Roads fair to good; somewhat rough in stretches.
O. L. D.: Roads good.
Meridian highway: Roads good.
Corbushier highway: Roads good.
Herald cutoff: Roads fair to good.
Black Hills Trail: Roads fair to good to Norfolk.
Y. & A.: Roads good.
Washington highway: Roads fair to good to Sioux City.
Omaha-Tulsa highway: Roads good to Topeka.
Omaha-Topeka highway: Roads fair to good to state line.
King of the City: Roads fair to good to Sioux City.
Detroit just south of Sioux City.
King of Trails, south: Roads good.
River to River road: Roads good.
White Way, etc.: Roads fair to good; somewhat rough in stretches.
O. Shortlines: Roads fair to good.
Primary No. 8: Roads good.
Weather reported clear at all stations.

Edict Against Marriage Arouses Near Revolution at Syracuse University

Syracuse, N. Y., April 30.—Chancellor Charles Wesley Flint, of Syracuse university, yesterday faced a revolt in his own faculty ranks as a result of his edict forbidding student marriages under pain of expulsion.

Prof. Harry H. Skerritt, instructor in the College of Law, and member of the board of education, declared that the chancellor's ultimatum had no legal validity.

Married students are incensed at the allegation that they cannot attend to their duties and their studies at the same time.

Lower Clothing Prices Sought

Retailers to Discuss Reduction at Chicago Convention in September.

Chicago, April 30.—How to get clothing to the customer at the lowest price, or in other words a lesson in the reduction of overhead expense similar in character to an abbreviated university course, will be offered to everyone who attends the 10th anniversary convention and exposition of the National Association of Retail Clothiers which will be held here during the last week of September.

According to the arrangements made by Charles E. Wry, executive director of the association, every one who addresses the convention will place particular emphasis upon this important subject.

"The retail clothing dealer who favors high prices, if there still exists such a merchant," said Mr. Wry, while discussing the preparatory work of the convention and exposition, "is standing in his own light. We had one sad experience with high prices not so very long ago, and it taught us a lesson. High prices don't mean big profits to the dealer by any means. In fact they mean just the opposite. What we are endeavoring to do all the time, and what we are going to emphasize drive home to everyone who visits our convention and exposition, is that reasonable prices brought about by economy in overhead expense, such as rents, efficiency in handling goods and other incidentals to the handling of clothing, mean reasonable profits and satisfied customers."

"A careful survey of the clothing industry by qualified experts resulted in this conclusion, and this lesson is going to be taught at our convention and exposition morning, noon and night."

Jim Winn Springs Surprise Wedding in Council Bluffs

James E. Winn, 24 Council Bluffs, exploitation manager