Women Voters for World Court

Mrs. Charles H. Dietrich of Hastings, regional director for the Sixth district, League of Women Voters, made an address on the subject of the world court and other matters of interest to the league at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Midway hotel in Kearney, Monday, May 7. Mrs. Dietrich outlined the functions of the league, its importance in leading toward the prevention of war, that subject of paramount suggestiveness to the whole world at the present moment, and urged every woman to contribute her effort and influence toward spreading accurate information regarding the court. She showed conclusively its disconnection with the league of nations.

She also discussed another fundamental objective of the league, the getting out of a more full and representative vote at coming elections, disclosing the startling fact that less than 49 per cent of the electorate participates in the voting which in directs and determines the destinies of the country. The League of Women Voters has set its goal at 75 per cent of the vote for the 1924 presidential election. This undertaking is fraught with potentialities for good which, if accomplished, will more than justify the existence of the league as an organization.

The local league began the study of the national pamphlet, "Know Your Town," and a meeting will be held later in the month for replies to questions and for discussion.

Miss Hugh Moore was elected a delegate to the organization school to be held under Miss Grace Zorbaugh in Omaha, May 25 and 26.

Mrs. Frank Babcock of Hastings was a guest of the league at the luncheon.

League Program Nets $7,300.

Miss Marion Towle, chairman of program for the Junior League revue, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Peters and six teams of solicitors, has sold $7,300 worth of advertising for this year's official program. In 1921, Mrs. Peters as chairman sold to the amount of $5,000. Last year, under Miss Towle's chairmanship, ad sales went to approximately $6,000.

An outstanding feature of the program this year is the fact that many out of town firms have bought space among whom are: H. P. Hollander, Frank Brothers, House of Manahan, George Woods and Leffingwell's of Chicago, Ray Millard, who has given female impersonations in the last two performances of the revue, is the owner of Leffingwell's and now that he is a merchant insists upon space in the revue program which he says has no equal as an advertising medium.

The page known as the Bachelor's page has an attractive drawing this year, the work of Miss Dorothy Bell, and the following bachelors' names appear on the page: Louis M. Mielenz; Cuthbert Porter, Porter Allen, Ed Pettis, Herbert Connell, Albert Kentz, Loring Elliot, Guy Beckert, Fritz Koenig, Frank Haskell, Francis Gaines and Drexel Silberman.

With the adoption of the community chest, it is possible, Junior League officers say, that this will be the "final" annual revue.

For Mrs. Christiancy.

Miss Carrie Millard entertained at luncheon today at her home for Mrs. George A. C. Christiancy of New York, who is the guest of her nephew, Thorton Millard, and Mrs. Millard, Wednesday, Mrs. E. P. Peck and Friday Mrs. Charles Offutt will give luncheons for the visitor.

I., leave this evening for Milwaukee, where they will visit Miss Erna Trostel, who left last night for her home following a visit here. Miss Carpenter will spend some time in Boston, New York and in Schenectady, with her sisters, Mrs. Marvin Fredericks, before returning.

Luncheon Parties Follow May Festival Concert.

The Omaha Woman's club and Woman's Symphony orchestra members have made reservations for 60 at the Brandeis restaurant for luncheon Wednesday following the second concert of the May Music Festival, on which program they appear. The concert will be given at the Orpheum theater at 11 a. m.

Following the concert Mrs. M. C. Warren will entertain eight guests at luncheon at the Brandeis restaurant, followed by bridge.

Members of the speech education department of the club who will serve as ushers are Mesdames H. J. Holmes, E. H. Westerfield, James Bone, W. J. Traver, Everett Stoll, John Murphy, E. Lowell Dunn, Harry Barton, Fred Larkin and Victor Anderson. Mrs. A. H. Clark will be in the box office and Mesdames Roy Ralph and E. A. McGlasson at the door.

Buffet Supper.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. C. Johnson will give a buffet supper on Friday evening for 16 guests preceding the Junior League Revue.

Honoring Miss Spear.

Mrs. Robert Storz entertained at luncheon Tuesday at the Omaha club for Miss Emily Spear, who is the guest of Mrs. Paul Shirley.

Burgess Bedtime Stories

Farmer Brown's Boy Puzzles the Woodpeckers.

True friendship you can always trust to do the thing that's right at last. —Old Mother Nature.

"There," said he, "I guess that will head off Chatterer."

Now Drummer the Woodpecker and Chatterer the Red Squirrel knew it not, but they had been watching that morning. Farmer Brown's Boy had heard the fuss out in the maple tree, and very cautiously had peeped out to see what was going on. He had understood the situation at once. "That little red robber is after the eggs of those Woodpeckers," muttered Farmer Brown's Boy. "I didn't know they had a nest up in that tree, but he must have discovered it somehow. He won't get those eggs this morning, but I'm afraid he will get the young birds when they hatch. With hungry babies demanding food every moment it will be impossible for one parent to keep guard while the other one hunts for food. I must look into this. I can't have that little red robber friend of mine bringing sadness to the day other friends of mine."

So later in the day Farmer Brown's Boy went out to the maple tree. He took with him a sheet of old tin, a hammer and some small nails. The sheet of tin he wrapped around the trunk of the tree and nailed it in place. "There," said he,

COLD STORAGE FOR FURS

So-called Storage Plants Deceive Omaha Women.

Before Storing Expensive Wraps Investigate and Play Safe.

You don't want your seal-skin coat or your marten wrap jammed in some dark hole called a storage plant and put through a half-way cleaning process. You don't want to pay regular rates for inefficient work.

Surely as American women you should investigate. Go through the cold storage plant. See what you are getting for your money.

Dresher Brothers' furrier will be glad to show you through their big vault. He will show you the special refrigerating machinery Dreshers maintain to keep the furs and fur-trimmed garments at 28 degrees during the summer to give them life and body.

Dreshers are not only cleaners and dyers but hatters, furriers, tailors and rug cleaners. They maintain branches at Brandeis, Burgess-Nash, Dresher the Tailor, 1515 Farnam street, and on the South Side at 4625 S. 24th street. Telephone: AT lantic 0345, and MA rket 0050.

Miss Birdie Reeve, "The World's Fastest Typist," will give a public demonstration in our Auditorium at 11 o'clock Wednesday.

Famous Beauties

And what made them famous

The history of beauty for all ages deals with palm and olive oils. Cleopatra used them. Roman beauties used them. So did the beauties who helped make history in the gala days of France. In all the ages, science has found no cosmetic to compare with palm and olive oils.

Now millions use them

Now times have changed. Today every woman has these beauty helps at her command, and millions now employ them.

You find them blended in Palmolive Soap. Not in the old crude ways, but by a method which gives them multiplied efficiency.

You find it sold at ten cents—the leading toilet soap and the finest toilet soap in the world.

Now every girl and woman has complexion help such as ancient queens and beauties never knew.

Young skins everywhere

Now you see countless fine complexions. The beauties of old could not compare with the beauties of today.

How can any woman resist Palmolive Soap? See what it is doing about you. See the schoolgirl complexions at forty. Ask your attractive friends. Most of them will say they employ it.

If you have overlooked it, go now and get it. Learn how much it means to rosy, youthful bloom.

Palm and olive oils—nothing else—give nature's green color to Palmolive Soap.

Volume and efficiency produce 25-cent quality for 10c
