Will Gibbons' Life-Long Ambition of Someday Being Heavy Champion Come True at Shelby Next July 4?

St. Paul Contender Was Simply "Mike Gibbons' Kid Brother" Until About Two Years Ago When He Suddenly Discovered a Knockout Punch—Interest in Bout Gradually Picking Up.

By RALPH WAGNER.

INTEREST in the coming Jack Dempsey-Tommy Gibbons fight for the heavyweight championship of the world and other unknown parts, is gradually picking up. Thus far the match hasn't caused any great amount of excitement. However, the bout has received little "smoking up" and before many days fly past the press agents will start to pound out great gobs of stuff about what Jack eats and how Tom washes his face. This along with a lot of other "dope" on the two knockouts which will gradually cause interest in the championship fight to reach a mighty high pitch by July 4th, the date of the fistie encounter.

Fight fans are not taking Tommy Gibbons very seriously in this coming bout. Thus far it seems to be all Dempsey. But it's quite a spell before July 4th and the wisecracker will likely change their opinion of Mister "Mike Gibbons' kid brother," until about two years ago when he stepped forth into the pugilistic spotlight and got for himself a knockout record. The achievements of Mike eclipsed all of Tom's exploits until two summers ago when the younger Gibbons suddenly discovered a punch and scored 19 consecutive knockouts over fistic "has-beens" or "never-weres."

But, don't forget that it takes some ability to knock out 19 fighters, regardless of their ability, and Tom Gibbons came to be known far and wide as a possible heavyweight contender. Thomas was sailing along on the sea of fisticiana at a pretty good clip and Skipper Eddie Kane was gradually firing up for a match with Dempsey. Kane matched Tom with Harry Greb, the Pittsburgh middleweight, at New York. Gibbons was a top-heavy favorite in the betting and almost every critic in the country picked Tom to stop Harry. Greb surprised everyone by kicking up a rumpus with Gibbons, winning the decision and putting a stop to Tom's plans for a bout with Dempsey, for a time.

The St. Paul heavyweight dropped out of the picture for a while but regained much of his lost prestige by giving Billy Miske quite a beating before he accidentally fouled Bill in the 10th round. Since that time Tom has stopped George Asche, Joe Burke, Andy Schmeider, Jim Tracey and Wiggins and outpointed Miske in a 10-round, no decision bout.

Miske fought 10 and six-round bouts with Dempsey before the latter won the title. The third time these two mixed, Jack kayoed Bill in three rounds. Now Miske is going to help train Gibbons for the Dempsey bout. Eddie Kane believes Bill can give Tom a few pointers on how to fight Dempsey. Miske ought to know, although he wasn't in the ring long enough at Benton Harbor to discover any of Dempsey's weaknesses, if Jack has any.

Tommy Gibbons' 19 consecutive knockouts were scored at the expense of Tony Melchor, Al Reich, Paul Sampson, Larry Williams, Porky Flynn, Sergeant Norcross, Jack Heenan, Sergeant Ray Smith, Jack Clifford, Willie Keeler, Willie Meehan, Dan O'Dowd (twice), Bill Reed, Joe Burke, Fred Allen, Hope Mullen, Hugh Walker and Clay Turner. The chap who stopped Tom's run of quick victories is Bartley Madden, a rugged third-rater. Tom was unable to do much with Madden in a 10-round, no decision bout held at Grand Rapids, Mich. None of the fighters stopped by Gibbons was better than a fourth-rater and a lot of 'em were just "tankers."

A glance at the record book showing Gibbons' past, back before Tom discovered his own kayo punch, one finds that he engaged in no-decision bout with K. O. Brown, Billy Miske, Harry Greb, Bob Moha, Battling Levinsky, George Chip, Clay Turner, Bob Roper and others of like caliber. In 1920 Gibbons was held for a draw by Boy McCormack in a 10-round bout at Portland, Ore. McCormack held the light-heavyweight championship of England at the time and was later knocked out by Ted Lewis, a welterweight, and Joe Beckett, heavyweight.

Tommy Gibbons is a good fighter, no one doubts that. The St. Paul boy has the class and evidently he has a punch. Some fight fans put up those Dempsey knockouts as at least knocked out men who rank with those Dempsey to uphold this argument. Dempsey has stopped the best men in the country and you can't say that about Gibbons.

Chicago, May 12.—Sammy Hale's triple with the bases filled in the sixth inning, when Philadelphia launched its attack, put the visitors out in front, and behind Naylor's great pitching, shut out Chicago, 5 to 0, in the first game of the series. Naylor allowed only four hits and was backed up by fine support. Leverette pitched a great game until the sixth, when he weakened. Hollis Thurston, the St. Louis rookie who was obtained by the White Sox, reported today and held the visitors hitless during his turn on the mound.
