

Demo Governor Snubs Wilson

Colorado Executive Ignores Recommendation in Naming Alva B. Adams Senator.

By Associated Press.
Denver, Colo., May 17.—Alva B. Adams of Pueblo is Colorado's new United States senator. He was appointed today by Governor William E. Sweet. Senator Adams is a democrat. He will succeed the late Samuel D. Nicholson, republican, who died in April. The new senator is ranked as a conservative. He is an attorney. He was born in Colorado and is a son of Alva Adams, three times governor of Colorado.

Governor Sweet ignored recommendations of ex-President Woodrow Wilson, William G. McAduo and William J. Bryan, in making the appointment. Huston Thompson, a member of the federal trade commission, was urged by the former president, while Mr. McAduo and Mr. Bryan asked the governor to appoint Morrison Shafroth, son of ex-Senator Shafroth.

Senator Adams will serve until after the election to be held in the fall of 1924, when a senator will be elected to complete Senator Nicholson's term, which expires in 1926.

The appointment was carried through by Governor Sweet despite last minute efforts of a group of progressive democrats who opposed Senator Adams.

Senator Adams was born at Del Norte, Colo., October 29, 1875. In 1892, the family removed to Pueblo, where the senator received his early education. He was graduated from Yale university in 1896, and completed his law course at Columbia university in 1899.

Returning to Pueblo, he has practiced law there since.

Senator Adams is a member of the bar of supreme court of the United States. He has been prominent in political, legal and civic affairs in Pueblo for many years. His father, Alva Adams, served three terms as governor of Colorado.

In 1910, Mr. Adams was elected a regent of the University of Colorado. He was a delegate at large to the democratic national convention in 1916. During the world war, he served as a major in the judge advocate general's department.

Washington, May 17.—Appointment of Alva B. Adams, democrat, to the United States senate succeeding the late Samuel Nicholson, republican, from Colorado, cuts the republican majority in the next senate down to eight members.

The next senate lineup, assuming that a republican successor to the late Senator Knute Nelson is appointed from Minnesota, will be republicans, 52; democrats, 43; farmer-labor, 1.

Judge Who Lowered Rum Bars to Doctors

Judge John Clark Knox of the United States district court of New York has ruled that the amendment to the Volstead act permitting physicians to prescribe one pint of whiskey to patients only once in 10 days is illegal and that doctors cannot be limited in prescribing liquor for the sick. The government appealed to the supreme court of the United States.

Rohrer Reports Progress Here

Tells Washington Dry Chiefs Prohibition in Nebraska Is Looking Up.

Special Dispatch to the Omaha Bee.
Washington, May 17.—"Work of juries throughout the state continues good," reports Director U. S. Rohrer of Nebraska to Federal Prohibition Commissioner R. A. Haynes.

"During the month we have worked successfully in two outlying districts in the state in co-operation with state enforcement department, with excellent results. In Omaha the federal authorities, city police and sheriff are co-operating. The police and sheriffs will practically care for the petty offenders, leaving us free for larger operations.

Not Openly Antagonistic.

"The press of the state is not openly antagonistic to the full enforcement of the prohibition laws. It would seem that a fairer attitude toward national prohibition is assumed by those papers heretofore unfriendly.

"The efficient work of my agents continues. Ten stills were taken during the month; 335 gallons of moonshine whiskey; 3,600 gallons of mash; and three automobiles seized.

Destroy All Liquor.

"We are now, under order of Judge Woodrugh, destroying all seized liquor and evidence as soon as same is no longer needed as evidence. We can now report no liquor on hand, except that held for evidence in pending cases.

"In general, the outlook in Nebraska is optimistic. The police department in Omaha is more active in prohibition enforcement than formerly. A number of new sheriffs over the state are putting 'vim' into their law enforcement program and the state force under former Federal Agent Carroll is working in hearty co-operation with this office."

Western Episcopal Finish Convocation

Special Dispatch to the Omaha Bee.
Grand Island, Neb., May 17.—The western district of the Episcopal church of Nebraska today concluded a four days' convocation in this city. Various problems pertaining to the denomination at large and especially in the district were taken up, interspersed with devotional services.

The work of the Kearney Military academy and of the St. Luke hospital at Kearney was highly commended. The question of discontinuing the academy was one of the live topics. George Dutton, Rev. Dean Tynes, John Lawler, W. S. Clapp and others spoke on the question. The decision was finally placed in the hands of the bishop and council.

The following delegates were elected to the provincial synod at Duluth, Minn., September 30 to October 3: Rev. Dean Tynes, Archdeacon Wells, Dean Jones, R. R. Horth, W. S. Clapp, John Lawler. Alternates: Rev. Henry Ives, Rev. S. Hardman, Rev. J. J. Crawford, Oakley Otten, George Dutton and Dr. Hatfield.

A Queer World

Talented Sculptor Declares California School of Fine Arts Faculty "Ought to Be Selling Bananas"—Loses Job.

A Fiery Clash.
San Francisco, May 17.—Benvenuto Bufano, talented sculptor, was summarily dismissed from the teaching staff of the California School of Fine Arts yesterday after what is described as a fiery interview with Lee Randolph, director of the school.

In art circles today the difference between Bufano and the art school faculty were said to have resulted from a clash between the new and old schools of sculpture.

Bufano, whose modern ideas of art attracted attention in the New York art colony when he resided there, said Mr. Randolph and his faculty "ought to be out selling bananas, not teaching art."

WHAT Does Air-Bag Curing Do to a Tire?

Firestone Gum-Dipped Cords are cured under internal expansion on air-bags. Each cord is held straight and taut during vulcanization, giving perfect alignment, preventing creasing and avoiding the possibility of the cord fabric buckling.

Air-bag curing is a costlier process, but it adds carcass-strength and wear to the tire that increases mileage and cuts user costs.

The uniform dependability and wear of Firestone Cords, their nation-wide popularity among the more discriminating car owners, their never-waning reputation for Most Miles per Dollar—are significant facts for the tire-buyer who is still dissatisfied with the tire-service he gets.

Structural improvements, such as air-bag curing and double gum-dipping, have won thousands of new Firestone users, just as they have added thousands of miles to Firestone Cord service.

Firestone sales in six months have increased 194% over the same period one year ago!

To get your money's worth in tire service—go to your Firestone Dealer and ask for Gum-Dipped Cords and the improved Steam-Welded Tubes. This is the combination that gives
