

Continental Club Out to Win Field Festival

The Continental club at its regular luncheon yesterday at Hotel Fontenelle announced that it will be seen and heard at the fourth annual field festival barbecue to be given this afternoon at Elmwood park under the auspices of the good fellowship committee of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce.

Robert Sheehan, Omaha's entertainment producer, will assist the club in putting over its prize-winning stunt. The entertainment feature of the luncheon was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Thiem and daughter Gertrude, who played cello, piano and violin, respectively.

Dr. George E. Neuhaus, neurologist, and A. F. Emery, head of the city sales department of the Burroughs Adding Machine company, have been received as members of the club.

Bishop E. V. Shaylor of this Episcopal diocese will address the club next Friday noon.

Italian War Veterans Will Parade Sunday

Italian veterans of former wars will march from Turner hall, Thirteenth and Dorcas streets, to the Auditorium, by way of Farnam street, at 2 Sunday afternoon.

The parade is under the auspices of the Association of Italian War Veterans and will be in charge of Marshal De Biasi.

toforo, president of the association, will deliver the address.

A permit has been obtained to hold an all-night dance in Turner hall.

Mr. E. W. Truman, former prominent Omaha business man, died today in California, according to word received in Lincoln. For a number of years Mr. Truman lived in Lincoln. Mr. Truman married Miss Mae McNamara for years a secretary in the Brandeis business office.
