

Labor Urges Signing of N. Y. Dry Repeal

Gompers Writes Governor No Single Act Could Be So Potential in Scrapping of Volstead Act.

By International News Service.
Albany, N. Y., May 31.—Before a large crowd of representative men and women from all parts of the state that completely filled New York's assembly chamber, Governor Alfred E. Smith called to order the hearing on the Culliver bill to repeal the Millan-Gage prohibition enforcement act this afternoon.

of the American Federation of Labor, urged Governor Smith to sign the Millan-Gage repeal bill, withdrawing the state of New York from support of federal authorities in enforcing the Volstead law.

against the Volstead law. He cited the fact that two conventions of the American Federation of Labor have almost unanimously voted in favor of its repeal.

Westerfield Defends N. Y. Stock Exchange

Jason Westerfield, director of publicity of the New York Stock exchange, speaking to members of the Concord club yesterday, stated that he believes business will profit by the experience of 1920.

"Nothing could be further from the fact than the popular conception of the stock exchange as the private preserve of a privileged class of speculators. On the contrary, it is the people's market and their innumerable purchases determine its course. The successful speculator is the one who correctly anticipates the market's trend; they do not make it."
