Favorites Continue to Lag During Featureless Events on Thursday's Racing Program

Muddy Track Keeps Close Events Down

Class of the Day Performs in Third Race Which is Won by Dainty Lady.

By CARROLL R. MULLEN. HAT rich variety of Nebraska mud proved to be the only feature of the race program at Ak-Sar-Ben track yesterday. Each day this week that Cornhusker turf received an additional saturation with rain and nothing but muddy gumbo greeted the starters in the six events on Thursday's program.

There hardly can be said to be a feature race on the list, although several of the events might have been better contested had the track been in a faster condition. The class of the afternoon's offerings were massed together in the third race, a dash of six furlongs, which went to Dainty Favorites Again Behind.

The condition of the track again prevented favorites taking their supposedly proper place beneath the wire, and as a result the office boys had a fairly good afternoon playing some of their long shots, but had to be content with smaller odds than on other days, because many a former diplomatic $2 note coursed about the pard in a manner of variety looking for the proverbial big money. The best return of the day went to the backers of Day of Wrath in the first event, when they received $15.20 on ond race Tempy Duncan, one of the playmates in Mrs. C. B. Irwin's stable, proved a surprise to all who had bet on Bess Welch and won the event, paying $13.29 on straight $2

The crowd, seeing that the favorites were off their form in the mud, then played ring around the rosy Denies Sioux City trying to pick some horse to win, regardless of past performances, and the result was that the rest of the outside winners paid lower prices on mutuel tickets than was expected. Two Favorites Win.

But two favorites were winners of first honors during the afternoon. In president, Western league, said today the wire with four lengths to spare to transfer the Sioux City franchise ahead of Double Eye, third choice in to Kansas City, Kan. "It is absolutethe betting. In the sixth and final ly impossible for the Western league race of the afternoon, Kirstie's Cub, to enter Kansas City, Kan., without another heavy-backed entry, raced in the consent of George Muehlebach of leading a parade of eight starters.

Day of Wrath was out paced to the stretch where he came with a great rush and catching the leaders faltering got up to win in the last stride. Dr. Mack showed the most speed in the going, but hung right at the end which cost him the race. Mabel Rule loomed up menacingly midway in the stretch then tired. Koribly showed good speed and was evidently in need of this race. Daisy N. quit early.

Tempy Duncan raced head and head with Mary Fitzhugh for a half and disposing of her forged into the lead and won only because best ridden. Bess Welch finished on the rail and was given a timid ride from the head of the stretch on. Reciprocity closed an immense gap. Bessie Mack II had speed then tired. Mary Fitzhugh set the early pace then stopped to a walk.

Trainer F. Borland. Overweight Anita 3.

White Haven was saved until rounding the last turn where she raced into a lengthy lead to win with speed in reserve. Plurality raced gamely throughout, but was always held safe by the winner. Anita K. displayed the most early speed, but was exhausted after racing three-quarters. Mistake stopped.

4110-FIFTH RACE-One mile and 1-16th. Purse $500. Net value to winner, $400; second, $70; third, $30. Three-year-olds and up:

Christie Holters was rated back of the leader until after entering the stretch where she went to the front with a rush to win as her rider pleased. Double Eye had the speed but was no match for the winner when challenged. Paul Connolly raced close up briefly then floundered about badly. Sol Gilsey was always a distant follower.

4111-SIXTH RACE-Five and one-half furlongs. Purse $500. Net value to winner, $400; second, $70; third, $30. Three-year-olds and up: At post four minutes; off 5:06; time :25 2-5, :51, 1:12. $2 mutuels paid $5 to win, $3.80 place, $3 show; Leader $5.80 place, $4.40 show; Innovation $3.80 show. Start good all but Fern Leaf. Wen easily, second and third driving. Winner b. h., 8, by Bearcatcher-Kirstie. Trainer F. Borland. Overweight Innovation 4. Scratch Nellie Witwer.

Kirsties rub was outrun first part, moved up gradually and assuming the lead a furlong out was easily the best in the concluding drive. Our Leader broke fast and set the pace but readily gave way to the winner and had to be hard ridden to save second place. Innovation finished courageously and would have been second in another stride. Bon Box ran fairly well. Rafferty could not seem to untrack himself. Fernleaf was as good as left.
