

Man Claims Part in Denver Mint "Job"

Denver, Colo., June 8.—McCook (Neb.) police today telegraphed H. R. Williams, chief of police of Denver that a man giving the name of Harry Lyman and who says he is one of the bandits who participated in the hold-up of the Federal Reserve bank truck in front of the Denver mint in December, is held in McCook. Chief Williams immediately telegraphed for a full description of the man. Local police officers could not connect the name of Lyman with the Denver robbery. They said, according to the message to Chief Williams, the man told McCook police that he was willing to reveal the names of members of the robber band if granted immunity.
