

Beatrice Fairfax
Problems That Perplex

Objecting Families.
Dear Miss Fairfax: I am a professional woman and a few months ago met a young man, a Greek, though educated in France and a citizen of the United States for 12 years. He has been very attentive to me, and we have become very fond of each other. He is in business with his brother, who objects to his marrying an American girl. I have no parents, but my relations feel he is beneath me. I have supported myself through college and since graduating, so feel I am under obligations to no one. I feel that as long as this man has a substantial personal bank account, a good paying business and able to support me and that as long as we love each other that is all that is necessary. My relatives feel that I should marry a professional man, or a wealthy man older than myself and ignore this man. That it is wrong for me to give up my career and marry a business man on my own age and not my own nationality. J. W.

A woman of your age and experience ought to be able to judge for herself just how real and deep her love is. If you and this man care enough for each other to bridge certain normal differences in upbringing, environment and racial ideals, who is there to say you nay? The fact that you are both 34 does not count for or against your happiness, except in that it indicates that you are both mature, have tested yourselves and life and know what you want of it. Since neither of you is dependent on family, nor have strong ties and obligations, you do not owe it to your people to please them and they have no right to be actively displeased since your mating sounds sane and well considered.

Speed the Process.

HELP FOR EXPECTANT MOTHERS
Many Cases Reported of Women Being Kept in a Normal, Healthy Condition by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mothers transmit to their children the blessings of a healthy constitution. How important, therefore, for the child, as well as for the mother, that she should carefully guard her health during the trying pre-natal period. Preparation for a healthy maternity is accomplished by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as evidenced by the following letters:
Trenton, N. J. - "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before childbirth on the advice of my mother for nervousness and weakness. I was irritable, cranky and easily worried. Housework seemed so hard, and at times I was really unfit to do it. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound overcame this condition, my nervousness disappeared and I felt like a different person entirely, and I hope this letter will lead other women who are in this condition to try it." - Mrs. L. BOCKOVER, 188 Kirkbride Ave., Trenton, N. J.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free upon request. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

ARE YOU A SUFFERING WOMAN?
Lincoln, Neb. - "At one time I became very miserable with weakness from which women suffer. I suffered all the time. One of my neighbors urged me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription because it had cured her of similar symptoms, so I decided to try it. The first bottle made me feel so much better. I took four more, and feel certain that in that one experience 'Favorite Prescription' saved me from the operating table and the surgeon's knife. Two years afterwards when the turn of life commenced, I took the 'Prescription' again with the result that I came through strong and healthy and am still maintaining wonderful health." - Mrs. Martha Strayer, 218 South Nineteenth Street.
