

2 Business Men Held for Robbing Denver Heiress

Los Angeles Pair Attack Escort of Young Woman, Then Take Her Jewelry.

By International News Service.
Los Angeles, Cal., June 12.—With two young business men under arrest charged with beating Miss Thelma Rodner, 19, Denver heiress, and robbing her of $3,000 in jewelry and $25 in cash, after beating her companion, Roy Page, also from Denver, Deputy sheriffs today searched for the young woman's jewelry.

The two men under arrest are Raymond Remington and Donald Hadley who, according to information in the hands of the sheriff's office, with two girl companions, lured Miss Rodner and Page to a lonely spot in Beverly Hills known as Magnet Hill and there beat Page into unconsciousness and also beat Miss Rodner when she went to Page's assistance. Miss Rodner told the officers that she and Page met Remington and Hadley and two girl friends in a downtown cafe and after making friends with one suggested that they go for an automobile ride. The party of six then proceeded to Magnet Hill where Remington and Hadley drew Page to one side and started mistreating him. Seeing her escort being worsted in the one-sided battle, Miss Rodner said she went to Page's assistance and was beaten into unconsciousness.

The men returned the heiress to her hotel, but left Page alone in the hills. When Miss Rodner regained consciousness at her hotel after the attack she missed her jewelry, she said.

The flight and alleged robbery took place Monday night a week ago. Miss Rodner, it was learned, is the daughter of the general manager of the Mountain States Telegraph and Telephone company.

McKelvie Finds Conditions Good

Former Governor Says State One Veritable Garden—Rains No Hindrance.

Information regarding crops and business conditions in this state is contained in a statement prepared by former Gov. Samuel R. McKelvie, publisher of The Nebraska Farmer, Lincoln.

"In some places there has been too much rain for immediate needs, but no serious damage has been done to crops," Mr. McKelvie says. "The effect of this plentiful supply of moisture has been almost electrical and has turned thousands of acres of wheat from a prospective loss to the promise of a very satisfactory crop. From one end of Nebraska to the other the state is a veritable garden."

"In spite of the late rains and the very satisfactory outcome of the wheat crop, I do not anticipate now that the total yield for the state will be over 40,000,000 bushels. This would be about 25 per cent short of a normal yield."

Mr. McKelvie predicts that this year's average of corn will be about 18 per cent above normal. In concluding, the former governor says: "No one can tell what the future holds, but, taking conditions as they are today in this state, the outlook for the farmer and business generally is very favorable. To manufacturers who are in a position to cultivate this field, we make this suggestion: Agriculture is the basic industry of the nation, and the farmer affords the largest market in the world. These facts undoubtedly warrant cultivating the farm field year in and year out, without undue regard to temporary conditions."

Penniless Man Hurls Self to Death in Clear Lake, Ia.

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee.
Clear Lake, Ia., June 12.—Without money or "dope," George (Shorty) Latimer rowed out to the middle of Clear Lake Monday and dropped to his death in the water.

His body was found by Sheriff Fred Marsh of Mason City. Although the drowning occurred in front of the Outing club, where dozens of vacationers are living, it was not seen and it was not until the victim's hat was seen floating near the unmanned boat that search was started.

Latimer figured in the recent trial of J. H. Wilson, charged with murdering his wife, whom he accused of intimacy with Latimer. Wilson was acquitted.

Gibbon Hardware Store Robbed of $300 in Goods

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee.
Gibbon, Neb., June 12.—The hardware store of S. A. Walker was broken into through a back window and $300 worth of guns, cutlery, revolvers and silverware stolen. The thieves then stole E. Debrle's car. When it broke down they tried to escape in Clyde Leonard's auto, but they had trouble with it and fled, leaving a glove and a gun in the car. Another garage was entered, but no car stolen.

2,000 Delegates Register for Sunday School Meet

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee.
Keosauqua, Neb., June 12.—Nearly 2,000 delegates had been registered up to noon today for the state Sunday school convention, being held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

It is believed that the total registration will exceed 3,000, despite discouraging conditions of the highways. The first general session of the assembly was held Tuesday evening.

Kansas Governor May Call Solons to End Industrial Court

Topeka, Kan., June 12.—Gov. Jonathan M. Davis, in conference with newspaper men today, authorized the statement that he is seriously considering the calling of a special session of the legislature to abolish the Kansas court of industrial relations. The governor said his recommendation, if the special session is called, would not be for the absolute abandonment of the court idea, but that he feels more than $100,000 can be saved to the state during the present biennium by abolishing the tribunal as it now exists and which he declares is "doing nothing."

The Gaekwar of Baroda, one of the richest rulers in India, is said to have a wealth of $125,000,000, including three diamonds valued at $1,250,000.

Shopping at Brandeis'

In a gathering of Omaha women "Shopping" was the topic of discussion. There were silver threads among the golden strands of the beautiful hair of one who said: "I enjoy shopping at Brandeis for several seasons. When I go through that big store, I always feel proud that Omaha is able to support such a large institution. Then I am pleased with the convenient arrangement of goods. The habitual courtesy shown to shoppers is gratifying and the willingness of salespeople to give patient and expert advice to a perplexed customer is very helpful. Above all I am glad for the rule-established and inflexible—'Satisfy the Customer'. I know that that is not an idle boast on the part of the management. On many occasions I have had the opportunity of testing the sincerity of that rule and I know it to be genuine."

This report of an actual occurrence is very acceptable to The Brandeis Store management. We feel that its reproduction is not immodest, for it is more than a tribute to the management—it is a deserved acknowledgment of the real service ever rendered by the faithful rank and file of The Brandeis Store family.
