

Prisoner Sets Fire to Cellmate in Jail

Acting Jailer Rogers, sitting in his office Friday afternoon, smelled smoke. He leaped into action. Following the odor, he found John Doe lying on the floor of his cell in a stupor, his shirt on fire.

Asleep in the same cell was J. H. Kaiser, charged with intoxication, sound asleep. The first man when arrested was too drunk to give his name. When he was placed in the same cell with Kaiser the latter playfully set fire to him and fell asleep. Rogers threw a bucket of water over the prostrate man and placed Kaiser in another cell.

School Head Says Police Lax in Effort to Find Body

Mrs. Margaret Hamilton, principal of Central Park school, attended by Harry Malmquist, 16, who was drowned in the Missouri river north of Florence, yesterday, held an indignation session in the office of Acting Chief of Police Dillon yesterday. She charged that police were making no effort to recover the boy's body, and declared that the searchers were "afraid of getting their feet muddy."

Woman Pacifist, Enroute to Coast, Guest in Omaha

Mrs. R. B. Morgan of Washington, D. C. secretary of the National Council for Prevention of Wars, is the weekend guest of Mrs. W. A. Willard, en route to San Francisco where she will speak at the National Education association world conference, the national convention of Business and Professional Women in Portland and the Association of University Women, also in Portland.

Holland Now Included in Telegraph Cable Service

The Omaha office of the Western Union has been advised that the transatlantic cable and the weekend letter services have been extended to include Holland. Heretofore cables for Holland have been sent by cable to London and then mailed to Holland.

U. S. Would Have Army of 2,265,000 on Tax Basis

"If we had a standing army in proportion to our taxes in comparison with Japan, we would have 2,265,000 soldiers," declared Maj. Gen. George B. Duncan in an address before the Kiwanis club yesterday at Hotel Rome.

General Duncan, commander of the Seventh Corps area, told the Kiwanians that only 7.5 per cent of the total tax revenue of the country is spent on the army. France spends 18.66 per cent.

Mayor Endorses Tag Day for Veterans' Memorial

Mayor Dahlman yesterday issued a short proclamation endorsing the tag day of the American War Mothers to be held today to raise funds to erect a soldiers' memorial on the court house lawn. He also requested that flags be displayed in observance of the event.
