Platte County Farmer Killed by Lightning

Special Dispatch to the Omaha Bee, Columbus, Neb., June 15.—Frank Greisen, 40, farmer living near Platte Center, was instantly killed yesterday morning when struck by lightning while he was digging a ditch to drain his garden. The severity of the storm frightened Mrs. Greisen, who received no response when she called her husband. With a neighbor she went to the garden where Greisen's body was found. Dr. A. A. Bald, county physician, pronounced death due to lightning. Philip Greisen, a younger brother, was mysteriously slain five years ago while he was motoring from Platte Center to Columbus to visit an uncle who was ill. Frank Greisen was born in Platte county. Besides his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Mausbach Greisen, he is survived by his parents and three small children.

Electric Lines Planned.

Special Dispatch to the Omaha Bee, Plainview, Neb., June 14.—The project of establishing new transmission lines from Plainview to Breslau and the farming districts lying east and south of here is being planned. T. R. Whiting of the Electric Development company of Omaha has been in Plainview for over a week working with Light Commissioner O. N. Michener and the undertaking is practically assured.

A little gasoline in the water when scrubbing floors will quickly eradicate grease spots.

Bryan to O. K. All State House News

No More Information to Be Given Out Without Governor's Approval.

Special Dispatch to the Omaha Bee, Lincoln, June 15.—Governor Bryan announced today that he would accept no more alibis from appointees who had given out information to the press before he had time to scrutinize it and place his official O. K. on such information. "Hereafter, resignations and alibis will reach my desk at the same time," he said.

The governor stated that in the last week, newspapers had printed two stories given out by appointees before the substance of the matter had received his approval. One was a list of expenditures of the state capitol commission prepared in the office of Roy Cochrane, state engineer. The other was an outline of Cochrane's plan to reorganize the state road department and containing suggestions on appointees. The governor asserted that Cochrane himself had not given out this information, but that certain persons in his office had, and that he would have no more of it.

He was asked if his decision pertained to routine news such as bank failures and stock reports. "It would be my suggestion if there is any doubt as to what news to give

Power Plant Employee Alleges Attack on Wife

Special Dispatch to the Omaha Bee, Beatrice, Neb., June 15.—William Ewing, employee of the Beatrice Power company plant near Barneston, swore out a complaint in county court against William Day, his wife, Sarah, and two sons, Silas and Ray, charging that they assaulted Mrs. Ewing as she was driving along a highway near the power plant. Ewing also swore out a peace warrant against Day and his family to prevent further attacks. Restraining order recently was issued to prevent the Days from interfering with employees of the Power company. Sheriff Sailing has gone to

Two Youths of Wymore Charged With Horse Stealing

Beatrice, Neb., June 15.—Two Wymore youths, Lloyd Wagner and John Luburger, who are charged with theft of a horse and buggy belonging to Robert Rice of Blue Springs, were arrested at the farm of James Pisar,
