h Sentence Postponed
for Utah Double Murder
Lake City June 17—Considers.

tion of the case of George Gardner, an executive reprieve, was postponed the day before he was to have been of his mind was one for a jury to killed prior to fatally shooting his former business partner on April 15.

Mabey that the convicted man was Gardner was convicted for the slay-Death Sentence Postponed Salt Lake City, June 17 .- Considerathe Utah penitentiary last month by Alienists, who examined Gardner on not insone but that the condition ing of a deputy sheriff, whom he Bee Want Ads Produce Results.

Drawn for The Omaha Bee by Sol Hess

BARNEY GOOGLE---

Barney's Still Looking for a Secretary.

Drawn for The Omaha Bee by Billy DeBeck

THERE YOU

EVERBODY

ARE . ME BOY

SEEMS TO BE

IN CELLARS

DAYS.

TO PUT AN AD IN THE PAPER FOR A SECRETARY

BRINGING UP FATHER --- U. S. Patent Office

HELP!

SEE JIGGS AND MAGGIE IN FULL PAGE OF COLORS IN THE SUNDAY BEE

Drawn for The Omaha Bee by McManus

JERRY ON THE JOB .-

NO OVERTIME FOR THIS.

I FELL IN BY

ACCIDENT . I

WAS LOOKING

UP IN THE AIR .

Drawn for The Omaha Bee by Hoban

By Briggs ABIE THE AGENT--

Some doctors are that way

Burgess Bedtime Stories

Beatrice Fairfax

Problems That Perplex

Fascinated by Another.

By THORNTON W. BURGESS.

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am going about with a girl and we love each other dearly. A few weeks ago she met a man at a party, which I did not attend, and made an appointment There's nothing finer than the pride A mother vainly seeks to hide. —Peter Rabbit. Peter Rabbit Meets a Proud Mother. Peter Rabbit was over in the Green Now, Miss Fairfax, she tells me now Forest. He was there just out of she is deeply infatuated with him (but curiosity. He knew he should be at she loves me) and she told me she is deeply infatuated with him told me she is she loves me) and she told me she is deeply infatuated with him a few times But there was so much to see and so much going to go out with him a lew times so much going on in the Green Forest want you to help me solve this profit that Peter felt that he just had to stay; he was afraid he would miss other man a few times and she finds out that she still loves me, shall I so head to this girl I have?

omething.

So it happened that as he hopped go back to this girl I love?

T. A. N. rather aimlessly down the Lone Little Path he heard a sharp cluck just around a turn in the Lone Little Path. Peter pricked up his long ears and began to hop faster. He knew that voice. It was the voice of an man who fascinates her, but who probthat voice. It was the voice of an old friend he had not seen for a long time. It was so long since he had seen that friend that he had begun to wonder if anything could have happened to her.

Around the turn in the Lone Little Path scampered Peter, and stopped abruptly. Just ahead of him in the Lone Little Path stood a very trim "express their own personality."

Lone Little Path stood a very trim "express their own personality."

little person in feather. Her head If she cares for the other man you was held high and a pair of bright eyes were anxiously fixed on that turn in the Lone Little Path. Very alert she looked. She was alert. She alert she looked. She was alert. She come back to you with new vision and firmer devotion than ever. rings in an instant if need be, "Good morning, Mrs. Grouse," One in Need: The mother of two ried Peter happily. "I'm so glad to small boys, whose husband does not have steady work, has written asking

Mrs. Grouse relaxed, and the anx. for clothes which she could make over lous look left her bright eyes. "So for herself, or shoes or slippers, about it's you, Peter Rabbit!" exclaimed it's you, Peter Rabbit!" exclaimed it. She sends us the name of a bank

Mrs Grouse, and it was clear that she was very much relieved.

"Yes, it is me," replied Peter.

"Who did you think it was?"

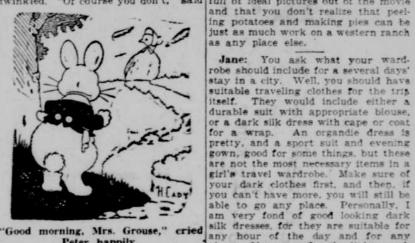

"I had no idea who it was," replied Mrs. Grouse. "I heard you before you came around that bend. I one who is sincerely interested. She was you and not Reddy will pay express charges on a packam glad it was you and not Reddy will pay express charges on a pack-Fox or Old Man Coyote or some one age. else to be afraid of. Not that I Will o' the Wisp: There are many would worry about myself. No indeed! But when one has a family to ter. You say you are 19 and then you think of there is no end to the worzelf. You say you are 19 and then you go on to assure me you want to be as a mother to some dear good worry."

Peter looked puzzled. He scratched want to work in somebody's kitchen

Peter looked puzzled. He scratched a long ear with a long hind foot. He stared all around, this way, that way and the other way. "I don't see that you have any family to worry about." said he rather testily.

The bright eyes of Mrs. Grouse twinkled. "Of course you don't," said full of ideal pictures out of the movie and that you don't realize that peel-and that you don't realize that peel-

"Good morning, Mrs. Grouse," cried any hour of the day and for any place. If you prefer the lighter colors, why not have a pretty tan outfit. A suit of soft tan silk with becoming blouse, tan hat and shoes, makes a most attractive outfit. Such a suit

Mrs. Grouse gave a low cluck, and still look dressy it once, as if by magic, a dozen of the cutest, prettiest babies in all the A CRY IN THE NIGHT, griping Green Forest appeared and came run- pains in the vitals, cramps, ning to their mother. It seemed as weakening diarrhoea - whether child or if they sprang right out of the ground adult, immediate comfort and ease in Peter was so astonished that he just tared in the most foolish way. One COLIC and DIARRHOEA istant there hadn't been a sign of them, and the next instant there they were all about him.

Mrs. Grouse clucked to them soft Such a proud mother as she was! And she had reason to be. Peter didn't wonder a bit that she was proud. Those twelve lively bables looked for all the world like fluffy, little brown chickens from Farmer Brown's barn yard, only they were very much smaller than any chickens to be seen there. And such lively little scamps as they were! No, sir. it was no wonder that Mrs. Grouse was proud.

The next story: "A Lesson

(Copyright, 1923.)

Almost anyone can be a gardner in the early springtime, but there are only a few who love their gardens enough to watch over them all summer long.

ing potatoes and making pies can be

Jane: You ask what your ward-robe should include for a several days'

itself. They would include either a durable suit with appropriate blouse, or a dark slik dress with cape or coat girl's travel wardrobe. Make sure of your dark clothes first, and then, if you can't have more, you will still be

CHAMBERLAIN'S

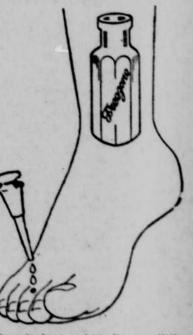

Pays to keep always on hand

Luncura Soap

for the Hand

as any place else.

Lift Off with Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone" on an aching corn, intantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with finers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of 'Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the caluses, without soreness or irritation.