

Horror of Worms Halted Burial

Children Testify in Suit to Determine Place of Interment of Mother.

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Columbus, Neb., June 21.—Horror of being buried in the ground, where worms were, testified Miss Jessie Kinnan of Columbus in Platte county district court, made her mother, Mrs. M. J. Kinnan request that she not be buried. This wish, the daughter said, was often expressed by her mother prior to her death at Goodland, Kan., Oct. 31, 1921.

Miss Kinnan told the court that she, as well as two of her sisters, Miss Dottie Kinnan and Mrs. August Grover, both of Columbus, had promised the mother that her wishes would be respected. The sisters erected a costly mausoleum in the Columbus cemetery, planning to move the mother's body here from a vault in Forest Lawn cemetery in Omaha, where it is at present.

The other three of the Kinnan children, Herbert, Joseph and Mrs. Harry Ellsworth of Polk county, allege that on two occasions, when their mother accompanied them to their father's grave in the Osceola cemetery, that the woman said she wanted to be buried there. They said that not until the funeral did they learn of their sister's intentions to keep the body in the Omaha vault until the mausoleum could be finished.

The woman's death occurred at Goodland, while the family was on an automobile trip to California.

Reference has also been made several times during the hearing to the fact that Jessie and Dottie Kinnan have filed a $14,000 claim against their mother's estate for the services they gave in taking care of her during the last years of her life.

Day and One Son Are Fined and Put Under Peace Bond

Beatrice, Neb., June 21.—In the case of the state against William Day, his wife, Sarah, and sons, Clis and Ray, of the Barneston vicinity, who were charged with assaulting Mrs. William Ewing, wife of an employee of the power plant located on Day's farm, was tried in County Judge Messmore's court. William was fined $25 and costs; his son, $10 and costs. The action against Mrs. Day and son, Ray, was dismissed.

William Ewing was found guilty of assaulting Clis Day on June 5, and he was fined $20 and costs. All of the defendants were put under bond of $500 each to keep the peace.

Kearney Man Head of Foreign War Vets

Omaha Chosen by Convention as Encampment City Next Year.

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Kearney, Neb., June 21.—W. J. Adkinson of Kearney was elected state department commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in convention here today. Other officers elected are: O. D. Bolster, Lincoln, senior vice commander; B. H. Eddy, Fremont, junior vice commander; O. E. Weber, M. D., Wahoo, quartermaster; Rev. Frank Major, Kearney, chaplain; Judge J. M. Turbyfill, Hastings, judge advocate; H. A. Hoenic, Omaha, council administration; Dr. M. F. Deffenbough, Fairmont, department surgeon.

Omaha was selected as the 1924 encampment city, the date of the gathering remaining to be fixed.

If any of the visiting delegates anticipated stormy sessions, during discussion of the bonus bill, relationship with the American Legion and activities of the veterans' bureau, they were disappointed. No insurgent movement of any nature developed, the gathering being as harmonious as the state Sunday school convention held last week.

Man, 90, Found Dead in Chair

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Wymore, Neb., June 21.—Joe Merrill, 90, eccentric bachelor and civil war veteran, residing on a 15-acre timbered tract near the Union Pacific tracks, two miles northeast of here, for the past 45 years, was found by neighbors dead in his home Thursday afternoon.

The body was full clothed and sitting upright in a chair. According to physicians Merrill had been dead about four days. He was last seen alive Sunday. Death is supposed to have resulted from natural causes. He is thought to have had money, as for years he has drawn a pension of $72 per month and spent little, living as a recluse. His only known relatives are two brothers, Robert, in Maine, and Albert, in New York. It is said he never married because his brother Albert won his sweetheart in the east 55 years ago, after which Merrill came west and has never seen his brothers since.

Burial arrangements are pending word from the estranged brothers.

Legion Asks Hospital Promise Be Fulfilled

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Lincoln, June 21.—The state executive committee of the American Legion passed resolutions directed to the United States veterans bureau calling upon that body to make good its promise at the earliest possible date, to equip a 500-bed tuberculosis hospital in the ninth district.

The resolution makes no suggestion as to the site of the hospital. The legislature last winter passed a bill making it possible to turn the state soldiers' and sailors' home at Grand Island over to the government for a hospital of that description.

The committee also passed a resolution directing Frank B. O'Connell to investigate the need and cost of an official American Legion newspaper in Nebraska.
