

Grand Island "Hercules"
Loses His Leg in Accident

Grand Island, Neb., June 22.—Ruth M. Gunn, laborer for a local paving contractor, perhaps will never repeat some of his herculean performances. As a result of the flying off from its shaft of a starting crank on a cement mixing machine, and subsequent burns from asphalt, the amputation of Gunn's left leg half way below the knee became necessary. When the cement supply occasioned each hand and one in his teeth, a total of 500 pounds. He stated he expects to return to his former occupation of range riding. He is an ex-service man who enlisted from St. Joseph.
