

Bryan Won't Call Extra Session of Legislature

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee, Lincoln, June 22. — Governor Bryan stated positively today that he would not call any extra session of the legislature in an effort to get larger appropriations than those voted at the regular session. The governor intimated he wanted more money. "However, the republican legislature probably would do worse with me at the extra session than they did at the regular, so I will not call one," he said.
