

Kappa Sigma Pi to Meet Cincinnati, June 23.—Wyandotte cave, in Indiana, is the novel place chosen for the annual meeting of the Kappa Sigma Pi. The national council and camp will be held here August 29 to 31, the delegates, composed of church leaders and boys and girls of high school age from all sections of the country, meeting in the chambers of the cave for their legislative sessions, their initiations and the sessions of the various committees.

The Kappa Sigma Pi has chapters in various Protestant churches in 40 states and in seven foreign lands.

The Wyandotte cave is 35 miles west of New Albany, Ind., on the Blue river, and has 23 miles of cavern. It is said to possess the highest underground mountain and the largest stalagmite in the world.

This Was the Order From the General Manager:

"To Every Department Manager: To fittingly observe the final week of our 36th Anniversary Sale, prices must be unmercifully cut.

"Every floor of the eight in this huge store must be gone over. No department is to be spared. All must contribute to make this a never-to-be-forgotten event."

And so prices are slashed as never before—all for your saving—and only a hint of the hundreds of values can be pictured here.
