Amateur Star Plays Two Years Without Making an Error

Frank Russell

Frank (Moak) Russell, center fielder for the Paxton Billiard team in the American league, has played two seasons of amateur baseball in Omaha without making an error. Last year he was with the Knights of Columbus, in the American league, and in the American league, he batted .611. He accepted 61 chances in the outfield without a bobble. He played first base for three games, getting two assists and recording 27 putouts, all without an error being charged up against him. This year he has played in seven games, with an average of three chances each contest and he is yet to drop the horseshoe. He is hitting well over the .300 clip, with Manager Deuce Belford's league leaders. He is not what you would call a hard hitter, but the speed which he employs in going to first base is uncanny. He grips his bat long and swings a nice follow through and is off for first like a flash when he clouts the apple.

League Leaders Hold Places in Saturday Games

Hanscom Wildcats Surprised With a Trouncing by Parkvales.

By JUDD CROCKEN.

NOTHER lap of the Saturday afternoon amateur title race was rounded off yesterday with the league leaders still keeping their clean slates with but one exception. The Hanscom Wildcats were felled for the first time unexpectedly in the Southern Sunday school loop. The results of the remaining contests were as expected with several large scores being recorded in what were looked upon as promising close clashes. The Wheelers and the M. E. Wops spent full time at Riverview before the single game was called because of a single injury in seven frames of a clever exhibition.

Witnesses Examined in Coast League Case

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 23.—Taking of depositions was practically completed today in behalf of the defense in the suit of Charles L. Lockard against William H. McCarthy, president of the Pacific Coast league, to compel McCarthy to recognize Lockard as a league director representing the Seattle club. Two witnesses were examined in an effort to substantiate McCarthy's contention that Lockard is not entitled to recognition because William Wright, Jr., part owner of the Los Angeles club, was financially interested in the Seattle club. James O. Moore, vice president of a Los Angeles bank from which Lockard and Wade Killefer borrowed $125,000 to buy control in the Seattle organization, said the money was loaned on a note endorsed by Wright, for which a note was substituted later, endorsed by Robert Killefer, cousin of Wade, and W. D. Hubbard. He said he was satisfied of the financial responsibility of the latter two.
