

Dry Chief Raked Over Attitude on Rum Disclosures

Haynes Accused of Purveying Public Information for His Own Gain in Book.

By GEORGE F. AUTHIER. Washington Correspondent The Omaha Bee. Washington, June 28.—Prohibition Commissioner Roy A. Haynes has added zest to the summer slumber which has overtaken Washington with the joint absence of the president and congress. It is all because Commissioner Haynes has written a book, "Joining the Literary Chorus," which is not in itself remarkable in these days of best sellers and of over zealous censors, but in the manner of the book and its method of distribution that has caused trouble.

Mr. Haynes has written a book which undertakes to give sensational disclosures concerning his office, information which he has obtained officially but which he has not disclosed to the public. This information he proposes to sell to the public and for his own profit.

When the information was first given out that Mr. Haynes proposed to scoop the newspapers and make the public pay for the information to which it might be regarded as entitled through the medium of newspaper publication, it was believed the president would not approve the course.

Harding Writes Foreword. To the consternation of everyone, it was learned the president had written a foreword, thereby giving it even more than approval. It is intimated, however, that the president may not have known that Mr. Haynes was taking a flyer in finance on his own account when he wrote the introduction.

At any rate, the trouble reached a breaking point when certain newspapers to which the Haynes book had been offered for serial publication demanded of him details concerning certain sensational things mentioned in his prospectus.

Among them was the alleged attempt to bribe the department by the offer on the part of a brewing firm for the permission to operate openly in a certain city. Mr. Haynes responded he was helpless as the matter was in the hands of his publishers.

The same demand was made upon Secretary of the Treasury Mellon who admitted the sensational acts had never been reported to him.

Mellon Passes Buck. Mr. Mellon was just leaving for Europe so he turned the matter over to a specially organized literary board consisting of Commissioner of Internal Revenue David I. Blair and Judge McKenzie Moss, assistant commissioner. These men went into conference with Mr. Haynes but without result.

It has been intimated the president might be appealed to prevent the establishment of a precedent by which literary government officials might be tempted to deny governmental facts to the public in order to pad their own private purses. Such a precedent, it is realized, would be extremely annoying to the public and would make the purveying of news an inside asset which would make office holding more attractive, perhaps, but would interfere with the theory of open covenants openly arrived at.

Ku Klux Klan Will Meet Here Sunday

Lecture on "Americanism" to Be Given at Swedish Auditorium.

An exclusive Ku Klux Klan meeting will be held in Omaha Sunday at the Swedish auditorium. This is the first meeting to be held since the local klavern disbanded two years ago. Among those who are privileged to attend are several district judges and other county officials. Admission can be made only by the presentation of the salmon colored card. It will be necessary to pass three sentries who will be armed with the proper credentials.

The invitations read: Mr. John Doe, Court House, Omaha. You are cordially invited to hear a private lecture on "Americanism" and the Ku Klux Klan at the Swedish auditorium, 2 p. m. Sunday, July 1, 1921. This invitation will admit yourself and ladies. Not transferable. Must be presented at the door.

Child Takes Poison in Imitating Her Sister

While playing in the yard of her home Thursday with her sister, Phyllis, 3, and a neighbor girl, Virginia Davis, 2, Ruth Welch, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Welch, 310 South Twenty-sixth street, accidentally took poison.

Police were called and she was rushed to Lord Lister hospital, where it was stated her condition is not critical. According to the parents, Ruth had seen her elder sister blow into the top of a bottle to make a whistling noise. Yesterday afternoon, while the three tots were playing, Ruth found a bottle containing poison. She raised the bottle to her lips, intending to imitate her sister. A quantity of the poison ran down her throat and also spilled over her face.

Ex-Head of Union Files Charge of Conspiracy

Charging four officials of the Hoisting and Portable Engineers' local union No. 571 of Omaha with conspiracy to keep him out of work, Sylvanus L. Merica, 54, 5920 North Thirty-third street, filed suit for $50,000 against them and the union in district court Thursday.

The officials are Fred Newton, president; Roy F. Syster, vice president; William L. Hooten, secretary and Frank Parker, recording secretary. "The petition says that Merica, formerly president of the union, became delinquent in his dues in 1922, during an illness of his wife, and that he was refused readmission. Recently, he charges, the defendants caused his discharge from a job at the Cooke building on Howard street between Sixteenth and Seventh streets.

Omaha Women to Raise Funds for Oil Portrait of Willa Cather

Omaha women are honoring Willa Cather, distinguished Nebraska writer, who was recently awarded the Pulitzer prize for the best novel, "One of Ours," published last year, by raising a fund to purchase an oil portrait of the author to be hung in the public library. D. M. Vinsonhaier is back of the movement and has named Mrs. W. J. Hynes as chairman. Mrs. Hynes will have the co-operation of a committee consisting of 11 other women. They will confine their efforts to women, as the fund is to be in the nature of a free will offering as a tribute from Omaha women to Miss Cather.

Other members of Mrs. Hynes' committee are as follows: Mesdames Luther Drake, C. L. George, Victor Caldwell, Frank Judson, A. L. Reed, John Caldwell, J. J. McMullen, Sam Burns, A. B. Currie, Myron Learned and Miss Edith Todd.

Mr. Vinsonhaier has communicated with Miss Cather, who is at present in Paris, with reference to the portrait and she has expressed deep appreciation. Miss Cather wrote that she would immediately seek an artist, preferably an American, and the sittings would begin soon. While Mrs. Hynes and her committee are making an intensive campaign for $5 and $10 subscriptions, voluntary contributions are solicited. "It will be impossible for this committee, in a limited time, to reach all persons who may wish to contribute to this fund," declared Mrs. Hynes. We hope that any woman interested will feel that we are eager to have her contribution. It is a privilege that Omaha women are granted the opportunity to pay a tribute to a Nebraskan and a member of her own sex who has won national honors in literature.

Mrs. Hynes entertained her committee at luncheon Thursday at the Country club and outlined her Cather portrait fund plan. Mr. Vinsonhaier has arranged that contributions to the fund will be contributed at the savings departments of the First National bank, at the United States National bank and at the Matthews book shop.

This Laxative Works Fine on Old People. Thousands have kept themselves healthy with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. ADVANCING age with its subdued ambitions and strivings could be made very happy if only good health accompanied it, and the basis of good health, as everyone learns upon reaching the age of 60, is the regular daily movement of the bowels. If it can be effected through the food you eat, the water you drink and the exercise you take, so much the better. But if nature will not operate it must be assisted or sickness will follow. Neglected constipation causes the blood pressure to go up 23 per cent, and that is the forerunner of hardening of the arteries. It makes rheumatism and gout worse, too. The ideal constipation remedy for people of advancing years is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a vegetable compound of Egyptian aenna and pepsin with pleasant-tasting aromatics. It is gentle and mild, and does not cramp or gripe. It is a mistake to think you need a violent salt or powder or pill, calomel, coal-tar drugs and such things. They purge and weaken you, and their reaction tends to make you more constipated than before. Now try the milder method. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin does not lose its good effect with repeated use, and increased doses are unnecessary. Mrs. E. M. Burgess of Enfield, N. C., who is 73, keeps herself in good health with it, and Mr. Charles Chorman of Stapleton, Staten Island, N. Y., wasted fifteen years and considerable money on other remedies before finding steady relief with Syrup Pepsin. Use Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin yourself the next time you suffer from constipation, biliousness, headache, sleeplessness, indigestion, piles or night cramps. Many thousands of elderly people use nothing else, and it costs them less than a cent a dose. Druggists have sold it successfully for 30 years, and it is the most widely bought family laxative in the world. TAKE DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN The family laxative
