Prisoners Under Scopolamin Test Reveal New Facts

Six Men in Los Angeles Jail Give New Light on Crimes Under Influence of "Truth Drug."

> By Universal Service. Angeles, July 1 .- Six 'prison the Los Angeles county jail, with a different kind offense, have been subjected to scopolamin, the "truth-com-lling" drug. s a result. six new versions of ix alleged crimes, or new light on hese alleged offenses, has been cast. The tests were made by Dr. Robert E. House of Ferris, Tex., and who is originator of the use of the drug his innocence. as an adjunct to the detection of crime. The doctor's emonstration, con ducted in the hospital of the county jail, will be continued next week, it expected, when other voluntee patients among the prisoners will be 75 Stitches in Wound Made subjected to the tests.

New Angles Revealed.

Three of the six prisoners, under the influence of the scopolamin, rewealed angles bearing upon their McKinley Tapp, 2517 Caldwell street, cases hitherto entirely unknown to refused to allow the police to arrest he authorities. Mrs. Tapp. Harry J. Grahle, convicted of hav-ng received stolen property and now under sentence to state's prison, began to talk an hour after the serum had been injected into his system. "I didn't get the property," he said "But - - and - - did."

The names were entirely new in the case and they were jotted down by two deputy district attorneys. The man on the operating table ontinued: "I didn't do any of the things I'n charged with."

The second prisoner to succumb to the influence of the "truth serum" was R. C. Bost, awaiting trial on a forgery charge.

he asserted he received the check in question and endorsed it. ""Yes, but did you write anything on the front?" quizzed the doctor. "No, nothing," was the answer from the prisoner. Carl Dillard, alleged "Pasadena knife moron" was the third man experimented on. His admissions while under the in fluence, were startling. He asserted he did not know even the names of the young women he has been charged with attacking.

However, when Dr. House asked him if he used narcotics he replied: "Yes-morphine-until a year ago. Then I broke the habit."

John Stachis, awaiting trial as narcotic peddler, under the serum's influence provided the police with vital information heretofore kept from them.

The patient admitted, for the first time, he had been arrested four times previously. He denied the present charge but named a man as his "partner.'
