Frank Middaugh has challenged Thorp to a special match for the trophy and these two guns will shoot at Ak field July 15.

In the regular Sunday shoot Thorp had a high run of 62 and Joe Dawson a run of 61.

Hot Stuff at Shelby

Shelby, Mont., July 2.—Humor, rumor and pathos are companions in expectancy during the days before the battle—the world's championship heavyweight contest between Titleholder Jack Dempsey and Contender Tommy Gibbons.

On the main street of Shelby, the little Montana oil and cow town that has sprung into international prominence overnight, the stranger may encounter a laugh, a tear and a thrill within a block. Dame Humor hands out thrills, unsubstantiated, unverified, but not untrue. One can hear anything any time. Believe it or let it lie.

Two days before the great fistic event, in a 15-minute stroll down the principal thoroughfare, the following baseless samples were freely contributed by the rumor mongers:

Hot Stuff. 1. Tommy Gibbons has over-trained, gone "stale" and is in such a condition that a Boy Scout would have little difficulty in knocking him for the requisite count.

2. Jack Dempsey has arranged to let the fight go at least seven rounds in order that large profit may accrue from the moving pictures.

Expect Record Entry List in Annual Classic

By "WAG." THE 19th annual Nebraska State Men's Golf association tournament, which starts over the Omaha Country golf course next Monday morning, bids fair to be one of the largest tournaments in the history of the association.

Maynard Swartz, secretary of the association, is bubbling over with the good news of the coming tournament. Secretary Swartz predicts an entry list of more than 200 out-of-state and Omaha golfers, and also goes on to say the competition for the state title should be mighty hot from the first to final day.

Sam Reynolds of the Omaha Field club and present holder of the state championship, will be among the entries. Samuel has been shooting some mighty fine golf over his home course and will make a strong stab to win his second consecutive championship, something he has failed to do in previous tournaments.

John W. Redick of the Omaha Country club, the local golfer who made such a fine showing in the recent Transmississippi at Minneapolis, has entered. Redick is "on" his game this season and the fact that he will be playing over his own course stamps him as one of the foremost contenders for Reynolds' title.

Blaine Young, Field club, another former champion, will be ready to tee off No. 1 next Monday along with Francis Gaines, Jack Hughes, Ray Shields, Guy Beckett, Ralph Peters, Kenneth Reed and all the rest of Omaha's state tournament golfing colony.

MAHA's first annual municipal tennis tournament will get under way soon after the city tennis tourney. This was decided last week when several tennis fans got together at the City hall and decided on staging a municipal meet.

It is the plan of these tennis boosters to arrange a series of intercity matches with St. Paul, Des Moines, Minneapolis and Kansas City. All of these towns hold municipal tournaments and it is believed that arrangements can be made to bring the champions of these towns together on an Omaha court.

The park department of the city has promised more tennis courts for the municipal parks. Miller park, Kountze, Bemis and Riverside have courts, but due to the increasing popularity for the game, the city courts already in use are not large enough to accommodate the crowds that flock to the municipal grounds each day to play.

Harry Easton is chairman of the municipal tennis committee.

Baseball Dope

Closing a record week in which they lost but one defeat, the New York Yankees today are leading the American league by nine full games. This is the greatest lead which Huggins' team has ever enjoyed. Their shut-out of the Philadelphia Athletics yesterday, 4 to 0, was the Yankees' fourth consecutive victory. They open a new series with Washington today.
