Dr. Gilder and his bride are at home at "Wake Robin," on the Fort Crook boulevard. They will leave in two weeks for a motor trip to Wisconsin, where they will visit relatives of Mrs. Gilder, after which they will go to New York to visit relatives of Dr. Gilder.

Kitchen Walls.

Most housekeepers dread scrubbing the kitchen walls more than any other cleaning. If a teaspoonful of baking soda is used in every quart of warm water instead of soap the job will be over much sooner. Some women prefer using a sponge instead of a cloth, claiming that it absorbs the dirt and leaves no streaks.

An Even Edge.

When putting a crocheted edge on a scarf pull a thread through the linen about a quarter of an inch from the edge of your material. Use this line when inserting your needle and it will not only be easier to work but your work will be absolutely even.
