In the first picture is Francis Gaines, whose 150 medalist score of 1920 has never been equaled. No. 2 is Ed Boyer, whose card of 84 won medalist honors for him in the first state tournament, in 1905. No. 3 shows Captain W. J. Foye in action. No. 4 is Ralph Peters. No. 5 is John Redick, one of the leading contenders for the present title. No. 6 is Blaine Young, co-medalist of the 1922 tournament and runner-up for the championship. No. 7 is Jack Hughes, one of the Field club's best. In picture No. 8 is the defending champion, Sam W. Reynolds, favored to repeat in the tournament this week.
