

Rail Injunction Against Strikers Made Permanent

Federal Judge Passes Ruling
Obtained by Attorney General Daugherty Last October.

By International News Service.
Chicago, July 12.—The temporary injunction obtained October 4, last, by Attorney General Daugherty restraining striking railway shopmen from interfering with interstate commerce was made permanent in a decision handed down at 10 a. m. today by United States District Judge Wilkerson, sitting in Chicago.

The government was represented in arguments before the court prior to the decision and in the court room today by Jacob M. Dickerson and Orville J. Taylor, both of Chicago, special assistants to the attorney general.

In the language of the temporary injunction obtained almost a year ago, shop craft employees are restrained from the following:

Must Not Interfere.
1.—In any manner interfering with, hindering or obstructing said railroad companies (that the plaintiff) . . . in the operation of their respective railroads and systems of transportation or the performance of their public duties and obligations in the transportation of passengers and property in interstate commerce and the carriage of mails, and from any manner interfering with, hindering or obstructing the officers, agents, servants or employees of said railway companies, or any of them . . . and from preventing or attempting to prevent any person or persons from freely entering into or continuing in the employment of said railway companies . . .

2.—In any manner conspiring, combining, confederating, agreeing and arranging with each other or with any person or persons, organization or association to injure or interfere with or hinder said railway companies . . .

Bans Picketing.
3.—Loitering or being unnecessarily in the vicinity of the points and places of ingress or egress of the employees of said railway companies . . . or aiding, abetting, directing or encouraging any person or persons, organization or association . . . to do any of the acts heretofore described . . .

4.—Inducing or attempting to induce others to engage in the practice commonly known as picketing, . . . or aiding, abetting, directing or encouraging any person or persons, organization or association . . . to do any of the acts heretofore described . . .

5.—Engaging, directing or procuring others to engage in the practice commonly known as picketing, . . .

6.—Congregating or maintaining . . . any pickets . . .

7.—Doing or causing . . . bodily harm to any of the employees of said railway companies . . .

8.— . . . directly or indirectly hindering . . . operation of trains . . .

9.—In any manner . . . directing any person . . . to abandon employment of said railway companies . . .

By Associated Press.
Chicago, July 12.—In making the injunction on the shopmen permanent, Judge Wilkerson said in part: "It seems almost incredible that warfare of the kind disclosed by the voluminous record in this case should have been waged in this country. It is even more ominous that this unlawful assault on the commerce of the nation should have found apologists and defendants, including some (happily, few) of those charged with the duty of protecting property and enforcing the law."

"This strike was more than a controversy between employer and employee. Its manifest purpose, as shown by the evidence, was to cripple and destroy interstate commerce, and to create by this assault a public opinion hostile to the decision of the board. The primary purpose of the combination therefore is unlawful, and it may not be carried out by means that otherwise would be legal."

"Even if the strike is regarded merely as a controversy between employer and employee, the evidence shows beyond doubt that it was part of the purpose of those engaged in this combination to carry on the strike by assaults and acts of violence. Certainly upon such a showing the injunctive relief will not be limited to forbidding acts of violence which are done in secret, and for which it is hard to fix responsibility and to impose punishment, and thus leave defendants free to encourage injury to persons and property by open words and deeds which in themselves appear peaceful and lawful."

Woman Shoots Two Sons and Then Kills Self

Casey, Ill., July 12.—Mrs. Marshall A. Shoemaker, 24, shot and killed her son, Herschel, forced her son Paul, 8, to swallow poison tablets after which she shot him in the stomach, seriously wounding him, and then turned the gun on herself, dying instantly. It was said at the hospital the older boy probably will die.

Paul, with the agony of poison and the bullet wound, crawled more than 100 feet to a neighbor's house and between gasps reported the tragedy.

Mrs. John Slusser, mother of Mrs. Shoemaker, witnessed the shooting, but was held at bay with a revolver by her daughter.

Harding Must Be Kind to Dogs

Takes Oath Never to Mistreat
Dog or Horse in Joining Arctic Brotherhood.

(By Associated Press.)
Aboard U. S. S. Henderson, With
President Harding, July 12.—President Harding has bound himself by an oath never to mistreat a dog or a horse.

The obligation to be kind to both of these animals was part of an oath taken by the president yesterday at Skagway, when he became a member of the Arctic Brotherhood. He today confided the oath in part to Mrs. Harding, who in turn informed members of the presidential party.

The chief executive from boyhood has loved animals, and his enthusiasm over the brotherhood's purpose to protect them caused him to tell his wife about it.

The brotherhood was organized in 1899 on the steamer Seattle by gold prospectors whose use and love of horses and dogs in the north is said to have caused inclusion in the ritual of a clause requiring kindness to these animals.

The president was today on the open waters of the Pacific ocean, having passed through Icy Strait and Cross Sound into the Gulf of Alaska, en route to Seward, where he is due Friday afternoon.

The chief executive told the people of Skagway in a brief address yesterday that he was becoming somewhat philosophical as he travelled.

"We may wonder," he said, "what is the greatest end of life."

"Men make their plans and try to adhere to them. Skagway, a port situated in a mountain pass, was developed and made notable in a rush of men seeking to acquire some thing of material value.

"That is a motive which is inherent in us, but the longer I live and the more I see of communities and human beings, the more firmly is my belief established that the sweetest thing in the world is the friendship of a few dependable friends. This is the happiness that makes a life of contentment."

Lawyers in Magee Case Battle Out of Court

By Associated Press.
Las Vegas, N. M., July 12.—Fred Wilson, attorney for the defense in the contempt case of Carl C. Magee, on trail here, appeared in court this morning with a black eye, the result of a street corner meeting last night with O. G. Askreen, chief counsel for the state in the Magee case. Askreen showed no marks of the street encounter. The attorneys had engaged in scuffle following a verbal tiff pertaining to the Ku Klux Klan angle that had been injected into the Magee trial yesterday. Askreen this morning was fined $10 in police court on his own statement that he was guilty of technical assault. The fine was remitted.

"Apparently you have much of that here, as much as may be found anywhere in the country, and you also live in an atmosphere that tends to cultivate ambition and lofty aspirations. I only hope that the worthy ones come to full realization."
