Motorists Creepy as 2 Women Race Cars

Motorists enjoying the air along the West Center street road underwent a rather creepy thrill Friday night when two big-six-cylinder automobiles, each driven by a woman, staged a race on the paved highway into Millard.

One car, a closed car, contained two men and two women. The other, a touring car, carried a woman and man.

The women raced along the road into Millard at a 60-mile clip, apparently to see which car would reach a chicken-dinner roadhouse first.
