do not know anything about it and I have tried to break the news to them twice. I really invited myself to their house. I took the father to a matinee with us, and I made up my mind that I would not go in again unless I was asked.

find out that we are married very soon. I would tell the parents in a minute, but I hold a public position, and I do not like to tell them because I think they would make trouble for me, and perhaps I would find myself without a job. I wish you could tell me what to do. Don't be a coward. Tell your wife's father at once and ask him to forgive you if he feels that you were reckless and over-eager, but that it was for love of his daughter which made you want her for your wife. The only thing which can help you now is honesty. You have not done anything to make you a criminal in the eyes of the law. There is nothing to disgrace or shame you, except your own lack of manliness in not speaking up like the man you know full well you ought to be.

Asked for Kisses. Dear Miss Fairfax: I am deeply in love with one of our salesmen, 13 years my senior. He has asked me for a kiss, but I refused, saying that I would not kiss any fellow unless I was engaged to him. Now, I don't know whether he also cares for me, as he has never asked me out, but he is acting very friendly toward me. Do you think I was right in refusing to kiss him, or do you think that will give him the impression that I do not care for him?

ABIE THE AGENT---

Was Done So Quick It Amazed Mrs. Campbell

"While in Lincoln, Neb., the other day," said a representative in a letter to the home office, "I had a peculiarly agreeable visit to the home of Mrs. Sarah J. Campbell, 506 University Place, a suburb of Lincoln. "While there I met four generations of this splendid family. Mrs. Campbell, her daughter, her grandson and his grandson, the latter a chubby babe of 6 months. Mrs. Campbell appeared so hale and hearty for one of her age that I remarked about her unusual health and she promptly replied: "It's every bit due to the Taniaic treatment. Beautiful Hair Fascinates All

The hair fetishist, technically, is a criminal who cannot resist the temptation to steal hair; who cannot see a beautiful woman without being uncontrollably seized with a desire to snip a lock of her hair and carry it away.

Yet the hair fetishist, criminologists say, is only abnormally afflicted with the same fascination for beautiful hair which all of us possess in milder form.

Features are unchangeable. Size and figure are more or less unalterable. But beautiful hair is within the power of every woman.

Regular and thorough cleansing with FITCH SHAMPOO is the first requisite of a clean, dandruff-free scalp, and beautiful, healthy, glossy, lustrous hair.

Without proper care and attention your hair is bound to be dull, thin and scraggly. Use FITCH SHAMPOO and your hair will be clean, colorful and altogether charming.
