knowledge a wedding invitation with a gift. We are merely acquaintances of the couple.

Mrs. C. F. H.: Why not get the books through the public library? Explain your need to the attendant and she will help you to select the books which will aid you.

again. Sometimes failures are good for us. The majority of those who attain easily never study the principle back of their achievement and many of those who pride themselves on their "luck" don't fortify themselves with training, study and actual knowledge. And so, by having what they call "no luck" they have to set down and work.

your parents do not have some reason for "nagging" you. It would be very nice if you could work this summer but maybe your mother is lonely and would like you to be with her during the day. This thing of judging one's parents is rather serious.

Of course, if they have no reason for so doing they should not keep you from your own freedom.

Young Juniors: You must have been doing some splendid work to be juniors at 14. I don't see why you should dress as older girls just because you are advanced in school.

Why Not? Try placing a little salt in the frying pan to prevent the sputtering of hot grease.
