

Tender Confident Will Kayoe Benny

BLANCO, N. J., July 19.—In the mind of Lew Tender, a new lightweight champion has already been crowned in succession to Benny Leonard. And the new champion is Lew Tender. The only formality that remains is actual knocking out of Leonard in their bout next Monday night, and this Tender avers, will be accomplished.

"I will win and by a knockout," the Philadelphia challenger said, in the same matter of fact manner one would use in discussing a certainty. "I had Leonard's number in our last bout, but this time I'll score more decisively. I feel excellent and I won't have the slightest difficulty in making the weight."

"He is at the 135-pound limit now," Phil Glassman, Tender's manager, interrupted. "Lew will win sure. He is in great shape and will cop by a knockout."

The challenger appeared in good condition. He was told of reports that his right hand was in bad shape. Before he could answer, Glassman chimed in:

"Say, there is nothing to that. Lew's hands are in wonderful shape. They never were better."

Tender said he had no special plan of attack. So many things come up in the course of a hard bout, he said, that the original plan is lost. "But I'll be in there to win and I'll win by a knockout," he declared.

Dundee-Criqui Scrap Should Be Sensational One, Says Scribe

By DAMON RUNYAN. KILBANE did not allow for one other most important thing. That is, he had been out of the ring so long he was not accustomed to "taking" punishment, to shaking off the effects of punches. His jaw was "soft."

Johnny Dundee, the Italian, is constantly engaged in active boxing. His "eye" is always keen, his judgment always at razor edge because he does not permit it to become dulled through inactivity.

Punches that would bring down most men will bounce harmlessly off Dundee's jaw. Criqui will find him amazingly tough. Criqui will find Dundee constantly at him instead of retreating, blocking, as Kilbane did.

Dundee is the modern wonder man of the ring, a fighter in three different classes. He has had the experience of at least 300 battles, perhaps more.

But Criqui, the Frenchman, who fought at Verdun, is a good fighter. He does not underestimate him. He is strangely patient. Patience is a great asset in a prize fight.

Joe Jackson Appears in Another "War"

Americus, Ga., July 18.—While being greeted by hundreds of local baseball fans throughout today, Joe Jackson, former Chicago American league player "outlawed" from organized baseball, was proving to be a "thorn in the sides" of the directors of the American baseball team. It is generally understood Jackson will hold the American team to its contract of $75 a week for five weeks.

Jackson reached Americus early today and was the central figure in what was practically an all-day welcome at his home, hundreds of persons calling there to talk with the former "big leaguer."

Omahans Default Tennis Matches

Kansas City, Mo., July 19.—Eight doubles teams and eight singles contestants survived yesterday's play in the Missouri Valley tennis tournament here.

Phil Bagby, Kansas City, remained to face Carl Meyers, Kansas City; John Barr, Dallas, won the right to a match with Ted Drewes, St. Louis; Wray Brown, St. Louis, present Missouri valley champion, made his way to Joe Jackson, Kansas City, and Fred Jostis, St. Louis, remained to meet George Williams, Kansas City, in the singles play.

In doubles, the Brown-Kannan team, St. Louis, overwhelmed the Dubach-Hubbell duo, Kansas City, today, 6-2, 6-1, 6-3; The Jostis Drewes team of St. Louis won from the Stocking-Adams team of Omaha by default, and Phil Bagby, Kansas City, and John Barr, Dallas, defeated Muir Rogers and Harry Bennett, Kansas City, 6-0, 6-3, 6-3.

In the fourth round of men's singles, John Barr of Dallas defeated P. T. Homan of Kansas City, 7-5, 6-2.

Number 22 was stuck on Babe Ruth's mirror last night to greet him when he awoke today. He copied his latest honor in yesterday's game with Detroit, when Walter Hoyt held the Tigers to one run and the Yankees won the first game of the series in the midwestern city, 4 to 1.

Of the four runs made by the New York team three were nonstop affairs, one Babe and the others from the sticks of Duran and Ward.

Another Fight Film Yarn. Chicago, July 18.—Rumors that pictures of the Dempsey-Gibbons fight will be shown for the first time at the society gathering of the Grand Hotel Lumiere at Onwentsia Country club, Lake Forest, Saturday night, reached the ears of federal officials here today.

Scott Durnt, president of the club, when called before Assistant State's Attorney Edwin A. Weis, denied that moving pictures to be shown at the ball. He said only still camera pictures taken at the ringside were planned.

Pacific Coast Youth Beats Jap Net Star

Boston, July 18.—Wallace J. Bates, youth from the Pacific coast, eliminated Masanosuke Fukuda, Japanese Davis cup player, from the Longwood bowl singles tournament today in straight sets and tomorrow will oppose R. N. Williams II, of Bryn Mawr, Pa., in the round before the semi-finals.

Fukuda was puzzled by Bates' controlled speed and the count in the first set reached five-love before he could break through for a game.

Favorites advanced in the singles draw from top to bottom and the best match of the eight fourth-round encounters was that in which N. M. Niles, veteran Bostonian, defeated Philip Neer of Leland Stanford University, in straight sets, Neer's aggressive strokes enabled him to force Niles to two deuce sets, the first of which required 18 games.

The seeded teams in the doubles tournament held their places in the draw and two of the strongest combinations seeking the title will clash tomorrow when Fukuda and Zeno Shimizu face Williams and Niles in a fourth-round encounter.

Singles, fourth round. Fukuda, Williams, II, Bryn Mawr, defeated R. Bradley, Harvard, 6-4, 8-6, 6-2; Wallace J. Bates, San Francisco, defeated Masanosuke Fukuda, Japan, 6-2, 6-2, 7-5; Carl Kacher, Philadelphia, defeated J. S. Niles, Boston, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2; Arnold W. Jones, Providence, defeated R. C. Sawyer, Boston, 6-2, 6-1, 6-2; H. V. Snodgrass, Los Angeles, defeated C. G. Plimpton, Boston, 6-0, 6-4, 6-1; Lawrence R. Rice, Boston, defeated James W. Niles, veteran, 6-1, 6-4, 1-6, 6-2; N. W. Niles, veteran, defeated Philip Neer, Stanford, 6-1, 6-2, 6-3; Seishiro Kashi, San Francisco, 10-8, 7-5, 6-3; Seishiro Kashi, San Francisco, defeated Josiah Wheelwright, Boston, 6-2, 6-0, 6-1.

Iowa-Owned Trotter Raced Unbeaten During 1922 Season

Decorah, Ia., July 19.—Followers of horse racing in this section of Iowa are awaiting with considerable interest the announcement of the coming season's program of Chetwind, the fleet young trotter owned by Mr. Wittee of Osage.

The young trotter and two old men, his trainer and driver, proved an unbeatable combination last year on the race tracks of northern Iowa and southern Minnesota. Chetwind is generally conceded by horsemen to be the fastest trotter in Iowa. His victories last year included races at Rochester and Albert Lea, Minn., and Decorah, Mason City and Algona, Ia.

Chetwind's driver is J. Kathan of Osage, an octogenarian, reputed to be the oldest active race driver in the country. Kathan's record as a race driver dates back to the close of the civil war, and includes the names of many famous old-time trotters such as Prairie Boy, Sleepy Ned and Patola and others long since forgotten. Kathan also is credited with having driven the longest double team race on record, a nine-hour affair at the Minnesota state fair, September 2, 1880.

A veteran of the civil war with four years' service in the Fifth Michigan cavalry to his credit, Kathan has never applied for a pension, declaring that it is every man's duty to defend his nation without reward.

Chetwind's trainer, Frank Savoy, who is three score years and 10 himself, is also a veteran in the racing game.

Remarkable Tonic Brings New Strength to Thousands of Weak and Ailing

Discovery of Lyko, the Great General Tonic, Gives Aid of Science to Run-Down People

As you watch the crowd going along the street, how easy it is to see the difference in the people who make it up. Some are well, strong, vigorous, full of the vim and energy that win in social and business life. Others are weak, emaciated, lacking in all that counts for power and success—mere nobodies in active affairs.

And yet most of these run-down people could quickly become well and strong if they would only help Nature to restore their bodies to a normal condition. What they need is an efficient general tonic and regulator. If they will do what thousands of other people once weak and lacking in energy—now strong and well—have done, they will use Lyko to get on their feet again.

It is simply amazing to read of the wonderful help Lyko has given out to people who had become worn out in mind and body, many of them discouraged, hopeless of regaining their health and strength.

Mr. Johnson, a resident of Kansas City, was amazed at the way Lyko built up his run-down constitution. He says, "When I began taking Lyko I was thin and gaunt, weighing only 130 pounds and felt a great lack of pep. Now I weigh 147 pounds, am full of energy and never feel tired."

Lyko is a scientific preparation containing pure medicinal ingredients each of which has a beneficial action on some part of the system. It has a mild but effective laxative action which gets rid of constipation.

Lyko Medicine Company New York Kansas City, Mo. Lyko is for sale by all leading druggists. Always in stock at Beaton Drug Company
