Buffaloes Split Double Bill With St. Joseph

Omaha Wins First Game With Speece on Mound, 10 to 6; Loses Second, 6 to 5.

St. Joseph, Mo., July 21.—Scintillating catch by Sherry Magee of Manush's long foul fly closed the day's proceedings and spoiled an excellent chance Omaha had to cop the second game, thus giving the Buffaloes a doubleheader victory over St. Joseph. As it was the visitors took the first game, 10 to 6, and dropped the second, 5 to 6.

The twilight battle, a seven-inning one, was a heart-breaker for Omaha to lose, having it won, 5 to 1, and having two men out with only one man on in the latter half of the sixth. Lee weakened and was showered with base hits. Before Konetych had time to yank Lee and substitute Cullop, the Saints had connected for six safeties and tied the score. Pierce greeted Cullop with a single, driving in the winning run.

Haid, Ledbetter and Mangum worked the closer for St. Joseph. Haid was touched for four hits and three runs in the second frame. He was forced to retire when O'Connor crashed a grounder off his wrist. Ledbetter going in, Mangum worked the seventh, following the insertion of a pinch hitter.

It was no fault of Kerr that Omaha didn't win No. 2. Johnny contributed a double and triple to the team's collection of hits.

The introducing fracas really began and ended in the first chapter. The Buffaloes batted around a time and a half and used nine hits, including Konetych's triple and McDonald's double and a hit batsman to ring up nine runs and decisively decide the contest. Each Buffalo got a hit that frame.

At the outset Speece was pitted against Lefty Tendler. The young assault soon drove Lindberg to the showers and Ledbetter, his successor, likewise was jerked before the first inning was over. Mangum, who finished, pitched great ball, but the game was beyond the saving stage for St. Joseph.

The Josies began to get Speece's measure in the seventh and Buckshot May soon applied the screws to the uppers.

Besides his hitting in the second game, Kerr also did some noteworthy clouting in the opener, with two singles and a triple to his credit.

Another double-header is scheduled for Sunday at 2:15. It is likely that Monday's game will be postponed.

Reynolds' Caddy Is Most Envied Boy on Field Club Links

Raymond Marinovic

Raymond Marinovic is a marked individual among the caddies at the Omaha Field club. Ordinarily the fact that Reynolds carried the clubs of Sam Reynolds when he won the state golf championship a week ago Saturday would make him the most envied boy on the links, but Sam added favor to honor when he presented Raymond with the ball which he made No. 5 in one stroke during his final match with Johnny Morris. To young Marinovic, this was a great honor and added to his distinction among caddies.

Raymond picked the ball out of the cup after Sam's now famous masher-bleed shot and wanted to clean it for use on the next hole, but Sam, who had recorded his first ace in his 21 years at the game, protested the suggestion and said that it must be used without cleaning throughout the match. When the match ended on the thirty-first green the caddy offered Reynolds the ball to keep as a treasured souvenir, but Sam returned it for Raymond to keep.

The smile of happiness that covered Raymond's freckled countenance after the formal presentation of the great spoon of battle has become a fixed feature of the king of caddies.

MacDonald Wins Metropolitan Open From Jim Barnes

Easily Vanquishes Long Jim, Shooting a Medal 70 Against an 80.

By Universal Service.
Summit, N. J., July 21.—Bob MacDonald of Chicago became metropolitan golf champion for the second time by easily vanquishing Jim Barnes of New York here today at the Canoebrook Country club in a playoff for the title.

MacDonald completed the 18 holes in 70 strokes to 80 required by Barnes.

Two years ago MacDonald won the "met" from a strong field, practically all the leading pros were in the event this year. Ten years ago MacDonald tied for the title but lost in a playoff. Barnes, national open champion two years ago, has now tied three for the "met" open, and has always lost in the playoff.

The playoff today seemed more like a procession than a contest after the second hole, where MacDonald had a birdie 3, and continued to lengthen his lead to the extent of four strokes at the turn. Barnes was never really in the affair, his short game being woefully weak.

MacDonald won the 18 holes in 70, three under par, having 34 going out and 36 coming in. Barnes had 28 for the outward journey, and 42 coming in.

Victory gave MacDonald $500 as first prize and a medal.

The cards follow:
MacDonald, out 52 3 44 44 54
Barnes, out 54 4 44 44 54
Barnes, out 54 4 44 44 54
MacDonald and Barnes have tied at the end of three days play for the title with scores of 295.

Favorites Win in First Round of City Tourney

Finkel-Nichols Match Is a Bitterly Fought One, Youngsters Winning.

Fifty-four local racket wielders got into action yesterday afternoon across the twine barriers at the Omaha Field club courts in the first day's play of the 15th annual city tennis championships. The favorites succeeded in turning back their opponents in all cases, although several of the veterans were forced to extend themselves when nine matches were forced to go three sets into deuce scores before a winner could be determined.

By far the outstanding test seen on the clay courts Saturday was the Finkel-Nichols match. Finkel won out over the veteran by scores of 6-4, 6-3, 7-5. Tom Nolan was the only nester to defeat his opponent by straight love sets, winning over Aitchison, 6-0, 6-0. The outstanding performer during the first day was the player of John Zozya, recent winner of the Carter Lake tourney. Zozya demonstrated a variety of strokes while defeating Parmelee, 6-3, 6-1, and seems to have risen into the dark horse class.

Eighteen teams have already signed up in the men's doubles event, which starts Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock. It is likely that the ladies' competition will be abandoned unless more entrants sign. At present only six flapper performers have entered the singles, and no teams have done so for the women's doubles event. The mixed doubles, which was to be one of the features of this year's classic, will also need to be given up.

The first round of match play will likely be finished up this afternoon, and the second round by Tuesday night. There are four rounds of play—finals and finals. The championship of Omaha will be decided Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

Church to Entertain Boxer if He Wins Ten-Round Bout

Denver, Colo., July 21.—What is believed to be the first time in the history of boxing in the United States, a church is to give a banquet in honor of a professional pugilist.

The Merritt Memorial Methodist Episcopal church of this city will prepare a big feast and entertainment for Don (Terror) Long, Colorado Springs featherweight, if he wins his 10-round bout with Bud Hamilton at the Springs on August 16. It was announced here today.

Long is popular among the church people of the capital city, having supervised membership drives for the boys departments of the different Bible schools.

More interest is being shown in the scheduled 10-round go than has any other fight in Colorado for many years. Both of the boys are top notchers in their class.

Industrial League Meeting.

A meeting of the Industrial Baseball Managers, has been called for next Wednesday, July 25, at 7:45 p. m., at N. J. Weston's office in the Y. M. C. A. It is very important that every manager should be present.

Allowing Amateurs Play Out of Town Ball Is Criticized by Former Players

The move of the board of directors permitting Metropolitan league members to play out of town baseball during week days started a considerable bit of criticism to come onto the heads of the board from former amateur players who were connected with the association for many years.

Chris Kemmy, who for twelve years played under the amateur standards, characterized the move as the beginning of the end of the local association. "When a player can receive money for playing out of town ball, he is too big for the amateur association," said Kemmy.

Matt Hoyer of the old Spauldings is against allowing the amateurs to play semi-pro ball during the week, as is Herman Gernant of the old South Side Sluggers.

Frank Suchy, former manager of the Castle hotel ball team, thought the move too far removed from the amateur standards which had flourished so well in Omaha.

Johnny Dannison, now a member of the board and a player in the association for sixteen years, is against every kind of professionalism and opposed the action of the board.

In general, local amateur followers were not in favor of the act, claiming the move to allow players to go out of town would benefit but one or two on each team and the rest must accept semi-professional ranking for the benefit of the few.

Rev. W. J. Corboey, S. J., athletic director of Creighton university, has threatened to remove Ika Mahoney and Allen from the Murphy's after today's game. In the meantime Father Corboey is investigating the Missouri Valley ruling on the situation.

President Mullen of the American league has been instructed by managers of his circuit to ask the board of directors the same privileges accorded the Metropolitan players. A meeting of the board probably will be called this week to take it up, together with several other points which the motion permitting out of town play did not cover.

Claims Cudahy Boxing Club Is Not Legal One

The Cudahy Athletic Club, Boyle and Schlaifer affair, is liable to blossom out into a real court battle before long.

Friday the Cudahy Athletic club filed suit against Boyle and his fighter, Morris Schlaifer, for $630.21 damages, claiming that Schlaifer refused to fight Charley Long in a bout at the Cudahy club July 11. Because of Schlaifer's alleged failure to keep his contract with the Cudahy people, the latter assert that they had to refund $413 demanded of ticket holders.

Yesterday Boyle, on behalf of himself and Schlaifer, came right back at the Cudahy club and filed charges with the state boxing commission, claiming that the Cudahy club is not legal and that it is suspended by the commission.

Boyle also states in his charges that he notified the Cudahy officials five days before the fight was to be held that Schlaifer would not appear, and that the club violated the rules of the commission in that it failed to notify the public that Schlaifer would not appear.

At a formal conference held yesterday between Boyle and the Cudahy club officials, no agreement was reached between the parties concerned.

Schlaifer and Boyle are now under suspension by the state commission.

Police Ball Team Takes Two Games

The Omaha police won both ends of their doubleheader with the Omaha mail carriers and the Sioux City police at League park yesterday, by the scores of 10 to 6 and 13 to 4. This is the second time the cops have defeated the Sioux City team, winning the other contest by a close score.

Pete McCoy pitched the first game for the police and allowed the mail carriers eight hits, three of them doubles. Ryan, Nelson and Yost were the heavy hitters of the first game. Yost gathering two triples in three trips to the plate.

The second game was a one sided affair, Crawford giving but two hits, both in the third inning, when the Packers stayed a hitting rally scoring the only runs. Chas. Egan made four hits in four times up. Crawford fanned eleven batters and E. Gillis, for Sioux City, nine.

Before the start of the second game, Dan Butler, police commissioner, presented a silver ball and hat to Joe Wavrin, manager of the Omaha ball team, on behalf of Broedegard brothers. Mayor Jim Dahlman pitched the first ball to Dan Butler. M. D. Riggs, police commissioner of Sioux City, was behind the plate. Sam Miller and E. O. Eundy, members of the Sioux City (la.) civic service commission, and Judge J. U. Sammis, accompanied the team to Omaha and were guests of Mayor James C. Dahlman at a luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce, prior to the game.

First game: O. R. H. E. Omaha 10; Police 6. R. H. E. Batters: Neesebaum, Ramm and Wack; McCoy and Ryan. Umpires: Billie Fox and John Gendron.

Williams Beats Harvey Snodgrass

By International News Service.
Chestnut Hills, Mass., July 21.—R. Norris Williams of Philadelphia won the Longwood Bowl singles championship today by defeating Harvey Snodgrass of California in straight sets, 6-2, 6-4, 6-2.

Snodgrass appeared nervous and many of his shots were netted. Williams placed his shots with brilliant accuracy.

The Californian's service, which was very effective in the semi-final match yesterday, faltered today and he netted most of the first balls, with the result that Williams received good placements on the second to place his return accurately.

Oxford-Cambridge Wins From Yanks

London, July 21.—Before a vast crowd that jammed the Wembley stadium, the Oxford-Cambridge track team today defeated the Yale-Harvard athletes. The rival teams now stand even with three victories each.

A former Princeton star, Tevis Hull, of Oxford, helped down his native land by winning the 220-yard hurdle. H. M. Abraham was the star of the meet, the fleet Cambridge man defeating W. A. Collins of Yale in the 100-yard dash and the broad jump.

England's men came through in several events that had been looked upon as sure things by the Americans, and this "break" wrecked the hopes of the Americans. The first disappointment came when R. K. Dickerson of Oxford tied R. D. Gerould in the high jump, and another surprise was the victory of D. G. A. Lowe of Cambridge, in the half mile run in which he defeated Tom Campbell of Yale and Billy Turke of Harvard.

The records was made against the West Asheville team. Only two runners reached first, one on an error and the other by a walk.

Schlaifer Meets Billy Wells at Bluffs, August 3

Rainbow Post of American Legion Plans to Stage Big Open Air Show.

COUNCIL BLUFFS will be the scene of a return match between Morris Schlaifer of Omaha and Billy Wells of England on August 3 when the bout will be staged at the Broadway baseball park under the auspices of the American Legion.

This will be the second meeting between this pair. The last encounter resulted in the Omaha boy gaining a much disputed decision after he had floored the Englishman twice during the match which was staged at the Auditorium last winter.

Promoters in several middle western cities have been after this match. An attempt to stage it at Fort Snelling in St. Paul and through last week in Omaha but for the recent indefinite suspension of Schlaifer for failure to fulfill a contract to box before the Cudahy club at South Omaha.

The August 3 card will comprise 40 rounds of boxing and the Bluffs Legion post is looking for a classy list of prelims to set it off as one of the best outdoor shows of the season. Seating arrangements will be improved and altered to take care of a 7,000 crowd.

Schlaifer has kept in training and recently returned from an outing to Iowa lakes. Wells comes fresh from Jack Dempsey's training camp at Great Falls, Mont., where he acted as a sparring partner to the champion while training to defend his title against Tommy Gibbons at Shelby. Popular prices will be charged.

It's Just as Easy for This Indian Hurler to Throw With Either Arm

Making a baseball game equal in attraction to a circus sideshow is an art which has been cultivated by Charlie Sign, a Winnebago Indian, who is displaying his pitching wares in and about Omaha. Charlie has cultivated the art of throwing the ball with either hand and each is just as effective as the other against opposing batsmen.

Last Thursday at the Nebraska Power company picnic at Elmwood park, Charlie took the mound for the Omaha team against the Citizens Gas and Electric company squad of Council Bluffs. The Bluffs team is no set-up because they are near the top of the Council Bluffs amateur league, but they fell victims of Sign's art and lost, 9 to 3, the Indian allowing them but a quartet of hits.

This ambidextrous individual is almost a whole team in himself. The batter can't tell with which arm he is going to throw the ball and while debating the issue, Charlie has the horseshoe across the plate. Charlie can bat also. He swings from either side and his blows are usually for extra bases.

Charlie is no youngster, being some 39 summers old. He pitched with the Haskell Indian team during his four years at the Haskell institution. He began his ambidextrous career while pitching for a school in Tomah, Wis., in 1908. Sign is a member of the Disabled American Veterans' association, being injured while serving with the American army during the late war. He entered the employment of the Nebraska Power company following his discharge from the Bellevue Vocational school.

Mr. Mark Levings Turns in Best Card at Ladies' Open

Other Mrs. Bert Clapp of Harlan, Ia., had a card of 109 and handicap of 8. Mrs. J. H. L. had the lowest net score of the day.

The driving contest was won by Mrs. Daphne Peters of the Omaha Country club when she drove the ball 204 yards. The approaching contest was won by Mrs. Van Morris of Fremont in the putting competition.

Mrs. A. H. Sibirsen of the Council club after a playoff of a tie with Mrs. Howard Goodrich of Happy Hollow, had the lowest net score of the day.

Mrs. S. S. Caldwell of the Omaha Country club won the blind bogey competition.

More than 70 women competed.
