Federal court resembled a league of nations and a county fair all rolled into one Monday morning when Federal Judge Munger mounted the bench to try persons arrested in raids by Robert Samardick and agents working out of the office of U. S. Rohrer, district prohibition enforce ment officer, on liquor charges.

The court room was packed to ca pacity with bootleggers and their 'amilies, and the crowd overflowed into the corridors. More than a score of attorneys assembled inside the railing in front of the judge's desk. George Keyser, deputy United States district attorney, called out the names of those to be tried, to which bey responded with a plea of either Aty or not guilty.

Due to the fact that all of the de-Attorney Kinsler and Deputy United States Marshal Thomas stood at the door and repeated each name.
