A Question.

Livingston, Mont., July 25.—The question of what to do with a first-class county jall, now that he has it, is facing Mike Walsh of this city to-day, after being informed that a lot he purchased in White Hall township at a tax sale two years is the location of the county jail. The lot was sold for taxes thought due on the property by officials who were unaware that it belonged to the county and that the jail was on the let that the jail was on the lot. Walsh did not know until informe by his attorney, when the lapse of time for redemption by the owner had passed, that he was the possessor of a county jail.

A Pal for Laddle Boy.

Vancouver, B. C., July 25.—A companion for Laddie Boy is awaiting President Harding here.
An old woman with a nondescript puppy having traces of Airdale visited the city hall. Her dog, she said, looked like the pictures of Laddie Boy, the president's Airdale, and she asked permission to make a present of it to the chief executive when he visits Vancouver tomorrow.

Discouraged from her purpose. the woman said that if she is not permitted to present her puppy to the distinguished visitor she will express the animal to the White House in Washington.

20 Years in Pen-Innocent.

Thomaston, Me., July 25.—Henry Lambert is a free man after 28 years' confinement for a crime which the governor and his counsel are now convinced he did not commit.

Lambert was convicted of the murder of J. Wesley Allen, his wife and 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in 1901. Evidence of foul play found among the ruins of Allen's burned farm house, led to the conviction of Lam-bert after a sensational trial. He was freed yesterday and given an official document expressing belief in his in-

Los Angeles, July 25,-Mrs. Ann Melvina Pratter celebrated what she computes to be her 119th birthday at the Los Angeles county farm by receiving numerous callers and relating to them reminiscences of her youth when she was a slave in the south. Mrs. Pratter was born, she believes in South Carolina, and was sold 16 times, once for $2,500. She came to Los Angeles in 1889 and has been cared for at the county farm for the past three years.

"The Lord has been good to me," she told a visitor.

to women employes.

Persistent. Chicage, July 25.—The peristent wearing of sleeveless dresses and the excessive application of "make up" will mean the dismissal of women employes of the People's Gas, Light and Coke company, Johanne Doane, dean of women, said today in a notice

Dean Doane also requested the women employes to wear hats while on The order affects 600 girls and all

have accepted the ruling. Frankfort Prosecutor Butchered by Mob

Associated Press. Frankfort, July 24 .- Dr. Haas, the public prosecutor, who was killed during communist disturbances here Monday, was literally butchered by the mob whose leaders dragged him from his home. He was first hauled through the streets until he was unconscious. The rioters then stood him against a lamppost where he was beaten across the head and face with iron rods and club and stones until

The mob also attempted to invade the Hotel Frankfurterhof, but was repulsed by reinforcements and po-

The authorities believe Dr. Haas death was instigated by criminals whom he had prosecuted, as the ringleader, who dragged him from the house, was heard to say, "old man, I know you!"

Britain Denies Indian

Colony Self-Government London, July 25 .- In a parliamentary paper issued last night, the gov ernment communicates its decision or the long disputed question of the status of Indians in Kenya colony. The colony and protectorate were formerly known as the East Africa protectorate.

The essential points in the memor andum are that: Responsible self-government for the colony is out of the question; that the Indian demands for equal franchise cannot be granted, but that the government is prepared resentation on the legislative council through the communal system of election that the elected members of the council shall comprise 5 Indians, 1 Arab and 11 Europeans. This leaves the franchise unchanged as regards white settlers.

Lausanne Celebrates Peace Treaty Signing

Lausanne, July 25 .- The treaty of Lausanne, re-establishing peace in the near east, now bears the signature of Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan Greece, Rumania and Turkey.

Simple ceremonies, marking the termination of negotiations which have extended over many months, were carried out in the main hall of Lausanne university this afternoon and when the representatives of the various nations, led by Ismet Pasha, had affixed their signatures, President Scheurer of the Swiss confederation declared the session adjourned, with the admonition: "Let the closing thought be a benediction." An impressive demonstration acclaiming the signing of peace occurred in Lausanne tonight.

Proposal to Operate U. S.

Merchant Fleet Rejected Washington, July 25 .- The shipping board, after an all-day session rejected the proposal submitted by the American Steamship Owners' as sociation for the operation of the government merchant fleet without supervision of the board. In announcing this decision, Chairman Farley said the board hoped soon to be able to make public a plan for direct government operation, details of which are now being worked out.
