Bandit Probed Vice in Omaha, Confession Says

Archie E. Page Wanted for Attempted Bank Robbery, Hired by Pastor to Investigate.

An 1,800-word confession was sign ed yesterday afternoon by Archie E. Page, held for Chicago and Peoria police on charges of bank robbery. In this confession Page admitted that he and three companions had attempted to rob a bank at Low Point, Ill., and that they had taken refuge in flight to Omaha.

He also admitted in his confession that since coming to Omaha he had been employed to investigate so-called vice conditions here.

Employed to Investigate. In his statement he said that he a man named E. A. Ruth, who had come with him from Peoria, and Superintendent Burnett of the Buel Detective agency had been employed by Rev D. E. Cleveland to investigate vice and gambling in Omaha and that he had worked three days at $10 a day and expenses when police took him in custody.

Hugh McCaffrey, nationally known Burns detective agency operative, arrived in Omaha yesterday morning from Chicago to identify Page, as the man sought in connection with the robbery of the Banta Bros. bank at Low Point, June 5.

Page admitted it was his car which was found abandoned near the scene of a second robbery the same night, but claims himself the victim of cir-

Butler Atttacks Minister. Rev. Mr. Cleveland has admitted at Page was working for him through the Buell detective agency investigating vice conditions in Omaha, prior to his arrest. Police Commissioner Butler accused the Rev. Mr. Cleveland of seeking by this means to bring about his political downfall by collecting evidence of law violations and then going to the governor with a request for Butler's removal. Cleveland denies any political motive. He declares he reported vio- Frank Tarengeio I deserted July 5 lations he found to Butler but was refused a plain-clothes man. Then he hired men from the Buell agency. The pastor denied he was acting as a representative of the committee of 5,000 or the Ministerial union.
