Chicago Charity Boxing Shows Under Federal Investigation

Chicago, July 27.—Federal inquiry into boxing matches fought in Chicago under the guise of charitable entertainments, including the Benny Leonard-Pinkie Mitchell affair recently, which brought such contests to an end here, was begun today, with the arrival of L. L. Daily, an internal revenue agent, who checked the gate receipts of the Dempsey-Gibbons fight at Shelby, Mont. To date, Daily said, the government had received $22,000 in taxes on the big fight at Shelby, and Mayor Johnson of that city has been held responsible for $5,000 additional due the government. A lien against Johnson's property had been filed by the government, Daily said. Japan is to have seven national parks, similar to those in America.

Rain Stops Jap-Canadian Davis Cup Competition

Montreal, July 27.—Rain caused postponement today of the second day's play of the Davis cup elimination contests between the tennis teams of Canada and Japan. Japanese players yesterday won both their singles matches, Zeno Shimizu defeating Willard Crocker, while Leroy Rennie, Canadian star, lost to Masamune Fukuda. Loss of the doubles matches by the Canadian team will mean their elimination from further Davis cup matches.
