Giants and Pirates Split Double Bill While Cincinnati Goes Into Second Place

Pittsburgh Scores 5 Runs in Ninth to Win First Game While New York Takes Next Before 35,000 People

Ninth-Inning Rally Nets Pirates Five Runs and First Game; Giants Slam Five Hurlers.

PITTSBURGH, July 30. — Pittsburgh and New York divided a double-header today, Pittsburgh winning the first game, 5 to 4, and New York the second, 17 to 2. Pittsburgh dropped to third place in the National league race, Cincinnati winning two games from Philadelphia.

ETAOINSHRDLU Pittsburgh won the first game by staging a batting rally in the ninth inning, scoring all of their runs and driving Scott from the box.

The Giants pounded five pitchers hard in the second game and knocked Morrison from the mound in the third when seven runs were scored. Young tripled with the bases filled in that inning. Other reserve pitchers were unable to stop the Giant batsmen, Nehf allowed the Pirates two hits and two runs in the first inning but was invincible for the remainder of the game.

A crowd of 35,000 people witnessed the game.

NEBRASKA'S new stadium will be ready in time for the first home game next fall when Oklahoma plays the Huskers October 13. These pictures give an idea of the manner in which the work is progressing. There is more seating space available now, if the work had to be stopped, than old Nebraska field afforded for the Notre Dame game last year.

The work now under contract will cost $436,814.40. The amount pledged is $454,568.99. More money will be required to complete the entrances.

South American Fighter Not Afraid of Champion

By "WAG."

FIRPO, the "Wild Bull of the Pampas," the man who expects to slug Champion Jack Dempsey unconscious September 14, is in town. He arrived in Omaha early Monday morning and will remain here until Friday night, when he meets Homer Smith in a 10-round bout at the ball park.

Surrounded by his interpreter, G. Widmer; Hugh P. Gartland, representative of Tex Rickard; Alfred Mayer, special correspondent of La Nacion, a South American newspaper, and a flock of interested persons, Firpo withstood the attack of newspaper men and camera sleuths in the lobby of the Fontenelle hotel this morning for half an hour, then through his interpreter announced that he was ready for his morning nap.

Out of the ring Firpo strikes one as would a big farmer, just arrived from Wahoo or some other Nebraska farm town. He looks about the room when his interpreter is talking and seems so unsure of himself. There is a blank look on his face when English is spoken to him, but every now and then when the word "Dempsey" is spoken Firpo's eyes sparkle and the big man from the Argentine immediately starts a line of chatter with his interpreter.

Firpo has been in this country a year now. He appeared surprised this morning at his surroundings. He never smiled, and when he shoves out his right hand to welcome strangers it moves slowly forward. The right that many expect to fell Dempsey next September remains lifeless in the hand of the other man. Firpo doesn't squeeze the slightest with it. The 'Wild Bull of the Pampas" appeared to the writer as if he was sad; as if he had been slighted.

But we were told that it is the way Firpo generally acts. His eyes are always sad; his face unsmiling.

His interpreter informed us that Firpo is fairly well educated, a chemist, a lover of music and a lover of nature. In his home country Luis is somewhat of a hero among his people. He must be all that because a special correspondent of a Buenos Aires newspaper accompanies Firpo on all his tours. This correspondent has a special wire to his newspaper. He writes great gobs of "stuff" about the "Wild Bull of the Pampas," and he, too, believes Firpo will knock our Jack Dempsey for a row of wheat fields when they meet for the championship in New York September 14.

But the coming fight.

Luis Firpo is not making any predictions about the big title scrap. Luis, through his interpreter, told us that he considered any man with two hands a hard man to whip, and Dempsey has all of two hands.

According to an announcement that came out of New York the other day, Firpo doesn't want to meet the world's champion this year.

"I would rather wait until next year to meet Senor Dempsey," said Firpo via Mr. Widmer. "But I signed a contract with Rickard last March to meet Dempsey within a year, so must go through with my contract.

"I want some tough fights under my belt. Would like to meet Harry Wills, Tommy Gibbons, Georges Carpentier and heavyweights like that before tackling your champion. One needs hard fights under his belt to be ready to meet such a man as Dempsey.

"I will not seek a postponement of the fight. I am not afraid of Dempsey. Please don't get that impression of me, but I would like to get a little more experience before meeting Dempsey."

Firpo doesn't need any long grind of training, according to his interpreter. He is in good condition right now. The one big trouble is getting sparring partners to train with Luis.

Mahoney and Moore were on even terms through the entire diddy. Ike struck out 11 to Jim's 9 and both issued three passes.

The Standard Laundry rose to third place in the per cent column by turning aside the Nebraska Tires at Riverview in 10 innings, 6 to 5. Beerr doubled in the 10th and a timely single by F. Mirasky sent across the winning run. The pitching of Beninato proved effective until the seventh, when Beers was sent in after a volley of hits were garnered.

The Wows were unable to score throughout. Once the lodgemen threatened, in the seventh two hits and a walk filled the sacks with two palms down. Twirler Moore was expected to "win his own game," but flied out to deep left into the waiting mits of Rokusek. In the first a neat double play, Redden to Lacey, with two men on, pulled out of a bad hole and left the losers scoreless.

Norfolk Can't Hit Koupal and Lose

Islanders Down Fairbury.

Grand Island, Neb., July 30.—Thompson's timely hit, tieing the score in the eighth, and Buser's clever and daring base running, bringing in the winning run in the ninth, caused Fairbury's defeat today, 3 to 2. Stanton's advantage in hits was more than offset by 10 walks and three smart hit by pitched balls. Both teams fielded brilliantly, though the locals made four bungles. Score:
