

Jack Dempsey Visits in Denver

Denver, Colo., July 30.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, honored by a fishing trip in Colorado, in good spirits and looking physically fit, is today resting in Denver awaiting instructions from his manager, Jack Kearns, who is in New York conferring with Promoter Tex Rickard.

Jack says he knows he is matched with Luis Firpo, the wild man of the Argentine, but he wasn't giving out anything on the details. Jack said he didn't know anything about the match and would not until he heard from Mr. Kearns. "I don't know how much training I'll do for the Firpo match and I don't know when I will train. Perhaps I'll stay in Denver a couple of weeks. However, all of this is up to Mr. Kearns," the champion stated.

Chet Wynne to Coaching School

Chet Wynne, new head football coach at Creighton university, arrived in Omaha this morning from Fremont. Wynne is publishing over with football "chatter" and predicts that Creighton will have one of the strongest teams in the history of the university if all the material turns out for the gridiron sport this fall as expected.

The new Creighton coach will leave Omaha soon to attend the Notre Dame school of instruction for football coaches, which is conducted by the famous Knute Rockne, head grid director at Notre Dame. Wynne is a former pupil of Rockne and expects to pick up a few more pointers on coaching at the school. Wynne will report back to Creighton early in September.

"Dots" Miller on Way to Saranac

San Francisco, July 30.—Stricken at the peak of his successful career, Jack ("Dots") Miller, former star of the old Pittsburgh Pirates and until two weeks ago manager of the pennant winning San Francisco Seals, is today on his way to Lake Saranac, N. Y., where he will begin the long, uphill fight against the white plague.

Miller, in company with the great Honus Wagner, made the Keystone combination of the Pirates 14 years ago. Last year Miller came to San Francisco in the deal that sent Jimmie O'Connell to the Giants. He guided the team to the championship and this year was 10 full games in the lead in the pennant race when he was suddenly taken ill, and, under doctors' orders, left baseball.

Team Match for Next Thursday

Seventy players will be compelled to pay the expense of a royal dinner for 70 more players when the Lakoma club's annual banquet-golf match is finished next Thursday afternoon, August 2.

Peter Lowden, professional at the club, consisting of a committee of one to divide the club's players into two teams, one sponsored by the president and the other by the vice president.

Clarence Peters, medalist during the recent state tournament; George Graham, whose drives threaten to equal Eddie Hold's in the recent Transmississippi meet; J. Fitzgerald, crack cross-handed player, and Wally Shepard will set the example and stride for the lesser lights in the president's team.

Joe Murphy, Rollie Reynolds, Hollcroft and Ralph Dold are among the sharpshooters in the vice president's team. Everett Buckingham and J. Dean Ringer are listed as teammates of Murphy & Co.

Defeat Hawaiian Tennis Players

By Associated Press. Orange Lawn Tennis Club, Orange, N. J., July 29.—James O. Anderson and John B. Hawkes scored their third consecutive victory in the Davis cup series in Australasia by defeating the Hawaiian pair in the lawn tennis doubles on the turf of the Orange Lawn Tennis club here today. They defeated William A. Ecklund and Bowie Dietrich by the score of 6-0 5-6 7-5.

The Australasians by their success move on to the finals of the American zone contests of the Davis cup contest to encounter their old rivals, the Japanese.

Newsey Sportlets

The Omaha Buffaloes return home Saturday to open a series with the Oklahoma City Indians. A double header is scheduled for next Sunday.

"Runt" Marr, former Western and Nebraska State league player, is having a hard time managing the Springfield, Mo., club of the Western association. The fans, so the report goes, are after "Runt" and have been giving him the merry "razz."

Frank Isbell, owner of the Wichita Witches, is called the "Connie Mack" of the Western league. Isbell wrecked the club at the end of the 1922 season, but at the start of the present season gathered together a few veterans and several youngsters and developed a team that is leading the Western league.

William T. Tilden, national tennis champion, won an exhibition match from Manuel Alonso, champion of Spain, at Berkeley, Cal., yesterday.

The University of Nebraska football team opens the 1923 season at Urbana, Ill., October 6, when it plays the University of Illinois gridiron warrior.

Cy Young Hurls for Team of Oldtimers of Major Leagues

Cleveland, O., July 29.—Cy Young, the only pitcher to win 500 games, showed today that he had lost none of his cunning, when, pitching for a team of old timers of the Cleveland major league clubs of yesterday against the Old Sand Lotterers of this city, he struck out two men and allowed only one hit in two innings he was on the mound. He also got one of his side's five hits. Chief Zimmer, who caught Cy more than a decade ago, did the receiving. The Sand Lotterers won, 6 to 4.

Nap La Jolie, considered by many the greatest second baseman the game has ever known, and Bill Schwartz, who played third base, got two buggers. Other former major leaguers participating included Earl Moore, no-hit pitcher who was Cleveland's ace 20 years ago; Charley Smith, Homer Davidson, Larry Twitcomb, Charley Hickman, Red Graney, Nick Altrock and Jack Graney.

The game, a five inning exhibition for the benefit of the Medical Protective fund of the Cleveland Amateur Baseball and Athletic association, intended to be used in the event of injuries to sand lot players and umpires, was attended by approximately 20,000 persons.

1 Dead, 2 Hurt in Dance Hall Riot

Construction Camp Workers Invade Community Entertainment Near Chicago.

Chicago, July 30.—One man is dead, two county highway policemen are believed dying and two other men are known to be seriously wounded as the result of a fight at Worth, Ill., between 150 construction gang workers, citizens and policemen early Sunday morning, according to the Chicago Herald-Examiner.

Fifty of the workmen who occupied a camp just outside of Worth at midnight invaded a dance hall in Worth where a community dance was in progress. The men armed with knives, razors and revolvers, chose as partners the women, taking wives from the arms of their husbands, says the Herald-Examiner. All resistance on the part of the dancers was met with oaths and threats of death, says the newspaper.

The screams of the women as they were snatched from their partners were heard by officials of the village. When they entered the place the workmen began firing. Additional help was summoned and when they arrived a general fight ensued. The invaders retreated toward their camp and when they arrived there, were reinforced by 100 other workmen, and the police called for further aid. More than 200 shots were exchanged and there was a hand to hand fight before the rioters were overcome.

City Helps Man Celebrate His 105th Birthday

Wabash, Ind., July 30.—"Uncle Jack" Higgins effectually halted the procession, as the Englishman once said when he intended to convey that he "stopped the parade," when he celebrated his 105th birthday here.

The entire city of Wabash halted its activities for the moment and paid tribute to Higgins. A huge birthday party was held in the city park, and was attended by many hundreds of persons. Gifts were showered upon Higgins.

"Uncle Jack," as he is known to young and old in the city, is believed to be Indiana's oldest resident. He was born in England, served a number of years in the British navy, then came to America to live. Although he was then already past the prime of life, he fought with the Union forces during the civil war and is now receiving a government pension. He lives with a daughter, Letitia Higgins, now 85 years old.
